HOTELS & RESTAURANTS.

JONES HOUSE, WELLS COVERLY, PROPRIETOR, Corner of Market Street and Market Square, HARRISBURG, PA.

THE NEW AND ELEGANT HOTEL, recently erected by the Messrs. JONES in Harrisburg, Pa., having been leased for a term of years by the undersigned, he takes this method of calling the attention of his former patrons, friends, and the traveling community, thereto.

Having a front of 60 feet on Third, 170 feet on Market Street, and Fifty-two feet front on Market Square, it cannot fail to prove attractive as well as inviting, to travellers.

The CHAMBERS are of the size, well ventilated, and furnished with a number of rooms with connecting doors—making them very desirable for families.

The HALLS are second the highest by Dealers, and every modern improvement, in fact, has been added, that may conduce to the safety, comfort and happiness of the guests.

Visitors may, therefore, rest assured that the JONES HOUSE has been made perfect in all its appointments—that each department has been placed in charge of Chief Officers and Competent Persons—that its cuisine, particular the system which has been adopted by the Proprietor, will afford to those who may make it their home, as great a degree of comfort as may be obtained at any similar establishment in the State.

To secure this desirable result, he has furnished the Public with Private Parlors, Chambers, Dining Room, &c., with entirely NEW FURNITURE; and also arranged within the building, a fine BARBER SALOON, OYSTER SALOON, DRAWING ROOM, BAR AND BAGGAGE ROOM, &c.

The CULINARY DEPARTMENT AND DINING ROOM will receive the especial attention of the Proprietor, which, he trusts, will be a sufficient guarantee that all tastes will be suited.

After returning his heartfelt thanks to his old friends and patrons, for the liberal patronage so long extended to him at the "COLUMBIA HOUSE," and also to his first and patrons at the "COLUMBIA HOUSE," Cape Island, during the season of 1857, he respectfully solicits a continuance of it at the "JONES HOUSE."
