A Regular Democratic Meeting---John Birmingham Endorsed.

MR. EDITOR:—Accident took us to Mrs. Hartman's tavern, at Woods' run, on Saturday night, where we found a regularly organized Williams meeting, and as our party consisted of good Democrats who had but little confidence in the honesty of the great "I am," the arch demagogue of railroad notoriety, we thought that by exercising a little patience and discretion, we might possibly change the sentiments of those in attendance in favor of Capt. John Birmingham.

We procured the early adjournment of the rival meeting—in fact, we choked off some ambitious mouthers of meaningless words, and organized a National Democratic meeting by calling Mr. Samuel Smith to the Chair, and appointing Jas. J. Sweeny, Secretary. After we had organized, P. J. Sinclair, Esq., was called upon for a speech. He responded, and held forth in an able, eloquent address of some length, in which he clearly demonstrated the integrity of James Buchanan and his administration, and the principles of the Democratic party. He clearly proved that the Democracy had always been with the people, closely and faithfully watching over and guarding their interest. He showed that Williams, in his mongrel Press, endeavored treacherously to advance the interests of Gen. J. K. Moorhead, at the expense of Andrew Burke, and convinced all present that it would be an insult to common decency and James Buchanan to send a rapid Black Republican to Congress with Democratic votes.

He then spoke of Birmingham—his integrity—the services he had always been proud to render his party—his character, intellectually and morally—and changed nearly every Williams Democrat present; in fact, many were ashamed that they looked with favor on the notorious railroad lawyer, Tom Williams.

Mr. Sinclair was followed by that staunch democrat, Samuel Smith, Esq., of Manchester, at the conclusion of whose speech, Mr. Sweeny introduced the following resolutions which were adopted by acclamation.

Resolved, That as true national Democrats, having entire confidence in the integrity of James Buchanan and his administration, and believing it our duty rather to aid than oppress him in his efforts for the national good, we will endeavor, in the person of Capt. John Birmingham to send from the 22d Congressional district a true and faithful democrat.

Resolved, That this meeting adjourn to meet again at the same place at 7 o'clock next Thursday evening.

SAMUEL SMITH, Chairman.
JAS. J. SWEENY, Secretary.

Dinner to President Taggart.

Below we publish an invitation to a public dinner to Hon. David Taggart, President of the State Agricultural Society, signed by a number of our citizens. He has not yet replied, but will doubtless accept the proffered compliment. Certainly it could not be more worthily bestowed, for to Mr. Taggart and Secretary Heister our citizens cannot but feel deeply indebted. To them in a high degree must be attributed the unexampled success of the exhibition just closed, which has been of as much pecuniary benefit to our citizens as it has been gratifying to their municipal pride. In this view we hope the invitation may be accepted, that the worthy President may know the estimation in which he is held by our citizens, and that those citizens may express the gratitude they feel towards him:

PITTSBURGH, September 8d, 1858

HON. D. TAGGART—Sir:—Your friends west of the mountains bid you welcome to this the workshop of Pennsylvania; and we avail ourselves of this, your first visit as "President of the State Agricultural Society," to tender you a public entertainment at such time during your sojourn as may best comport with your leisure.

We are well aware of the arduous duty in which you are engaged; but no person can be insensible to the many advantages that will be derived from the knowledge and zeal and industry you bring to bear on this important branch of wealth to our great and growing Commonwealth; and to you, sir we feel, as citizens of Pennsylvania should ever feel, that you have done much to uphold the character and standing of the farming interests and the industry of our people.

Trusting you will find it convenient to accept the hospitalities of our people in a public manner.

We are your fellow-citizens,

The State Fair.

The exhibition of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society has at length drawn to a close, and we take pleasure in saying that it has been the most successful ever held in the State, a handsome surplus being left after the payment of expenses. The display has never been equalled, much less excelled, in either end of the State. This result is due to the citizens of Pittsburgh and vincinity, in a great measure, and fully as much to the energy and eminent fitness for their respective positions of Hon. D. A. Taggart, President, and Judge A. O. Heister, Secretary of the Society.

The attendance on Saturday morning was good, when the facts are taken into consideration that all the articles were being removed as rapidly as possible, that it was announced that the Fair would close at noon, and that the only attraction announced, the cricket match, was doubtful. However, a match was played between two eleven of the Olympic club, which was watched with eager interest by the spectators present. The premiums not previously announced were awarded, and at three o'clock in the afternoon the grounds were entirely deserted, except by those employed in removing the articles which had been on exhibition, and the employees of the Society.

The premiums to those residing in the country were paid at the office on the grounds. Our city friends who have been fortunate enough to obtain premiums can get them by calling at the Secretary's office, on F fth street, over Reed's jewelry store.

We hope the unexampled success of this exhibition may induce the officers of the Society to hold the next one here. It will be a great advantage to them and our city.

Country News.

—The Allegheny Valley Echo is the title of a new paper just started in Emlenton, Venango county, by P. O. Conver, Esq. It looks well.

—J. B. Johnson, of Greene county, was robbed of $190 on Sunday of last week, by two men, who entered his house, and placing a rope around his neck, demanded his money, which he was forced to give up. The perpetrators have not been arrested.

—We learn that the work on the Fayette County Railroad is being pushed forward with great energy. Messrs. Wallace & Tibbs have a large force employed on section one, near Uniontown, and have already completed the heaviest part of the grading. Mr. Cheney, one of the price put contractors, and well known for his energy and business accuracy, has resolved to complete the road ready for the cars to Mount Braddock by Christmas. There is no doubt that this will be accomplished. The bridge over the Yough is being pushed while the water is low. Considerable progress has already been made in building piers.

—A man named Robinet, a citizen of Somerset county, was knocked down and robbed of some twenty dollars, in the neighborhood of Stony Creek bridge, on the evening of Wednesday, 26th ult.

Rheumatism.—This intractable disease has at last found a perfect and thorough cure, which will be hailed with ecstacy by the thousands who suffer with it almost continually. It consists in a topical preparation, which softens the parts in such a way as to remove congestion and the morbid condition of the secretions in a few applications. It is prepared by Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER, of 140 Wood street, after one of the best recipes ever known, called "Rheumatic Pain Extractor." Dr. Keyser says that he has cured the most violent chronic rheumatic pains with this medicine in a few days, and even when the tendons and joints were stiff and enlarged, has removed the stiffening and cured the enlargement. It would be well enough for persons who are subject to these attacks to remember this when an attack comes on, as it may save a good deal of suffering. It is equally good for neuralgic pains, and is a local application, has no equal in the Materia Medica.

Foster's National.—The Hutchinson Brothers had a fair benefit at Foster's Theatre on Saturday night, when Charley Foster was well received as Mad Anthony Wayne. This evening he appears as Pat Lyon, the Philadelphia Blacksmith, in the play of that name, and also as Mose in China. Gov. Foster announces Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne, who will shortly appear.

The Benedictines in America.—On the 17th of September an election for an Abbot was held at the Abbey of St. Vincent, near Latrobe. The former worthy and venerable Abbot, Rev. Boniface Wimmer, was almost unanimously re-elected. He is now Abbot for life.

An Old Pittsburgher Gone.—Mr. John Fritchman, a well known citizen of Pittsburgh, formerly proprietor of the hotel on the corner of Second and Ross streets, died on the 23d ult., at the residence of his son on the Youghiogheny river, at the advanced age of eighty-five years.

Larceny in the Watch House.—Thieving in the watch house is now becoming quite common. On Friday night two prisoners were confined in the same cell, when one stole forty cents from his fellow. He was accused of the theft in the morning, and a commitment was lodged against him.

Fourth Counterfeits.—Counterfeit fives on the Bank of Burlington, N. J., and the People's Bank of Roxbury, Mass., are in circulation.

Catholic Funerals.

We noticed the fact, some weeks since, that a meeting had been held in St. Paul's Cathedral, relative to the manner of conducting funerals. On that occasion Bishop O'Connor made some suggestions on the subject, and now in order to carry them out properly the following order has been issued We are glad to see this religious body take the initiatory steps in reducing the useless and needless expense which has become so general on these mournful occasions, and we can only hope that other congregations may adopt similar prudent regulations:

To the Catholics of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, and the adjoining Boroughs.

Having learned, with much pain, that abuses of a most serious nature have frequently grown out of the manner of conducting funerals in this city and neighborhood, and having consulted with the clergy and people on the best mode of applying a remedy, we are happy in having every reason to believe that the measures we have resolved to adopt will be entered into with almost unanimous cordiality by all classes of our people.

It is unnecessary for us to dwell on the injury sustained by many families through a vain display at funerals, and it would be an insult to think it necessary to dilate on the special impropriety of levity and drunkenness at wakes or funerals. All admit these things, but the tyranny of usage makes it difficult, if not impossible, for many to avoid them. Unless a general reform be adopted, it is impossible to check the evil.

It affords us sincere pleasure to find that those who are best able to meet any outlay that might be required on such occasions, and from whom no danger of moral disorder need be apprehended, are foremost in their desire to adopt any measures that are necessary to put a stop to existing evils.

The following is therefore, adopted as the mode of conducting Catholic funerals in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and in the adjoining boroughs, whenever the performance of the Church services is desired:

1. The funeral, at which the friends of the deceased, or of the surviving relatives, are expected to be present, shall be conducted to the procession from the house to the church, and the obsequies preformed in the Church.

2. No carriages shall be permitted but those containing the pall bearers and the immediate relatives of the deceased. The wearing of mourning shall be a test of their connection with the deceased, when more than two carriages are used

3. All others attending the funeral, go on foot from the house to the Church, and are considered dismissed when the obsequies are performed

4. The Priest who is to officiate will receive the corpse at the door of the Church in accordance with the requirements of the Ritual He should be informed beforehand who has charge of the funeral. Before receiving the corpse he will ask this person publicly whether he engages to see the rules here laid down faithfully followed, and whether they have been followed up to that time. Unless an answer be given in the affirmative, or if it be certain that they really have been disregarded, the corpse will not be received into the Church

5. When more than two carriages are used, the person in charge of the funeral should bring a list of the same to the officiating Priest, and satisfy him that they are conform to the persons above referred to. This list, signed by the Priest, will entitle such carriages to admittance to the Cemetery. Without such a document, the sexton keeper at the Cemetery will not admit more than two carriages at any funeral.

Such are the rules that have been adopted, and such the means by which they will be enforced. If there be any who are unwilling to comply with them, we will oppose no obstacle to their taking their friends to the Catholic Cemetery, but we will not permit the ceremonies of the Church to be made part of a pageant which in so many cases is productive of the greatest disorders. They can take the remains of their friends to the grave without any Church Rites. We feel fully warranted in this measure by the grievous injury inflicted on many families, and the moral evils arising from the custom now existing, which we see no other means of correcting. † M. O'CONNOR,
Bishop of Pittsburgh

JAS. KEOGH, Secretary.
Pittsburgh, September 28, 1858.

Soldiers of 1812.

The editors of the Pittsburgh papers will oblige many friends, who were soldiers in the war of 1812, by publishing the following extract from our minutes:

Resolved, That the thanks of the "Association of Soldiers of the War of 1812," (mustered at Pittsburgh, September 29, 1858,) be tendered to Mr. Wm. Irwin, of East Birmingham, for his kindness in furnishing us with a flag carried by the soldiers of the American Revolution at the battle of the Cowpens and Eutaw Springs.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Association be tendered to the officers of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society for their card of free admission to the grounds of the State Fair; also to the officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for our free ride to and return from the State Fair Grounds, and to their gentlemanly ticket agent and conductors for their kindness and attention shown to us on our visit to the exhibition this day.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Association be and are hereby tendered to our musicians of the day, viz: to Mr. John Marsh, fifer, Mr. A. Barrington, tenor drummer, and Mr. Edward Taylor, bass drummer, for their kindness in responding to our request, and their appropriate and martial performance this day.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to make all suitable arrangements for the next Fourth of July celebration, as contemplated in the resolution passed on the 10th inst., our President being chairman. The committee consists of Maj. Wm. Graham, chairman, Gen. Jos. Markle, of Westmoreland co., Mr. Thomas McFadden, of Allegheny co., John McKee, and Luke Loomis,—and that the Secretary be instructed to furnish a copy of the resolutions for publication in the several papers of the city, and tender the editors our thanks for past favors.

Extract from minutes of meeting of September 29, 1858.

LUKE LOOMIS, Secretary.

Attack on a Watchman.—On Saturday evening an officer Maxwell, who was employed in front of Masonic Hall, where a large crowd was collected, was in the pursuit of his duty, he was attacked by the notorious John Patch, who struck him several times. A scuffle ensued, and the mayor, who happened to be passing, stepped forward to separate them, but without success, Patch striking at him several times, but did not touch him. Officer Bernard Dougherty coming up was also roughly handled by Patch, having his coat torn in the struggle. With the assistance of Billy Beard, who had been in company with Patch, the latter was finally arrested and taken to the watch house, Beard rendering efficient service. Patch was very much intoxicated and stated that he did not know what he was about. He was placed in the watch-house and kept until Sunday morning, when he was held to bail in the sume of $600, to answer two charges of assault and battery on officers Maxwell and Dougherty.

The Morris Brothers, Pell and Trowbridge's Minstrels.—This company closed their season, (for we may call it such,) at Masonic Hall, on Saturday night, to a fine audience. They have been successful in our city beyond their reputation, but not beyond their deserts. During the last four months they have drawn crowded houses for seven weeks, four weeks during their first engagement at the Theatre in June and three weeks in Masonic Hall, just concluded. This continued success is unparalleled in the history of negro minstrelsy in our city. But the attraction is great and our citizens would never grow tired of seeing and hearing them. The troupe is composed entirely of first class artistes, not only as musicians, but as delineators of negro character. We might particularize, but where all are so perfect, it is useless to do so. They go east from Pittsburgh, and we hope the success which they experienced here and which they so richly deserve, may go with them.

Porter's Pittsburgh Theatre.—At this establishment, Mr. J. B. Roberts, the celebrated tragedian, makes his first appearance in this city, since his return from Europe, in the character of Richard III, this evening. He is a first class actor, and his engagement in Europe has been a continued success. He has many friends in this city; we know they will greet him kindly to-night, and we can confidently bespeak for him an overflowing house.

Reading Matter.—At the periodical establishment of J. B. D. Clark, No. 4 Girard House, the latest periodical literature can be procured. He has always on hand all the Eastern weeklies and the standard magazines and other publications. He has a variety of other articles, including stationary, Clark's Noncorrosive Writing Fluid, Corn and Wart Extractor, Empiric Liniment, and other inventions of his own. Those in want of such articles should give him a call.

Postponed.—The hearing of young Smithson, charged with the attempted murder of Miss Henry, which was to have taken place on Saturday, has been postponed by Mayor Weayer for one week.

Coulter & Mentzer, House, Sign and Ornamental Painters and Grainers. Orders left at their shop on Fourth street, near Market, Burke's Buildings, will be promptly attended. *6m Carnaghan's advertisement of men and boys' clothing will interest many. His manufacture of clothing has grown in popularity, from its neatness of style and durability. Buyers will find his prices favorable.

☞ DURING THE SUMMER THAT HAS JUST PASSED AWAY, thousands of sufferers from dysentery and diarrhoea have been relieved by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, a medicine which is evidently destined to maintain a permanent place in the public estimation Billious diarrhoea is one of those diseases which baffles the skill of the physician. The medicine they administer to act upon the bowels never seems to reach the source of the evil. The difficulty is to get a remedy that will reach all the digestive organs, and give them simultaneously a rush of vigor, to rid themselves of this disease. This problem is solved by the BITTERS, which never fails to conquer the most stubborn cases. It is only fair to say, that during the season just closed, this medicine has achieved more cures than any other ever presented to the public, and during the fall, which that terrific scourge, the fever and ague, is so prevalent, the BITTERS will gain fresh fame.

☞ J. M. OLIN'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS—Try them, and satisfy yourselves that they are all they are recommended to be. The proprietor does not pretend to say that they will cure all the diseases flesh is heir to, but leaves them to test their own merits, and the constantly increasing demand for them is sufficient proof that they are all they are recommended to be, and far superior to any preparation of the kind now in the market. Their use is always attended with the most beneficial results in cases of Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, etc. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, assists digestion, and imparts a healthy one to the whole system. Be sure and call for J. M. Olin's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that the article purchased bears the name of J. M. OLIN, as manufacturer.

☞ EAU LUSTRALE, OR HAIR RESTORATIVE OF JULES HAUEL—This article, composed of vegetable substances, has rapidly acquired a world-wide celebrity for its wonderful qualities of beautifying and invigorating the Hair, at the same time obviating baldness and dandruff. It is now in common use as an indispensible article of the toilet.

A Desired Testimonial.—During the State Fair we had occasion several times to refer to the fine display made by Mr. W. S. Haven. We are gratified to learn that the committee on printing, book binding and stationery have awarded him several premiums as follows:

For the best specimen of book or pamphlet printing, $5,00
For the best display of Blank Books, $5,00
For the best specimen of Book Binding, a Diploma.
For the best writing paper, a Diploma.
For the best printing paper, a Diploma.
For the best display of Stationery, a Diploma.

He was also awarded a diploma for the best display, of Plain and Fancy Job Printing and Ruling.

However, we quote from the report of the Committee:

"Your committee would neglect their duty did they not make special mention of the fine display of Mr. W. S. Haven, in this department. Among his specimens of book binding, book, pamphlet, plain and fancy job printing, blank books and ruling, were some of the finest we have seen. The Allegheny Cemetery Report, among his pamphlets, was, in composition, presswork and paper, (as a volume of poems and another of "role and figure work," among his specimens of book printing,) faultless. An intricate piece of ruled work, executed for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was done with an accuracy and neatness truly surprising. His display of printing and writing paper and stationery, contained every variety; whilst he also exhibited (from the shelves of his warerooms) every kind of blank books, neatly and elegantly bound.

We, therefore, award him, in addition to the diplomas, &c, already mentioned, a diploma for the best display of Plain and Fancy Job Printing and Ruling."

Meeting in Lower St. Clair.—A large attendance greeted the speakers at Shuck's tavern on Saturday evening. Mr. Sabita spoke in German, and Messrs. Magee and Bailey in English. The Democracy in this district are up and doing, and will give a good account of themselves.

Make Your Own Soap—Concentrated Lye.—We would call the attention of our readers particularly to the advertisement, in another column, headed "Important to Families." The article is an invaluable one, whereby families can make all their own soap at a very trifling cost of labor, time or money. We have used it ourselves, both in our office and families, and can speak knowingly of it.

We would warn parties against spurious articles, as imitations have lately been thrust upon the market by unprincipled parties. Infringers on the Company's patent will most certainly be prosecuted.

We say by all means give the genuine a trial, and our word for it, you will not regret it. *1w

We cheerfully, and unasked, recommend your Compound to all who are suffering under that terrible disease—Consumption.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PERMANENT OFFICE.

COMPLYING WITH THE URGENT REQUEST OF HUNDREDS OF THEIR PATIENTS,

DRS. C. M. FITCH AND J. W. SYKES

Have concluded to remain

PERMANENTLY IN PITTSBURGH,

And may be consulted at their office,

No. 101 Penn street,

OPPOSITE ST. CLAIR HOTEL,

Daily, except Sundays, for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS and ALL OTHER CHRONIC COMPLAINTS, complicated with, or causing pulmonary disease, including Catarrh, Heart Disease, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Female Complaints, &c.

DRS FITCH & SYKES would state that their treatment of consumption is based upon the fact that the disease exists in the blood and system at large, both before and during its development in the lungs, and they therefore employ Mechanical, Hygienic and Medical remedies to purify the blood and strengthen the system. With these, they use MEDICAL INHALATIONS, which they value highly, but only as Palliatives, (having no Curative effects when used alone.) and Invalids are earnestly cautioned against wasting the precious time of curability on any treatment based upon the plausible, but false idea that the "seat of the disease can be reached in a direct manner by Inhalation," for, as before stated, the seat of the disease is in the blood and its effects only in the lungs.

☞ No charge for consultation.

A detailed pamphlet will be sent to those wishing to consult us by letter. my29:dsw

☞ THE ARTIFICIAL LIGHTNING THAT FLASHES through the Atlantic Cable, bears less resemblance to the lightning of heaven, than Christadoro's Hair Dye bears to the natural coloring matter of black and brown hair. Quick as a flash it darkens the grey, red or sandy fibres of the head, the lips, and the chin to an ebony hue, while it lends a healthy lustre to them. It contains no caustic, and ten minutes, once in six or eight weeks, is all the time required for its application. Sold everywhere, and applied by all hair dressers.
