THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

Integrity, however rough, is better than dissimulation.

Steel swells in hardening. And swells harden in stealing.

There are 14 persons in jail at Cincinnati charged with murder.

A very good way to make eye-water is to run your nose against a lamp-post.

Hon. H. S. Foote is out in a long letter in favor of Mr. Douglas for the Presidency.

A new volcano has sprung up in Oregon. Mount Hood is in a state of active eruption.

Upwards of two hundred vessels are now in the Rappahannock river, in the State of Virginia, engaged in oystering.

A punster at the point of death, being advised to eat a piece of pullet, declined, saying he feared it might "lay on his stomach."

"I say, Broom!" "Call me by my whole name, if you please, sir; it has a handle to it, and it was meant to be used, sir; that's so." "Well, then, Broom-handle, how are you?"

"Come here, my dear, I want to ask you all about your sister; now tell me truly, has she got a beau?" asked an inquisitive admirer of a youngster. "No," was the reply, "it's the jaunders; the doctor says so."

The grey-eyed man, Walker, has got away from New Orleans on the steamer Philadelphia, with a party of 150 fillibusters. It is given out that they are bound for the Chiriqui diggings. President Buchanan, who had personally attended to the matter, had just got ready to stop them.

Last Sunday morning a-week, the First Baptist Church of Chicago was in debt $14,000. In forty-five minutes after the fact was stated, the congregation wiped out $12,500, and were prepared to cancel the remaining $1,500, but the pastor begged them not to do so, as several friends were unavoidably absent, who would not be pleased if nothing was left for them to do!

The Milwaukee, Wisconsin, News tells of an Irishman, who, while at work in a stone quarry near that city, saw an animal, which he supposed was a neighbor's cat, glide under a large flat stone upon which he was at work. He asked a comrade to hold the stone while he got the poor thing out without hurting it. Getting down upon his knees, he reached gently under the stone, and drew forth the animal; then dropping her instantly, he clapped both hands to his nose, and exclaimed, "Howly mither! what has she been eating?" As it was a skunk, it's no wonder he asked.

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.—Removals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Single Harness, Double Harness, Tug Harness, Bridles, Collars, Whips, Halters, Housings, Breechbands, Side Straps, and in fact every article in the line of Saddling and Harness making. P. S. My being connected with the Drug business will not interfere with my shop, for I have the Drug Store attended to by careful hands and intend devoting my time exclusively to my regularg business. G. W. R.
