Gent's linen caps, at Reeds.

BAPTISTS.—The Rev. Mr. Sembower, will preach in the Baptist church in this place, on Sunday morning next, at 10½ o'clock.

THE M. E. CHURCH SPIRE.—The spire of the new M. E. Church in this place is now completed, and painted. It is the highest structure of the kind in the county, neat and well proportioned, and an ornament to our Borough.

ANOTHER IMPROVEMENT.—On Monday last, Mr. Wallace commenced to tear down the small brick office on Second street, nearly opposite the Court House, preparatory to the erection of an elegant two or three story brick building. This will be quite an improvement in that part of our Borough.

ON A VISIT.—Some ten days ago, about twenty citizens of Huntingdon, male and female, visited Clearfield for the purpose of viewing our churches, preparatory to commencing the erection of a Presbyterian church in that place. We understand they were highly pleased with the church structures in this place.

SERIOUS AFFRAY.—On Friday evening last, July 15th, a rather serious affray occurred in the billiard saloon, between two young men, the sons of citizens. One struck the other with a cue and cut a severe gash above the right eye and slightly fractured the skull. The injured lad is rapidly improving.

HORSE STOLEN.—On Wednesday night, July 13th, a bay horse was stolen from the stable of Mr. Wm. Peters, of Bradford township. The horse was found the following day near this place, no doubt, having been ridden that far, and then turned loose, by some one too lazy to walk. Such "tricks" come under the statute of theft, and are punishable with severe penalties. So, look out.

THE CONCERT.—Philip Phillips evening of Sacred Song, was well attended, and gave general satisfaction. Mr. Phillips has a great voice, and of great compass. His articulation is so perfect, that persons sitting in the most remote parts of the large Court room could readily hear the words as they fell from his lips. Pecuniarily the entertainment was also a success—having netted the M. E. Sunday School about sixty-five dollars.

AN EXCURSION PARTY.—On Friday afternoon last, an excursion party of Bellefonters, numbering about fifty, arrived in this place—most of whom put up at the "Shaw House." They were generally a very jovial set, and made the acquaintance of many of our citizens. In the evening the excursionists were joined by a goodly number from this place in a social "hop" at the Shaw House, all of whom seemed to enjoy themselves amazingly in "tripping the light fantastic toe," until the "we sma' hours o' night." The next day, many of the excursionists visited Curwensville, in carriages and buggies—returning well pleased with the trip, and with a good appetite for dinner. Shortly after dinner they repaired to the depot, and at 2:30 started on their homeward trip. From the expressions made, we are led to believe that the excursionists were highly delighted with their reception, and entertainment.

WHAT WAS DONE?—During the past week, we found a notice at our residence, announcing a meeting of citizens at the Court House on Saturday last. About the hour designated, we made inquiry as to the meeting, but could ascertain nothing definite in regard to it. The object of the meeting was to take some action in reference to the public grounds. But, what was done? We presume nothing. These grounds have been under control of private parties for the last ten years, ostensibly for the purpose of improvement and beautifying, and the principal improvement has accrued to the pockets of those who had charge of them. Let the Borough officers now try what they can do. If these grounds can not be beautified in such a manner as to be a credit to our town, then tear down the fences and let the public have the use of them, instead of private parties. This is our say so; what say you all?

Try my one dollar kid gloves. REED.

A full line of ladies summer kid gloves, handsome shades, also ladies lisle and silk gloves, all colors, embroideries, white trimmings, lace collars, chignons, chains, &c., received to-day at REED'S.

BRAINARD, late of the Bellefonte National, and MEEK, of the Watchman, visited our sanctum, while in town on Saturday last. They are both very jovial and sociable men. Long may they survive their trip to Clearfield.

NEW BELL.—The Presbyterian congregation put up their new bell on Thursday last. It is large and fine toned, and will be a great convenience to church-goers—calling them together at the proper time, so that the speaker and hearers may not be disturbed by the late arrival of the drones.

EXTENSIVE FIRE AT OSCEOLA.—On Saturday night last, a fire broke out in the extensive lumbering establishment of the Moshannon Land and Lumber Company, in Osceola, this county. The mills, together with from ten to twelve millions feet of lumber, three dwelling houses in the vicinity, and the freight depot, trestle work and portion of the railroad track, were consumed. The lumber belonged to several parties. The loss of the Company is about $250,000, but is partly covered by insurance. The next heaviest losers are Messrs. A. B. Long and Sons, whose loss is about $30,000—no insurance. The other losses are not reported. The whole loss is near $300,000. The fire originated, as we understand, from the explosion of a lamp in the hands of one of the workmen, who had gone into the oil room, in the discharge of his duty. Every means were used to stop the conflagration, but the flames spread with such rapidity as to preclude all efforts. The destruction of this property will be seriously felt by the parties immediately interested, and will have a tendency to retard the growth of Osceola. But, this will be of but a temporary character, for, we presume, that the mills will be rebuilt at an early day, and then, Phœnix like, that enterprising borough will arise from its ashes and advance more rapidly than ever.

Resolutions of Thanks.

PHILIPSBURG, July 12, 1870.

At a meeting of the Philipsburg Silver Cornet Band, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Band be and are hereby tendered to the Clearfield Cornet Band, for the courteous manner in which they tendered and executed their services on the Fourth of July, in furnishing us with their choice music through the day and evening.

Also, to the citizens of Clearfield for their kind patronage on the same occasion.

Also, to the ladies of Philipsburg for the sumptuous manner in which the dinner table was supplied, and their kind attention to the customers who partook of the same.

Also, to the citizens of Philipsburg, and the public in general, for the easy manner in which the needful was handed over.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the following papers: Philipsburg Journal, Raftsman's JOURNAL and Clearfield Republican. P. S. C. B.

DIED:

On Sunday morning, July 17th, 1870, MARY LEITZHEIM, wife of Mr. Casper Leitzheim, of Clearfield Borough, aged 53 years, 10 months and 5 days.

The deceased was for a number of years a member of the Lutheran church, and ever expressed an abiding faith in the atoning blood of a crucified Savior. During the latter part of her illness she was much engaged in prayer, and is believed to have died in a full hope of a blessed immortality. She was a generous neighbor, an affectionate wife, and a kind and indulgent mother. Her death will be deeply lamented by her family and relatives.

At Lock Haven, on Friday, July 15th, 1870, of brain fever, Miss ELIZA J. COCHRAN, of Grampian Hills, aged 18 years, 10 months and 28 days.

"Her race is run, her toil is done,
She dwells among the blest;
With her the storm of life is past,
She's found her heavenly rest."
