For Sale—a second hand Cooking Stove Triumph, No. 9, at the Presbyterian Parsonage, Clearfield, Pa.

Query.—How long will the citizens of Clearfield be content to go stumbling along over wretched sidewalks by starlight, before a proper spirit compels a uniform grade to the streets, substantial pavements, and street lamps to guide the footsteps.

M. E. Church.—We have been informed that arrangements are perfected for the completion of the audience room in the M. E. Church at this place. When it is finished our Methodist friends will have a pleasant and substantial place of worship.

To be Played.—We have been requested to announce, that a match game of Base Ball, between the Susquehannas of Curwensville, and the Herculeans of Lumber City, will be played in the grounds of the latter, on Friday afternoon, September 2d.

New Drug Store.—We would direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of W. B. Alexander, in to-day's Journal. Mr. A. has recently opened a drug store in Curwensville, and those in want of anything in his line would do well to give him a call.

Run Off.—We understand that on Monday last, Judge Barrett's carriage horses ran off, occasioned by the breaking of the neck yoke while coming down the hill in the east part of the borough. The Judge and his little son, who were in the carriage at the time, were thrown out, but escaped serious injury, only receiving some severe bruises. The carriage was considerably broken.

In Jail.—John Lingafelter was lodged in jail at this place on Saturday last, charged with stealing forty dollars from Mr. J. Pensington, of Chest township. John was arrested for the offense some time ago, and while being conveyed to the jail in charge of the constable of Chest township, managed to escape, and elude the vigilance of that officer until Saturday, when he was re arrested and safely caged.

The Evenings.—The evenings are perceptibly longer, just as they are manifestly growing more cool and pleasant. It is now possible to sit down and enjoy an hours' comfortable reading after tea, and then retire to rest with the reasonable assurance that a good nights' sleep awaits you, provided your conscience is clear and your digestion good. A few weeks more, and then good bye to open windows after night-fall.

Contemptible.—Some fellow, to us unknown, who was at the time laboring under a heavy load of "bug juice," tried to raise a disturbance at the concert on Saturday night last, and was summarily ejected from the room. In this connection we might ask if it would not be a very wise thing for our borough officers to build a lock-up, where such persons could be confined until they became sober? It would materially lessen the cases of drunkenness in our town.

A Big Porker.—A correspondent at Mapleal, Huntingdon county, Pa., writes us as follows: Mr. Jas. A. Hagerty, of Union Furnace Mills, Huntingdon county, Pa., received a pig from Salem, Ohio, on the 15th of last June, which the breeder said at the time was six weeks old, and weighed fifty-eight pounds. The same pig, on the 15th of August, sixty days after, was put upon a pair of scales by Wm. Gibbs and D. H. Faulhamus, when it weighed one hundred and sixty-three and a half pounds. A gain of 105½ pounds in the sixty days, or nearly two pounds per day.

Returned.—The four young gentlemen of this place, whom we mentioned last week as on their way to Bedford Springs on foot, returned here on Saturday last well and hearty; but seem to think the Altoona Sun man "cut" it a little heavy on their general appearance upon arriving in that city. True, they were somewhat dusty, yet upon the application of a little soap and water they soon "turned up trump" (a fact which the Sun neglected to mention), and resumed their journey in good spirits the next morning. In fact, they express themselves as highly delighted with their entire trip, and as feeling much reinvigorated by their long and fatiguing tramp.

Persons in want of cemetery work, should remember that Mrs. Liddell, near the depot, has always on hand the best of material, and that all work is done in a superior manner.

Meat Market.—M. G. & E. W. Brown have opened their new meat market, in the room recently occupied by Alex. Irwin, on Market Street. Their shop will be open for the sale of all kinds of fresh meats on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday mornings. They will also keep fruits vegetables and fish in season. Read their advertisement.

For Sale.—M. Hubert, of Luthersburg, has for sale a good farm, in Union township, and two good town lots, with good frame dwelling house and blacksmith shop erected thereon, in Luthersburg. If any of our readers desire to make a safe investment they should call upon or address Mr. Hubert, at Luthersburg. See the advertisement.

The Academy.—Rev. P. L. Harrison, the Principal of this institution, returned last week, and will reopen his school on Monday next. For the advantages of a thorough education, the Academy cannot be surpassed by any other institution of its kind in Western Pennsylvania. If you have children to educate do not fail to send them to the Academy.

A County Institute, we learn, will be held, in Clearfield, commencing on October 17th. The home and foreign aid employed by the executive committee, will certainly make it one of the most profitable institutes, to teachers, yet held. Every teacher should so arrange his home affairs as to be present. They, like other people, are judged from the interest they take in their profession.

School for Girls.—We would call attention to Miss Swan's "School for Girls," located in this borough, the fall term of which commences Sept. 5th. This school supplies a want long felt in this community affording an opportunity for our citizens to educate their daughters at home. Miss Swan's name is a sufficient guarantee to all who may intrust their children to her care.

Concert.—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hays, and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Guilmette, of Philadelphia, gave a concert in this place, on Saturday evening last, which is very highly praised by those present on that occasion. At the solicitation of a large number of our citizens, they have consented to give a number of concerts, in the Court House, during the coming Fair. All lovers of good music should embrace the opportunity to listen to this rich feast of music.

A Pic-nic for the benefit of St. Bonaventure's Church, will take place at Grampian Hills, on Wednesday, September 7th, in a beautiful Grove on the Church Farm. The proceeds to be applied to paying off the debt on the church. Refreshments on the ground. Opportunities for amusement given. The use of spirituous liquors strictly prohibited, and no disorderly persons allowed upon the ground.

*2t. M. A. M. Wirzfeld, Pastor.

Church Dedication.—No preventing Providence, the M. E. Church at Goshen, this county, will be dedicated on Sabbath, the 18th day of September next. Morning sermon at 10½ o'clock, A. M., by Rev. J. S. M'Murray, Presiding Elder of Altoona District, Central Pa. Conference. Immediately after which the dedicatory services will be conducted by Rev. J. S. M'Murray, assisted by Rev. W. H. Dill. Preachers and people of sister churches, and all our friends generally, are cordially invited to attend.

Aug. 24-4t. W. A. CLIPPINGER, Pastor

Base Ball.—A game of Base Ball, between the "Shoo Flys," of Curwensville, and the "Keystone's," of Clearfield, was played on the grounds of the Keystone, on Friday last, the Keystone being the victors by a score of 42 to 24. This was the return game for one played at Curwensville, some time ago, which the Shoo Fly's won by a score of 36 to 25.

We have also received the score of a game played at Osceola, between the "Osceolians," of Osceola, and the "Beaverton," of Moshannon, resulting in favor of the Osceolians by a score of 31 to 19.

DIED:

On Saturday, August 20th, 1870, in Falls City, Nebraska, Elva Sue Enid, infant daughter of Hon. E. S. and Mary Dundy, aged 1 year, 6 months and 21 days.

At Grahampton, Friday, August 5th, 1870, Mrs. Margaret Forcee, widow of the late Matthew A. Forcee, of Bradford Township, aged 59 years, 10 months and 15 days.

The deceased came to this county with her parents, John and Mary Murray, when very young and with them endured many of the privations and hardships incident to the early settlers. For about forty years she was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and though in her later years she bore a large share of the afflictions and sorrows of life yet she constantly maintained her christian character, and during a long and serious illness continued to express an unwavering trust in her Redeemer. M. S.

At his residence near Newton Hamilton, Mifflin county, Pa., Hon. Peter Lamm, in the 67th year of his age.

The deceased was born in Berks county, Pa., in the year 1803. At an early age he removed to Northumberland county, where he resided for a number of years. In 1827 he emigrated to Clearfield county, and settled at the mouth of Deer Creek, in Girard township, where he was subjected to many of the trials and inconveniences experienced by the early settlers of the county. In the year 1851 he was appointed one of the Associate Judges of this county, by Governor W. F. Johnston, which position he filled in a very creditable manner. His liberality and benevolence was excelled by none. Was any one sick, or in distress, or unfortunate from accident in the neighborhood, they always found him a sympathising friend, or found an asylum in his household, where everything needful was lavishly and freely bestowed. In 1867 he removed from Deer Creek to Beverly, New Jersey, where he contracted the disease that terminated his life. Patient in all his sufferings, and perfectly resigned to the dispensations of Providence; remembering that "as thy steps advance, the valley of the shadow of death opens, through which all must pass." He leaves a wife and child, and a large circle of friends to mourn his death. M.
