WANTED—a girl to do general housework. Apply at this office.

A DERANGED woman from Osceola was confined in our jail last week. She will be removed to Harrisburg shortly.

THE attendance of the "Gaping Brigade" appears to be falling off a little. We noticed however, that the brick yard had a good representation on last Sunday night.

A CORRESPONDENT wants to know "how to break a cow from holding up her milk." Here is a chance for some one to impart information of value to our correspondent and others. Who will do it?

U. S. ASSESSOR.—We learn that our young friend, Ed. Livingston, of Curwensville, has been appointed U. S. Assessor of this, the 19th, Congressional district. He will make a good officer, being well acquainted with the duties appertaining to the position.

THE trouting season is now at its height, and our fishermen are doing their share of the "good work." To our personal knowledge thirty dozen were brought in on Friday last, and of course a great many more we heard nothing of. The trout are excellent this season—from hearsay. A-hem!

ONE of the fashions of the season is to read over all the advertisements in the paper, and see if all the stores are keeping up with the seasons and styles. If you miss any familiar name from the list of business men, you can know that they are not keeping up with the times, and are keeping out of sight on this account.

FOILED—one John Dailey, who walked off with Mr. McBride's watch on Tuesday morning the 23d inst. He probably was ignorant of the fact that we had a telegraph office here, and boarded the 5 A. M. train for Tyrone, but owing to the telegraph doing its duty, he was arrested at Philipsburg, and lodged in our jail the same day.

BROKE JAIL.—On Monday evening last, just at dark, four prisoners escaped from the jail in this place. Their names are Stigert, Dailey, Lovejoy and Jillison. They by some means succeeded in unlocking the kitchen door that communicates with the hall of the jail, and from thence they made their exit into the street. They had no difficulty in getting away under cover of the darkness. Efforts were made at once for the apprehension of the prisoners, but so far neither of them have been secured.

A GOOD ONE.—A friend, last week, proposed to "Shakespeare" (a jolly chap who has been perambulating our streets for a week or two) that if he kept perfectly sober for one month, he (the friend) would pay his boarding and allow him one dollar a day besides, for that length of time. "Shaks" hung his head, studied a moment, and then coolly asked, "And what amount will you advance on the proposition?" This was too much of a poser for our friend, who retired amidst the merriment of the bystanders, and the "disgust" of Shakspeare.

PERSONAL.—We return our sincere thanks to those of our subscribers who so promptly responded to the bills sent out in last week's issue. This week we send bills to a great many more of our delinquents, and we hope they may be as prompt to "come down" as some have already been. We are in need of money and must have it, even if the bills have to be placed in proper hands for collection. We cannot live on air, and get our printing material, etc., for nothing. We have furnished the JOURNAL to some persons for a number of years, without receiving a single penny in return, and all the time paying cash for the necessary material. Can any one of these non-paying subscribers comprehend how we are to live at this rate? Be prepared, then, to pay your bills when you come to attend Court next week.

A PARTY, composed of about twenty of our young ladies and gentlemen, took a trip to Montgomery creek yesterday, with the pretension of catching trout, but we suppose more particularly to enjoy a meal in the "wild wood."

NARROW ESCAPE.—Mr. R. B. McCully and lady, of Smith's Mills, this county, made a narrow escape from death, on Thursday, May 25th. Mr. McCully attempted to cross the railroad track at Tyrone, with a horse and buggy as a train was approaching, but failing to do so the train struck the buggy and smashed it the pieces, while the occupants escaped without any serious injury. This is another warning to persons not to attempt to cross a railroad track in front of moving trains.

GIVE THE PRINTERS FAIR PLAY.—An exchange says: "We have a piece of advice which we wish to impress firmly and indelibly upon the public mind, and that is to give the printers fair play. Do not forget that it costs something to puff as well as to advertise, and never sponge upon a printer in any way whatever. It is printer's ink that makes nine-tenths of our fortunes; it takes money to buy ink, type and paper, and yet, after all this, few are the thanks he gets. Give the printer fair play, and give up all expectations of gratuitous puffing, etc."

DIED.—We learn from the Falls City Nebraska, Journal, that Mrs. LUCY, wife of Mr. Alf. W. Southard, died in that place on Wednesday morning, May 24th. Mr. Southard removed from this place to Fall City, a little over a year ago, where he met with an accident that incapacitated him from work for a short time. Since then, however, he has been getting along very well, and he and family enjoyed the best of health. The announcement of the death of Mrs. S. was a surprise to her many relatives and friends, and is deeply regretted by all. Peace to her remains.

HOW TO BUILD UP A TOWN.—An exchange hits it when it says the best way to build up a town is for every business man in the place to advertise his business in the columns of his local paper, and thus present an array of business houses equal to the number of houses on the street. It draws trade to the town, draws emigrants to the town, draws produce to the town, draws money to the town. If a man wants to buy anything, he goes where he sees the most men trying to sell that article. If he wants to sell anything, he goes where the most men are buying. If a man wants to buy groceries or sell produce, he goes to the business man that advertises, for he knows where to find him and what he has to sell.

ASSAULT UPON SHERIFF PIE.—On Monday, May 22d, Sheriff Pie, went to Glen Hope, for the purpose of arresting James Johnston, who escaped from jail a short time since. On the way thither, however, he came across Stigert, who also had departed from durance without permission. The Sheriff arrested Stigert and brought him to town that evening. On Tuesday morning he again wended his way towards the domicile of Johnston. On approaching the house, the Sheriff left his horse some distance away in the woods and proceeded on foot. On nearing the house he discovered Johnston in the yard cutting seed potatoes, when he at once pounced upon his prisoner to handcuff him. A severe scuffle ensued, during which Johnston struck the Sheriff six or seven times with his fist, but the latter finally succeeded in securing the prisoner. The Sheriff, during the melee, also succeeded in discharging one barrel of his revolver, which brought some raftsmen, who were working near by, to his assistance, when he succeeded in putting hobbles on Johnston. At the instance of Johnston, the Sheriff sent to a neighbor's house for his wife, who soon made her appearance, when the party started into the house to get some clothes for prisoner. On nearing the door, the prisoner suddenly leaped inside, and at the same instant an axe was hurled at the Sheriff's head, but missed him. The prisoner standing at bay inside of the door with an axe, the Sheriff drew his revolver in the hope that its appearance would intimidate him, but with no effect. During this brief interval the hobbles on the prisoner were cut, when he turned and swiftly run out at the back part of the house and made good his escape, and has not since been heard from. The Sheriff was considerably stunned from the blows received, so much so that it was with difficulty he came home on the following day; but he is about again, and ready for "active service."

HOMES FOR ALL.
IN THE
Land of Flowers and Perpetual Growth.
FLORIDA,
THE ITALY OF AMERICA.
Is not excelled in Climate by any of the United States, and it may be doubted whether it can be equaled in the world.
Located on the very borders of the Torrid Zone still her situation between the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic ocean is such that she is swept alternately by the winds of the Eastern and Western seas, and relieved from the burning heats which prevail in other Southern States; and thus it happens that by the joint influence of latitude and peculiar location, she is relieved, on the one hand, from the rigors of the Winter climate of the Northern and Middle States, and on the other, from the extreme heat with which not only the Southern States, but in the summer time the Northern States are characterized.
Settlers have not the hardships to undergo that have been the lot of the pioneers who opened up and developed our harsh Northern latitudes. The entire year is a perpetual season of growth, able to produce and send to market all the productions of the Tropical and Temperate Zones weeks and months in advance of any other locality, and at a season when all such productions are luxurious, and command the very highest prices:
THE FLORIDA IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, under the auspices of the State of Florida, propose to furnish lands of uniform good quality, and upon which can be raised Vegetables, Fruits, etc., common to the more Northern climates, and all the GRAINS, FRUITS and VEGETABLES of the TROPICS.
Such selected lands, in the HEALTHIEST part of the STATE, and of the best quality.
The Company have issued a pamphlet of 128 pages, containing full and reliable information concerning Florida, its Climate, Soil, and Productions, with a sketch of its history, which the Company will forward, free of postage, on receipt of 25 cents.
