OUR COMMON SCHOOLS.—Through the kindness of Hon. John P. Linton, the representative of Cambria county to the other branch of the State Legislature, we have received a copy of the report of the State Superintendent of Common Schools for the year ending June 4, 1866. It is replete with valuable information touching the workings of the great common school system. We condense the following statistics, (which do not include the statistics of Philadelphia city:) Whole number of school districts in the State in 1866, 1,663, an increase of 26 on the preceding year; whole number of schools, 12,773, an increase of 225; whole number pupils in attendance, 649,579, an increase of 16,982; average attendance of pupils, 425,049, an increase of 16,348; percentage of attendance upon whole number, 65; average length of school term, 5 months and 14 days; average cost of tuition per month for each pupil, 72 cents; whole number male teachers, 6,134; female teachers, 8,707; average salary of male teachers per month, $34.34; female teachers, $26.31; total cost of tuition, $2,211,521.70, an increase of $220,743.87 over preceding year; total cost for fuel and contingencies, $458,317.61; total cost for purchasing, building, renting, and repairing houses, $596,664.69; total cost of system for 1866, being whole amount of tax levied and State appropriation, $3,[illegible]3,367.83. Counting Philadelphia, the whole number of schools in the State is 12,146; whole number of pupils, 725,312; total cost of system, $4,195,258.57.

We gather from the report the following statistics relative to the condition of the schools in Cambria county:

THE ELECTION.—The boro. election passed off quietly, no especial interest being manifested in the success of either ticket. The result, so far as the boro. at large and the school district are concerned, is a Republican triumph, our Burgess being elected by 54 majority and our School Directors by about the like figure. In the East Ward, the Republican nominees were all elected by a large majority; in the West Ward, the entire Democratic ticket (with the exception of the second named Inspector) was elected. The following is a list of the newly chosen officers:—

BORO. AT LARGE.
Burgess—Thomas B. Moore.
SCHOOL DISTRICT.
Directors—Saml. Singleton, Robert Evans.
EAST WARD.
Councilmen—Robert D. Thomas, George A. Oakead, Wm. Clement, David E. Evans, J. Thompson.
Assessor—John J. Evans.
Assistant Assessors—David T. James, John Jennings.
Judge of Election—Wm. D. Davis.
Inspector—Lemuel W. Davis, Thomas E. Davis.
Constable—Thomas Todd.
WEST WARD.
Councilmen—John A. Blair, F. A. Shoemaker, George Gurley, R. S. Bunn, Francis P. Murray.
Assessor—J. D. Parrish.
Assistant Assessors—James Murray, R. H. Parrish.
Judge of Election—Edward Glass.
Inspectors—John Dougherty, sr., John E. Davis.
Constable—Barnabas M'Dermit.

THE BREAK UP AT JOHNSTOWN.—The ice on the Stony Creek and Conemaugh rivers, at Johnstown, broke up on Sunday evening, but gorged immediately below town, backing the water and completely submerging that part of the town. Communication with the railroad was cut off, and operations had to be stopped for the time being at the rolling mill and gas works. Toward midnight the gorge gave way and the waters receded. The damage done was trifling compared with the threatening aspect of affairs for several days previous.

COURT MATTERS.—Sheriff's Sales.—The following is an abstract of the real estate advertised to be sold by the Sheriff of Cambria county, at the Court House, Ebensburg, on Monday, the 4th day of March, proximo:—

The right, title and interest of John J. Treftz in a lot of ground in Johnstown, with two-story plank house, frame stable, and slaughter-house erected thereon.

R. M. Lemon, Washington township, 350 acres land, with coal bank, &c., thereon.

Porter Orner, Summitville, two lots ground, with frame house and frame stable thereon.

John Porter, Washington township, 130 acres land, unimproved.

Samuel Ripple, Richland township, 256 acres land, 50 acres cleared, with log house and log barn thereon.

Josiah Delozier, Clearfield township, 50 acres land, 20 acres cleared, with two-story plank house and log barn thereon.

Washington Delozier, Clearfield township, 50 acres land, 20 acres cleared, with two-story plank house and log barn thereon.

Frederick George, Washington township, 300 acres land, 35 acres cleared, with two-story plank house, frame barn, and log stable thereon.

MEMORANDA.—On Monday of last week, Mr. Isaac Jones, a plasterer, fell a distance of fifty-two feet, from the roof of Wood, Morrell Co.'s new store building, in Johnstown, to the cellar, and was severely but not fatally injured....Rob't. R. Thomas receives herring, pike, perch, eels, haddock, white fish, flounders, and all kinds of fresh fish, every Thursday morning....The snow has almost entirely disappeared....We hear that a fire occurred in Altoona on Monday night, involving the destruction of a large amount of property in a business part of town.... Pomeroy's Map of Cambria county is being rapidly delivered to subscribers.... Our young friend John D. Roberts, of Johnstown, was in town this week....See our new advertisements this week. One or another of them may be of interest to you....The mud is eleven inches deep on our streets.

HUNTLEY'S COLUMN.—The attention of the reader is directed to George Huntley's mammoth advertisement. Mr. H. has for years been doing a business excelled in magnitude by but few like establishments in the western part of the State, and has therefore been able always to sell cheap. He now adopts the ready pay system, and promises to sell cheaper than ever. We may add that he will keep his word. His establishment is a veritable "Old Curiosity Shop." A person with a month's spare time could not enumerate all the articles he keeps. An imperfect catalogue is given in the advertisement. We advise all our readers to go and see what is to be seen. If they then fail to buy, it will not be our fault, nor Mr. Huntley's fault, but their own fault and exceeding great misfortune.

HEADLEY'S HISTORY OF THE WAR.—All persons residing in Cambria and Blair counties, having the first volume of "Headley's History of the War," can get the second volume by calling on or addressing Scott Jones, Ebensburg, Pa. He is also agent for Greeley's "American Conflict." All orders promptly attended to.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM CHEST SPRINGS—ALL ABOUT THE ELECTION—A DEMOCRATIC DEFEAT.

CHEST SPRINGS, Feb. 16, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

We held our municipal election yesterday, the 15th, and the "My Policy" men of our little borough had to suffer an inglorious defeat, notwithstanding they were very sanguine of coming off victorious. After the vote had been counted off, it was piteous to behold their countenances, and to-day you can hardly find one that has anything to say about the election. We conceded to them the Burgess and Town Council, as we wanted a "My Policy" government of the borough. The officers elect are as follows: Burgess, Jacob Wagner, D.; Town Council, D. C. Little, D., John Wagner, D., Daniel Walters, D., Peter Urban, D., Peter M'Kenzie, D.; Constable, Andrew Chute, U.; Assessor, John Conrad, U.; Assistant Assessors, Michael Waltz, U., Daniel Walters, D.; School Directors, A. W. Green, U., Sylvester Weakland, U.; Judge of Election, Jefferson Varney, U.; Inspector, Peter Shaffner, U.; Auditor, Daniel Walters, D.

So you see we came off victorious, and the poor Democrats, though they put out their best efforts, and drummed up the last man, and caused red eye to flow freely, had to go under. We are able to beat them every time in our borough, and hope the day is not far distant when we will beat them all over the county. BOZ.

LETTER FROM HEMLOCK—A MAN KILLED ON THE RAILROAD—CONNUBIAL, &C., &C.

HEMLOCK, Feb. 18, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

A brakeman on a freight train east fell off the train in the tunnel, at Gallitzin, on Tuesday night last, and was instantly killed. The car wheels ran over his head and severed it entirely from the body.—His name was Wm. Schneider, and he is reported to have been a very worthy young man. He resided at Bolivar, and had been married only three weeks.

Married, in Johnstown, on Sunday, 3d instant, Mr. Thomas Malanney to Miss Peggy Settlemyer, both of this place.—Your correspondent begs leave to congratulate these his friends on the consummation of this felicitous event—this great fact—this big thing of life—and places on record the hope that they may ever, as now, be intensely, immensely, and extra unspeakably happy.

Water high here, but no fears entertained of town being swept away. Mud very deep, but we can yet touch bottom.

Yours, O.

LETTER FROM WILMORE—RESULT OF THE LATE LOCAL ELECTION, &C.

WILMORE, Feb. 18, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

Following is a list of our borough officers elected to serve the ensuing year:—Burgess, W. R. Hughes; Constable, A. Hankle; School Directors, W. R. Hughes, David Farber; Assessor, David Farber; Auditor, M. L. Oatman. V.

FIRE.—On Tuesday, at noon, the stable in the rear of the dwelling house of Mr. R. R. Thomas was totally consumed by fire. The stable was situated in one of the most thickly built sections of town, and the buildings adjacent were only saved from destruction by reason of the absence of so much even as a breath of air at the time. The fire was remarkable chiefly from the fact that it was the first in the memory of the "oldest inhabitant" at which the "Skwirt" was not brought into play.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—On Saturday last, the wife of a miner named James Bath, residing in Millville boro., put her two small children into an apron and deliberately threw them into a well containing ten feet of water, and then herself jumped in. All three were rescued before life had become extinct. No cause is assigned for the commission of the rash act.

SHOE STORE.—John D. Thomas, at his store-room, High st., Ebensburg, has just received a very large stock of women's and children's boots and shoes. The stock was made to his order in Philadelphia, and is of superior quality and workmanship. He speaks for himself in an advertisement in to-day's paper.

WE direct attention to the card of Cook Brothers, dealers in provisions, flour, &c., Pittsburg. The establishment is one of the best of the kind in that city, and we take pleasure in recommending it to the favorable consideration of the business public.

DIED—At his residence, in Clearfield township, on the 7th, Mr. Michael Carney, aged about 90 years.

POSTSCRIPT.—Any mention made in these columns of the weather is hereby amended so as to read that now (Wednesday a. m.) the snow is falling rapidly.
