Robinson becomes winningest coach

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

The University of Iowa and Grambling State University have one thing in common — Eddie Robinson.

The 66-year-old Robinson reigns as the winningest coach in college football history today following Grambling State's 27-7 conquest of Prairie View A&M. And Iowa, the school where Robinson earned his master's degree in physical education, may have retained its No. 1 ranking thanks to a last-minute 35-31 victory over Michigan State.

In his 44th season as Grambling's coach, Robinson passed the late Bear Bryant by notching his 324th victory.

"Whatever the record is, it belongs to Grambling," Robinson said of the predominantly black school in northern Louisiana. "You may talk about the record, but that's not the record. The record is 44 years at one school, one job and one wife.

"We do the same things over and over. We try to win, and that's just about it. That's the name of it."

The countdown was on when Grambling took a 20-0 halftime lead over Prairie View. Iowa, however, cut it a little finer. The Hawkeyes blew a 13-0 lead, fell behind Michigan State 24-13, went ahead 28-24, trailed 31-28 and finally pulled it out on quarterback Chuck Long's 2-yard naked bootleg with only 27 seconds left.

"The slowest quarterback in the world can run that play and run it in from the 2-yard line," said Long, who also completed 30 of 39 passes for 380 yards and four touchdowns. "But I ran as fast as I could."

But not fast enough to keep Coach Hayden Fry from a few anxious moments.

"Chuck isn't all that fast," Fry said, "and when I noticed he hoisted the ball at the 3-yard line I just about had a heart attack."

Three members of the Associated Press Top Twenty weren't as fortunate as Iowa. Third-ranked Southern Methodist committed four turnovers and lost to Arizona 28-6, No. 5 Ohio State was beaten by Illinois 31-28 when Chris White kicked a 38-yard field goal with four seconds remaining, and No. 11 LSU was blanked by eighth-ranked Florida 20-0.

Elsewhere, runnerup Oklahoma mauled Kansas State 41-6, No. 6 Oklahoma State defeated Tulsa 25-13, seventh-ranked Michigan whipped Wisconsin 33-6 and No. 10 Arkansas hog-tied Texas Christian 41-0.

In the Second Ten, No. 13 Nebraska trimmed New Mexico 38-7, No. 14 Auburn trampled Mississippi 41-0, No. 15 Brigham Young walloped Colorado State 42-7, No. 16 Tennessee edged Wake Forest 31-29, No. 17 Air Force beat Notre Dame 21-15, No. 19 Baylor nipped Houston 24-21 and No. 20 Texas plastered Rice 44-16.

Fourth-ranked Florida State, No. 9 Penn State, No. 12 Alabama and No. 18 Georgia were not scheduled.

Long's game-winning touchdown run started in the same spot at Iowa's Kinnick Stadium where the Hawkeyes blew a 2-point conversion attempt in the final minute of last year's game with Michigan State.

Oklahoma 41, Kansas State 6

Troy Aikman completed eight straight passes in directing the Sooners to three third-quarter scores. Aikman, who had two touchdown passes called back by penalties, was 10-of-14 for 177 yards while Lydell Carr rushed for 136 yards and a touchdown.

Illinois 31, Ohio State 28

White's field goal climaxed Illinois' rally from a 28-14 deficit, which included one-yard touchdown runs by Ray Wilson — his second of the game — and Jack Trudeau. The Illini blew a 14-0 lead when Ohio State's Jim Karsatos scored on a short run.

Air Force 21, Notre Dame 15

So what else is new? Air Force beat the Irish for the fourth year in a row, erasing a 15-13 deficit when Terry Maki blocked a fourth-quarter field goal attempt and A.J. Scott returned it 77 yards for a touchdown. Notre Dame had a first-and-goal at the Air Force two-yard line but two running plays lost yardage and quarterback Steve Beuerlein was called for intentional grounding before the fatal field goal try.

Michigan 33, Wisconsin 6

Michigan allowed its first touchdown of the season but got three scoring passes from Jim Harbaugh — two to fullback Gerald White — and Garland Rivers' 28-yard interception return while holding the Badgers to 175 yards.

Florida 20, LSU 0

Tailback Neal Anderson broke the school rushing record and also threw a 51-yard scoring pass to Ray McDonald. Anderson rushed for 123 yards, bringing his career total to 2,670. The Gators rushed for 219 yards and passed for 205 while limiting LSU to 202 over-all.

Nebraska 38, New Mexico 7

Paul Miles rushed for 189 yards and a touchdown and quarterback McCathorn Clayton scored twice after Nebraska spotted New Mexico a 7-0 lead. The Cornhuskers, 45-point favorites, led only 14-7 at halftime before pulling away.

Grambling State University Head Coach Eddie Robinson is surrounded by his players after they defeated Prarie View A & M 27-7 Saturday night in Dallas. The win marked the 324th collegiate victory for Robinson, making him the all-time winningest coach in college football history. The previous record was set by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama.

Niekro knuckles down for 300th

By The Associated Press

It was a long time coming — five tries after winning his 299th game — but Phil Niekro of the New York Yankees finally achieved career victory No. 300 yesterday by shutting out the Toronto Blue Jays 9-0.

Niekro, 16-12, struck out five and walked three and didn't throw a knuckleball until the final batter.

"A lot of people thought I couldn't get people out without the knuckleball," Niekro said. "I always wanted to pitch a game without throwing a knuckleball."

Henry Cotto, who singled home two runs for the Yankees in the first inning, added his first major-league homer in the eighth, a two-run shot.

Brewers 9, Red Sox 6

Milwaukee rookie Billy Joe Robidoux hit a pair of two-run homers in support of Danny Darwin, who finished 8-18. Boston's Wade Boggs wrapped up the AL batting championship with three hits for a .368 average. Boggs had a double and two singles, tying the major-league record by hitting safely in his 135th game.

A's 9, Royals 3

Oakland's Mike Gallego had three hits and drove in two runs for Chris Codiroli, who finished 14-14.

Tigers 11, Orioles 2

Detroit's Chet Lemon hit two home runs, his 17th and 18th, and drove in four runs for Frank Tanana, 12-14, who fanned eight and allowed nine hits.

Twins 4, Indians 2

Mark Salas doubled, singled, drove in a run, scored another and set up the go-ahead run in the fifth inning in support of Mike Smithson, who finished 15-14.

White Sox 3, Mariners 2

Chicago's Ron Kittle hit his 26th home run and scored twice as 19-year-old Ed Correa won his first major-league start.

Angels 6, Rangers 5

Rufino Linares hit a three-run homer in the eighth inning and Mike Witt, 15-9, struck out 13 Texas batters over seven innings for California.

Reds 6, Dodgers 5

Cincinnati's Dave Parker hit a tie-breaking solo home run in the ninth inning, giving him 34 homers and 125 RBI, both career highs. It came with two outs on a 3-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer, 7-9.

Cubs 8, Cardinals 2

Chicago's Davey Lopes hit a three-run pinch homer and Shawon Dunston doubled two runs as Reggie Patterson, 3-0, nine-hit St. Loius.

Expos 2, Mets 1

Hubie Brooks drove in 100 runs for the first time in his career, the last a run-scoring single to break a fourth-inning tie. Montreal's Dan Schatzeder, 3-5, Tim Burke and Jeff Reardon, who got his major league leading 41st save, combined on a six-hitter.

Braves 8, Giants 7

Pinch-hitter Claudell Washington's run-scoring single in the seventh inning snapped a 7-7 tie and handed San Francisco its 100th loss. The Giants, who may have played their last home game ever in Candlestick Park, had been the only pre-expansion team never to lose 100 games.

Phillies 5, Pirates 0

Kevin Gross pitched a four hit-shutout and John Russell hit a three-run homer in a five-run Philadelphia third inning. Gross, 15-13, struck out nine and walked three. Pittsburgh finished with baseball's worst record — 57-104.

Astros 6, Padres 4

Houston's Jose Cruz and Alan Ashby homered and Charlie Kerfeld, 4-2, pitched three-hit ball over six innings. Dave Smith got his 27th save for the Astros.

Ueberroth to act against drug users

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Peter Ueberroth says he is "going to take action" in the near future against baseball players who have recently admitted taking drugs.

"I'm not going to pre-publicize it," said Ueberroth, "but I'm going to look at all the information. I'm going to meet with each one and I'm going to look at them eyeball-to-eyeball, and the detrimental effect this has had on baseball."

Ueberroth made his remarks during an interview telecast last night on CBS' "60 Minutes."

The commissioner was among several guests on the show which included former major league pitcher Dock Ellis and columnists Dick Young of the New York Post and Jimmy Breslin of the New York Daily News.

Ueberroth made his comments in response to urgings by Young to take action against such players as Cincinnati's Dave Parker and Keith Hernandez of the New York Mets, who recently admitted during a federal trial Pittsburgh that they used cocaine in the past.

However, while taking steps against drug-users in major league baseball, Ueberroth indicated he would not be harsh in his judgments. When Young suggested that such players be thrown out of baseball "the first time they take it (drugs)," Ueberroth said, "It's not practical in society. It wouldn't work."

"I could say that," Ueberroth added, "and it would be thrown out immediately in the courts. So it's an ineffective kind of thing. It's a throwback, and I think he's (Young) thinking like you could 30, 40 years ago. And there's a fairness thing. I think peoples' rights are an important thing and I don't believe somebody should be all powerful. Who can say, 'you're banned for life for this, or you're banned for life for that?' "

Ueberroth also reiterated his goal for mandatory drug testing for major league players. Under the current Major League Players Association agreement, major leaguers cannot be forced to be tested for drug use.

Asked by show host Harry Reasoner if he thought it was necessary, Ueberroth said:

"Without question. Unless there's that as a deterrent, you're not going to stop it. I've been tested. It takes about 10 minutes. If they won't devote three times a year, a half hour of the year to clean up the reputation of the game, they have a problem with me."

Asked if he thought there would be drug testing by the beginning of next baseball season, Ueberroth replied:

"If I had to guess, I'd guess yes, absolutely."

After slow start, Kosar shines

By BARRY WILNER
AP Sports Writer

After the first play of his NFL career, Bernie Kosar might have wished he was back in college. A little later, however, Kosar was a Cleveland Browns hero.

Kosar made his NFL debut yesterday, first in forgettable fashion, then with memorable results.

Kosar replaced injured starter Gary Danielson (strained right shoulder) late in the first half and promptly fumbled away his first pro snap.

But he then completed his first seven passes in the second half and led the Browns to a 24-20 victory over the Patriots.

Bears 27, Buccaneers 19

Chicago remained unbeaten with a 24-point second half as Walter Payton scored on runs of four and nine yards, giving him 100 career touchdowns. Jim McMahon threw a 21-yard TD pass to Dennis McKinnon and Kevin Butler kicked field goals of 30 and 31 yards.

Rams 13, Vikings 10

A gamble by Minnesota Coach Bud Grant did not pay off as Darrin Nelson was stopped for no gain at the Rams 1 by linebacker Jim Collins on the final play to preserve Los Angeles' triumph. Minnesota had no time outs left but spurned a field goal attempt that could have sent the game into overtime.

49ers 38, Falcons 17

Joe Montana had his biggest statistical day as a pro, operating a short passing attack to perfection for five touchdown passes, tying a 49ers' record.

Colts 49, Bills 17

Fullback Randy McMillan, returning after a two-week absence with an ankle injury, rushed for 112 yards and two touchdowns.

Dolphins 24, Steelers 20

Miami also made a comeback as Dan Marino hit 27 of 45 passes for 277 yards against the best pass defense in the league. He led the Dolphins on a drive for Lorenzo Hampton's 2-yard run for the decisive touchdown

Saints 23, Eagles 21

Johnnie Poe raced 40 yards to score with an interception, Dave Waymer intercepted three passes and Morten Andersen kicked three field goals for New Orleans, which built a big lead before second-string QB Ron Jaworski led an Eagles comeback.

Packers 43, Lions 10

Phillip Epps caught two touchdown passes, James Lofton grabbed 10 passes for 151 yards and Green Bay's hard-hitting effort forced six Detroit turnovers.

Jets 29, Bengals 20

New York won its fourth straight with the benefit of some controversial officiating. With New York leading 17-13 QB Ken O'Brien was short on a bomb for Wesley Walker and Louis Breeden intercepted at the 6-yard line.

Raiders 19, Chiefs 10

Quarterback Marc Wilson, named the starter just prior to the game and playing despite a sprained ankle, passed for 241 yards and one touchdown.

Broncos 31, Oilers 20

John Elway threw three touchdown passes, including a 41-yarder to Steve Watson on a flea-flicker, and the Oilers self-destructed.

Seahawks 26, Chargers 21

Seattle's opportunistic defense intercepted Mark Hermann three times and recovered a Hermann fumble.
