Sixteen Years

IN THE HOUSE OF AFRICA.

JUST PUBLISHED, TO BE SOLD ONLY BY SUBSCRIPTION, A LIVING NARRATIVE OF TRAVELS & EXPLORATIONS, during a residence of 16 years in the Interior of Africa.

This is a work of thrilling adventures and hair-breadth escapes among savage beasts and more savage men. Dr. Livingstone was alone and unaided by any white man, travelling with African attendants, among different tribes of nations, all strange to him; and many of them hostile, and altogether forming the most astonishing Book of Travels the world has ever seen. All our Agents acknowledge it is the most saleable book published. The usual liberal commission paid to Agents, in small or large quantities. For particulars, address

J. W. BLAKELY, Publisher,
48 North Fourth Street, Phila'd'a, Pa.

Copies sent by mail, free, on receipt of the price, $1 25.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"From among the hundreds of favorable notices, from the most respectable journals of the country, of our cheap edition of Livingstone's Travels, we publish but a few, which we follow:

"A goldmine in descriptions of thrilling and wonderful scenes, among a people and in a country entirely new to the civilized world; and altogether, we regard it as one of the most interesting books issued within the past year."—Hartford Courant, Hartford, Ct.

"It is emphatically an edition for the people, and judging from the rapid sale with which it is meeting, it is fully appreciated by them."—Christian Freeman, Boston.

"The book is having a great run and will be read by every reading man, woman and child, in this as well as other lands."—Ladies' Union, Pittsburg.

"The work is finely illustrated, well printed, and handsomely bound, thus answering in every respect the demand for a popular but cheap edition of the journeys, and researches in South Africa. Those of our readers who have read a delightful book for reading at any time will not be disappointed in this work."—U. S. Journal.

"With truth we can say that seldom is presented to the reading public a work so taking the vast amount of solid instruction as the one in question. The volume is handsomely illustrated, and presents that unlike appearance of exterior for which Mr. Bradley's publications are noted."—Family Monitor, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"This interesting work should find a place in every one. Its interesting pages of adventures are full of instruction and information. Twelve thousand copies have been sold in one month."—Christian Intelligencer & Travel and Research.

"A fine appearance, great advantages in this edition, which is undoubtedly the edition that should be to the reader who reads for profitable instruction and amusement."—Saturday Post, Philadelphia.

"The edition of Dr. Livingstone's Travels published by J. W. Bradley, is in every respect what it purports to be. Like all Mr. Bradley's publications, it is excellently gotten up."—Sunday Mercury, Philadelphia.

"We can recommend the edition of Livingstone's Travels published by Bradley of Philadelphia, in every way worthy of the reputation of the publisher. For excellence and cheapness it is unequalled by any other edition."—Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

"Bradley's edition of Livingstone's Travels is a marvellous production, and we hope it will be widely circulated."—Methodist Protestant, Baltimore.

"Bradley's edition of Livingstone's Travels is the cheapest and best."—Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia.

"Bradley's edition of Livingstone's Travels is a marvel
