FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1854.

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Public Officers in City and Country, Mechanics, Executors, Administrators, Operators—all who wish to procure the sale or exchange of anything—would do well to give notice of the same through the "Lewisburg Chronicle." This paper has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing as large a proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers, and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞No Foreign News. Every arrival is looked for with interest.

HALF SHEET THIS WEEK.—Fourth of July; job printing extra; and other reasons therefor.

☞The "Know Nothings" have carried all before them at the Election in Memphis, Tennessee.

☞The Anti-Administration State Printer chosen in New Hampshire had 12 majority. It is thought no Senators can be chosen this year.

☞A boy about five years old was shot in the hip with a wad from a musket, in the hands of a man named Yans Taylor, who was standing guard over a stack of muskets at a celebration at this place on the 4th inst. We understand the situation of the child is critical. Taylor was arrested and in default of bail committed to jail at New Berlin to await his trial.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday last, one of the artists employed in frescoing the walls of the German Reformed house of worship in Lewisburg, was leaning against one of the front windows, which was partly let down from the top, when it slipped down suddenly, throwing the unfortunate man out upon the steps, breaking one arm above the wrist, and inflicting several bruises and cuts. He is now about, rejoicing that the accident was no worse.

☞The Dedication of the Methodist Chapel in Lewisburg on Sunday last, was attended by crowded audiences during three services, the other congregations omitting ordinary exercises for a part of the day, that all the people might attend.—The very liberal collections and subscriptions—amounting to $4,160, (Four thousand-one-hundred-and-sixty Dollars) will, we understand, not only clear the spacious and neat edifice from debt, but will also enable the congregation to erect a Parsonage for which they have procured the lot of ground adjoining on the South (recently, Mr. Armstrong's Cabinet shop.)

☞We give accounts of Celebrations of the 4th in Lewisburg and Millinburg.

Parties at Thompson's Spring, and at Dale's Cave, to cool off—varied the entertainment for those who chose to "frustricate."

One of the Milton Fire companies paid Lewisburg a visit, and were escorted by our new proposed Military company. The Firemen, in red coats and white pants, with engine decorated with flags, made a very creditable appearance.

Messrs. Lowry and Peltz, of the University, held forth at Hughesville, Lycoming county; Peters & Co., attended the Sunday School excursion from Danville to Red Bank——and so they scattered.

Another Eclipse at New Berlin.

The "STAR" establishment has again changed hands—Messrs. H. K. Ritter and Edward Smith assuming its control. We wish them both pecuniary success, at the same time we expect to battle them upon local matters, nor do we anticipate any change in the course or the character of that sheet.

Mr. Leader's brief career was marked by industry and ability, and if he had not been misled by those who surrounded him, we believe he would have satisfied the Whig party.—We sincerely wish him smoother seas, and more ballast!

☞The regular monthly meeting of the society for Moral and Religious Inquiry (having been postponed for one week,) will be held in University Chapel on next Sabbath July 9th. A Report on Oregon will be read by Mr. J. M. Finn of Philadelphia.

☞Mr. Wm. A. Barnes has been ordained to the Gospel ministry by the First Baptist church in Pittsburg.

☞Mr. Kennedy has collected and paid over the State Tax in this Borough—first in the list.
