FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 21, 1854

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Public Officers, in City and Country, Mechanics, Executors, Administrators, Operators—all who wish to procure or dispose of anything—would do well to give notice of the same through the "Lewisburg Chronicle." This paper has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing as large a proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers, and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ The Democratic Primary Election in Northumberland county, is to be held on Saturday, 5th August next.

☞ For the information of our patrons in Union and Center counties, we purpose giving hereafter a weekly list of the Canal craft reaching and leaving Lewisburg, up to Thursday noon.

☞ The Supreme Court of this State met at Sunbury on Monday of the present week—all the Judges present. Twenty-four causes on the Trial List, all of which were disposed of and the Court adjourned on Wednesday.

Lime Again.

The extreme heat of the season, and the ravages of the Cholera and other dreaded forms of pestilence in various parts of our country, admonish the citizens of Lewisburg again to make every effort possible for the preservation of the public health.

We are informed that there is a pool of foul water at the corner of the Market St. grave-yard, and other places—sinks, pigpens, privies, &c.—requiring attention.

Lime and ventilation are the best purifiers of the atmosphere.

☞ The Cattawissa Railroad is now open, and is advertised to take passengers from Cattawissa to Philadelphia in 7 hours. Fare $3 75. Leave Philadelphia at 7½ A. M., and reach Cattawissa at 3, P. M. Leave Cattawissa at 12½, P. M., reach Philadelphia at 7½, P. M., (Sundays excepted.) Philadelphia office, Reading R. R. Depot, corner Broad and Wine Strs.

But for the Repudiationists, Union County might now have Railroad communication with the world, to the great advantage of three-fourth of her citizens, and to the injury of none.

☞ The Hard Shell Democratic Convention of New York State have nominated Judge Bronson for Governor, and a full State Ticket, denounce the Administration of President Pierce, approve the New York Enlarged Canal policy, and the "principle" of the recent Nebraska act.

☞ Barnum's Menagerie, which has been drawing considerable money from most of our neighboring towns, is universally pronounced to be the most arrant humbug of the kind ever witnessed in our region. Our town escaped, the Burgess requiring $50 for the License, which the Agent thought too much for a town having nine steeples—so he passed to Selinsgrove and Milton.

☞ A Convention of the County School Superintendents has been held in Harrisburg, for mutual consultation. About two thirds of them were present.

☞ For Valuable farms, large and small, and houses to sell or rent see "Real Estate" column in the Chronicle.

DIED,

In Kelly Tp, 15th inst., in his 83d year, WILLIAM A. PATTERSON. His death was very sudden: he held a pen in hand, preparatory to signing a note, when the 'grim messenger' came, and he died before making a mark.

In New Berlin, 9th inst., JOHN KLECKNER, only son of Charles and Catharine Cawley, aged 5 months and 6 days. On the 8th, a child of John Yarger, aged about 4 months.

In Lewisburg, 14th inst., Miss ANN BRENNER, aged 21 years. On the 14th inst. NANCE relict of Peter Winegarden, aged 76 years. On the 19th inst., JAMES, son of Benjamin C. and Matilda Taylor, aged 5 years, 5 m, 20 d.

In Chillisquaque, 16th inst., MAGDALENA, wife of Paul Lohr, aged 41 years.

Correspondence of the Lewisburg Chronicle.

MADISON, Wis., July 11, 1854.

A gentleman from Chicago informed me to-day that on last Friday there were one hundred and eighty deaths in that city of Cholera. The same disease is also raging to some extent in Milwaukie. There were two cases in Madison two or three weeks ago, both of which proved fatal—one a Norwegian servant girl, and the other an Irishman, who had been salubriously drunk for a week. It is not much to be dreaded in Madison as its clear and healthy climate is an irresistible barrier to its devastations. There were also a few cases of Ship Fever at the Depot in this place a few weeks ago. The victims were Norwegian emigrants. F.

☞ The Pottsville Emporium, and the Mining Register—both Democratic—have united, under G. L. Vleit, Esq. "Two are better than one," to preserve peace and harmony, or to make money.

COURT PROCLAMATION—Whereas the Hon. ABNER WILSON, President Judge for the 20th Judicial District, composed of the counties of Union and Mifflin, and Jesse Wilson and Jacob Marstellar, Esq., Justices in Union county, have issued their precept bearing date the day of May, 1854, directed to me, for holding a Court of Common Pleas and Orphans' Court, Quarter Sessions of the Peace and Jail Delivery, and General Jail Delivery for the county of Union, at Lewisburg, on the 4th Monday of SEPT next, being the 18th day of the month, and continue two weeks.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace, and Constables in said county of Union, to appear with their rolls, records, inquisitions, examinations and other remembrances, to do those things which of their offices and in their behalf appertain to be done, and all witnesses and other persons prosecuting in behalf of the Commonwealth against any person or persons, are required to be then and there attending, and not depart without leave at their peril. Justices are requested to be punctual to their attendance at the appointed time agreeable to notice.

Given under my hand and seal at the Sheriff's Office in New Berlin, the 11th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and in the seventy-seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America. God save the Commonwealth.
