WORDEN & CORNELINS.

Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 5, 1855.

ADVERTIZE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Public Officers, in City and Country, Mechanics, Executors, Administrators, Operators—all who wish to procure or dispose of anything, would do well to give to the off the same through the Lewisburg Chronicle." This paper has a large and increasing circulation in a community extending as large a proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers, and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞The next Union County Court opens on Monday the 12th February.

Providence papers announce the death of Thomas Wilson Dorr.

DANIEL NEYHART of Lewisburg is the fortunate candidate for Doorkeeper for the House.

☞A Prohibitory State Convention will be held at HARRISBURG, commencing on the 17th January inst.

☞Mr. LEADER of New Berlin is on a trip to Harrisburg and giving some of his old-fashioned prophecies thro' the Star.

☞Remember that we furnish the Penn'a Farm Journal and the Chronicle one year for $2.25.

ANDREW J. PETERS—competent and deserving—is re-appointed Clerk to the Commissioners of Union county.

☞The bear story in last week's Chronicle, contained one error. We are told since that his bearship was "pinned" by Mr. Thompson Magee, instead of Mr. Young. We freely make the correction, in justice to Mr. Magee—and the bear.

☞We regret to learn that, yesterday forenoon, at Milton, Judge POLLOCK had his left hand accidentally scalded so as probably to disable it for use for some weeks to come.

☞There is a spirited contest for State Treasurer, at Harrisburg, between Messrs. HART of Philad. and SLIFER of Union. Hart is much the older man and politician, but finds Slifer a strong competitor. (The N.Berlin candidate not heard from.)

☞Be very careful in spelling proper names when you wish to use the Telegraph. A gentleman recently sent a message to Lumber street, Philad., (meaning Lombard,) but the Philad. office returned that they knew of no such street; and before the error could be corrected, the whole object was frustrated.

☞Our new rules and type—which started from Philadelphia by Express last Friday—have not yet arrived, and we are compelled to issue our first No. without the contemplated improvements. (This expressing is getting to be anything but a blessing, and if not improved soon will be an unprofitable affair, for no one can rely upon it.)

A friend writes that we may send him our paper "if we don't charge too much." We think it well worth its price—$1,50 per year, or at the rate of about three cts. a week—and shall trust our correspondent will ratify our decision in the case submitted.

☞Our Standing Stone friends are much nearer right in their last guess than their first. "We shall see what we shall see."—We don't know the "dispensation" referred to: our own opinion, after a seven years' acquaintance, only four miles apart, is, that JAMES POLLOCK WILL BE THE GOVERNOR HIMSELF, for three years from the 16th inst.

"THE FLAG OF OUR UNION" for the New Year comes out in new type, a new dress throughout, and new and elegant heading. It will continue to give the same large amount of original and entertaining sketches, stories and novelettes, and fresh spirit will be imparted to its editorial department, which will be as heretofore under the immediate control and care of Mr. Ballou. Several new and popular writers have been engaged for the year, and the Flag will be improved in all departments. The same care will be observed in excluding from its columns everything of an immoral or indelicate nature, and no pains or expense will be spared to make the Flag an elegant, moral and refined family journal. The first number for the New Year, commences a brilliant and taking novellette from the pen of that favorite novelist and admirable writer, Lieutenant Murray, entitled: "The Sea Witch, or the African Quadroon, a tale of the Slave Coast." Terms of the Flag $2 a year. A. Winch, 116 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia, publisher's agent.
