WORDEN & CORNELIUS.

Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 13, 1855

ADVERTIZE.—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ The long but harmonious and we trust profitable Winter Session of the Lewisburg University, closes next week.

The Ladies of the Female Institute gave a Soriee Musicale, interspersed with original essays, at their building, last evening. The closing Examination &c., occur on Monday afternoon, Tuesday, and Wednesday morning next.

Public performance of the Students of the Academical Department, in the house of the Baptist Church, Monday evening next.

Junior Exhibition, Tuesday evening, same place.

View of the University Grounds.

We are indebted to Mr. BELL, General Agent, for a large and splendid lithographic picture of the Lewisburg University premises, and finished and unfinished edifices, taken from the Race on Third street. It is an exact profile of the contemplated and completed improvements, well colored, and would ornament any parlor. Robert Dunlap is Agent for the sale of the work, the profits of which go into the Building Fund. Price, $1,50 colored, $1 plain.

☞ A paper in Mercer county, this State, has published that Andrew G. Curtin is a Roman Catholic, and son of Oliver Curtin, an Irish priest, &c. We will "give them a Roland for their Oliver" as the father of Andrew G.; and although Roland Curtin was originally a Catholic, yet for 50 years, up to his last days, he was a member of the Presbyterian congregation of Bellefonte; while Andrew G. is well known as a true-blue out-side member of the same old-school branch of Protestantism. It would be a curt and unsatisfactory "confession" any priest could worm out of Andrew G. Curtin!

☞ If the New Berlin prophets who predicted that Lewisburg was "fast becoming an abode for the bats and the owls," would look in upon us occasionally, they would recall that remark. Trade has not yet all "gone to Winfield," nor does it all go "through" New Berlin. Business is brisk, in town—new comers, constant, but not crowding—new merchants and professional men, also mechanics and laborers; and some hopes of being a county town before "1900."

☞ MIFFLINBURG AHEAD!—We learn that citizens of Mifflinburg and adjoining townships have subscribed over $12000 for the new county Buildings. If they had done so before the Election, it would have been worth 200 or 300 votes for Division; but "there's no law ag'in" their coming in at the eleventh hour. The friends of the Lewisburg location will commence their effort to-morrow.

☞ By the first article on our first page it will be seen that our Philad. Correspondent has found a chance for a trial of strength of quill. "S.H.F." and "Anglo American" are both Milesians—albeit the latter has been longer naturalized—and we anticipate a hard fight. We shall see "fair play."

☞ Hon. JOSEPH CASEY, has removed from New Berlin to Harrisburg, to continue the practice of Law. Mr. Casey was one of the most useful and public spirited citizens of this county, and the change we doubt not will be our loss more than his.

☞ We hope our Agricultural readers will not only carefully read and ponder the articles in our paper relative to the cultivation of the earth, but also spread the good among their neighbors by procuring subscribers to the paper.

☞ Our Harrisburg Correspondent and the Herald, have different opinions as to the new Liquor Law. We shall publish it next week, if we can find it.. It is stated that it goes into effect the 1st of June next.

☞ Mr. HERR, who won himself a good name while keeping the New Berlin Hotel, has leased the well known House of C. D. KLINE, in Lewisburg, and is installed host thereof.

☞ Our "Plough Boy" must take more pains to write plain, we think, or his articles may be badly mangled.

☞ The Jersey Shore News Letter states that Paul Geddes, who disappeared from this country about 1840, recently made a flying visit to his wife in Clinton county, having paid up principal and interest of the sum due by him to the Northumberland Bank. He had been doing a good business in California, for which he again departed, with an expressed intention of adjusting all his affairs there and returning home to settle as soon as possible.

☞ By a correspondence between Mr. Hickok and the Post Master at Harrisburg, we learn that letters to Members, &c., and persons in the Departments entitled to the favor, are to be forwarded without pre payment—the Government having made arrangements to have them paid in Harrisburg. They are also to be charged 3 cts. instead of 5—two-fifths less than on letters received under the old arrangement.

RHODE ISLAND—"Sam" had scarcely a show of opposition in Roger Williams' Rhoda. He has every election district as far as heard from—three to come in. Governor and State Officers, and the two Congressmen, are all of Samuel's way of thinking. Erin-go-Sam!

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—The foreign intelligence by the Asia is merely interesting. It looks pacific; but conjectures upon the continuance of the war, which now rests in a measure upon the shoulders of diplomacy, can but prove unstable.

☞ The Star sticks to it that it will be a bunkum good Whig paper hereafter. We hope the 2 or 300 "Bigler Whigs" which own its authority will repent and do likewise.

☞ The Pennsylvania Canals are now generally in operation. The Cross Cut has been closed by putting in new gates, but is thought will be in order this week.

☞ "Our most distinguished consideration" to our Harrisburg correspondent. Shall be happy to hear from him again.

☞ The Governor has signed several more Bank bill—vetoed another—and others hang in suspense.

☞ We have signs of Spring at last. Wheat looks well, but our Farmers are some what impatient.

LOUISVILLE, April 9.—The Know-Nothings swept the city by a tremendous majority, at the municipal election held on Saturday. Barbee, their candidate for Mayor, and all the municipal officers, except one School Director and two Councilmen, have been elected. The Know-Nothings were aided by the anti-liquor men. The election passed off quietly.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Sufficient returns have been received from Iowa, to show that the Whig candidates for State Officers have been elected by larger majorites than in August last.

Judge Cole, the Whig candidate has been elected to the Supreme Bench in Wisconsin.

RICHMOND MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—The municipal election in Richmond, Va., took place on Wednesday. The mayor, both branches of the councils, and all the city officers, were carried by the Know Nothings. The first gun from the "Old Dominion." The majority is 1,246.

HORSES DROWNED!—Two valuable Horses belonging to Mr. Wm. Cox of Hemlock township, were accidently drowned, on the 6th inst, in the Fishingcreek, just below the new Bridge, at Bloomsburg, The water was unexpectedly swollen by the rains of Thursday, and and the driver, not being aware of the danger, drove his four horse team into the stream, beyond their depth, when wagon and all was washed down and the tongue horses were instantly drowned. Mr. Cox's loss is heavy, considering the fact, that it has broken up his team.

FIRE.—The barn of Mr. George Ickes, near Ickesburg, Perry county, was destroyed by fire on Friday week. His harness and horse gears were burnt, and a horse valued at $150 was so badly scorched as scarcely to leave a hope of recovery. The wife of Mr. Ickes in attempting to get the horse out of the stable was knocked down by the frightened animal, and she was with difficulty rescued from a horrible death. The fire was communicated to the barn by the children burning matches.

Christian Lauffman, of Juniata county, was killed on Monday last by a wagon loaded with corn passing over him. The horses took fright in descending a hill, and the saddle horse falling brought him under the wheels. He was about 70 years old.

The Lancaster Whig says that the late Convention of the American Order in that city, after a free interchange of opinion, resolved that a more public organization was not at present advisable.

BROKE JAIL.—A negro man named Dickerson, confined in the Lock Haven jail for stealing, escaped on Sunday morning about six o'clock. He is supposed to have been furnished with a rope by some one outside, with which he scaled the wall.

The Cincinnati Riot has been put down by the authorities. Most of the Democratic or Fusion ticket was declared elected.

The Spring trade of Philadelphia has been considerably curtailed by "jobbers" this year. A healthy reaction.

New York has passed a Prohibitory Liquor Law, to take effect the 4th July next.

Gov. POLLOCK has vetoed the charter of the Stroudsburg Bank.

Neal Dow has been elected Mayor of Portland by about 50 majority.

A CARD.
TO Farmers and Gardeners.—The undersigned having a limited supply of what is called the "Tidd Corn," will send a sufficient quantity for planting twenty-five hills, post paid, to any person who will forward him, to this post-office, by mail or otherwise, the sum of one dollar. Larger quantities at the same rate.
He believes he is the only person in this Commonwealth possessing any of this invaluable corn.
The usual yield of this corn is about eight to twelve ears to the single stalk. The following notice, taken from the Luzerne Union of Nov. 8, 1854, will give some idea of the value of this article:
"PROPERITE CORN.—We were shown, yesterday, by Capt. Converse, a stalk of corn, of rare kind, which was set for eighteen ears, but owing to the seed having been planted too late, only eleven came to maturity. If this climate and soil is adapted to the raising of this corn, and there seems to be no doubt of it, it certainly must prove to be a most acceptable seed to our farmers." G. CONVERSE.
