WORDEN & CORNELIUS.

Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 23, 1855

ADVERTIZE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ We have had one day's later advices from England by the North Star, but nothing of importance from Europe.

In China, the English ships have attacked and killed large numbers of pirates doing much service in that respect.

—As we go to press (Thursday night) we have no tidings of the steamship Canada, which was due on Wednesday.

☞ The Register's Notices on opposite page, complete the Official announcements for the first Court in Lewisburg.

DANVILLE BANK.—Messrs. Beaver of Lewisburg, Goodlander of Milton, and Piper of M'Ewensville, are among the Board of Directors chosen Monday last.

☞ On Wednesday of this week, WM. FRICK was elected the President, and JOS. MEIXELL, a Director, for the Lewisburg Savings Institution, vice WM. CAMERON, resigned.

NORTHUMBERLAND BANK.—The election for Directors on Monday resulted in the choice of the following Board:

Saml T Brown, Paul Masteler, Fleming W Pollock, Milton; Wm Cameron, John Walls, Lewisburg; Amos E Kapp, Wm H Wapples, Jesse C Horton, Northumberland; Wm J Greenough, John B Packer, Sunbury; Charles R Paxton, Cattawissa; George Schnure, Selinsgrove; Edward Wilson, New Berlin.

There were two tickets run for Director[illegible] both, it is believed he will be chosen the President, at the Election on Monday next.

☞ The Sheriff of Snyder county has issued his proclamation for the first Court, to commence on the 24th of December. The Commissioners were to have met on Monday last, to fix upon a suitable place for holding Court, and also rooms for the different officers; but two of them failed to attend.—Times.

☞ A gentleman from Snyder county requests us to propose Hon. Andrew H. Reeder for U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania. If he is refused his seat in Congress as the Delegate from the Freeman of Kansas, he might be a formidable candidate.

THE LAST KICK.—We have heard for some time of the secret efforts by a few malcontents to try to renew agitation and turmoil respecting the Union county seat, and the most false and ridiculous stories are set afloat to prepare the public mind for a bold stroke at some time deemed propitious. The plan was briefly this—to just take Snyder county and the western part of Union and attach them to New Berlin; the remainder of Union and the upper end of Northumberland of course to be annexed to Milton—leaving Middleburg and Lewisburg with County Sites erected by the edict of the people under the law, utterly useless. The New Berlin papers have not yet got "sings fixed" to broach the plot, but the Milton Democrat of last week "let the cat out of the bag," and frankly stated that

"Some of our NewBerlin friends have been over here explaining by what method Milton and New Berlin may both become county seats! The idea is quite elating; BUT IT IS MOONSHINE PHILOSOPHY, gentlemen, TO TALK ABOUT IT."

The Miltonian, also, some time since, denounced the movement by declaring,

"We now and FOR EVER declare an open and uncompromising hostility to a division of North'd Co. merely for the accommodation of Lewisburg or her capitalists. We are opposed to increased taxation for the accommodation of ANY TOWN, clique or faction whether in this County or out of it. We are OPPOSED TO A DIVISION of old North'd county, for MANY REASONS. * * Is this the time to cut loose from our friends below the Forks? Certainly not."

The Miltonian also denounced all of the present county of Union as a "POTATO PATCH," and 'soon to be become bankrupt.' Of course, half the "potato patch" would be still more insignificant.

The Member-elect from Northumberl'd was pledged, as we understood before the election, against any division. The true friends of ultimate division we hope will all see—as some of them do—that this last move is too late, is hopeless, and is only calculated to excite more dissensions without effecting any good. If the Lewisburg buildings do not suit the people, then will be ample time to make a new movement.

MIFFLINBURG.—The expediency of a prohibitory liquor law is to be discussed by the Mifflinburg Lyceum on Monday evening next.——The editor of the Star says the reasons alleged for Mr. Strouse's vote in Mifflinburg and vicinity—(viz., that he had pledged himself to repeal the Division Act)—is not correct, and from personal acquaintance highly commends Mr. Strouse as a reputable man.——The editor learns that the present location of the Northumberland Bank will not be disturbed.

LADY CIRCUS RIDING (or Female Equestrianism) at Agricultural Fairs, is falling into disrepute at head quarters before it has invaded all portions of the interior. The Grand Jury of Allegheny, we see it stated, presented them as a nuisance; and the first performer—that is, the lady who won the first prize at the Woman-on-Horseback "Exhibition" at Elmira, has since died in consequence of a cold she caught on the occasion, and the excitement attending the effort.

CLINTON.—Henry Moyer, the German who was so severely burned in attempting to rescue his horse from the burning stable of the Washington House, died of his injuries. He suffered dreadfully in his last hours, and clutched convulsively the bed-clothes with such violence as to tear off seven of his fingers. If that fire was the work of an incendiary, as some supposed, how dreadful must be his feelings in view of this result!.....The "Nittany Blues," Capt.J.H.Tolbert, paid a military visit to Lock Haven.....On Wednesday, Capt. Hughes, Lieut. Hanson, Ensign [illegible] and Dr.S.I.Marks, remove from Lewistown to Lock Haven, the former to open a banking house, the latter to practice in his profession.....The Woodward House was purchased by Robert Hanna for $7,000.

SULLIVAN.—The 'Democrat' has begun its fifth volume.....The following Advertisement appears in its columns: "AN APOLOGY.—A few weeks since, a young man residing in this place, during his attendance at Church on the Sabbath, became drowsy, and nearly fell asleep. He has no excuse to offer, but hereby confesses his wrong, and most respectfully asks the pardon of those who chance to see this, as he considers it an omen of ill-breeding in the extreme.—Laporte, Nov. 15, 1855."

NORTHUMBERLAND.—At the November term of Court, there were seven persons tried on charges of assault and battery, three for larceny, one for selling lottery tickets, and one for obtaining goods under false pretences.....To-day's Miltonian says, "We understand that corn is selling in our Borough, from 50, 55 to 60 cents per bushel, and dull at that. We also learn, that large quantities had been bought eight or ten days ago on speculation, and a considerable quantity of it spoiled—rendered worthless.".....Persons engaged in the hawking and peddling business throughout the county are warned to keep their eyes open, or the law will catch them..... The Democrat wants more acting and less talk about certain contemplated improvements in Milton.....The last span of the railroad bridge over the Susquehanna, on the Northumberland side, was put up last week. The Sunbury American says that "the bridge on the Sunbury side is nearly up. Both will be sufficiently completed for the passage of locomotives before the first of January. The small link of the road making through Sunbury, to connect the Philadelphia and Sunbury Railroad with the Sunbury and Erie, is rapidly progressing.".....Jacob Smith, a German laborer at the steam saw-mill at Sunbury, came to a shocking death on the 14th inst., by accidentally falling across a log which a circular saw was passing through. The saw penetrated through the log about 2½ inches, and to that extent entered his abdomen, severely injuring his intestines, and nearly severing the right lobe of his liver. He died the same day.

LUZERNE.—The "Pittston Herald" is a neat, new, independent, Democratic paper, just issued by Edward S. Niebell..... It is rumored that Col. Hend'k B.Wright is about to remove to Philadelphia..... Mr. Bender, a conductor on the railroad, was discharged from service for transgressing the rules of the company by running into Newport ten minutes ahead of time.

A NEW COUNTERFEIT.—A new counterfeit made its appearance on Saturday. It is on the 85's of the Commercial Bank of Philadelphia, and is of a character to deceive, being well executed. A number of them were passed on Saturday. Our citizens should exercise caution in taking notes of this denomination on the Commercial Bank, as well as on the Mechanics' Bank.

AWFUL TO CONTEMPLATE.—A writer in Harper's Magazine, states that virulent Yellow Fever—such as just desolated Norfolk and Portsmouth—has been gradually creeping northward for some years, and that next season it may break out in Richmond, Alexandria, Washington, Baltimore, or perhaps further north.

☞ Long-continued pastorates are not so common, in Pennsylvania, as in other States; but JAMES ESTEP, M. D., Pastor of the Peters Creek Baptist church, near Pittsburg, recently delivered his Fiftieth Anniversary Sermon.

☞ The express train going south yesterday ran over a cow, above Williamport, throwing the baggage car off the track, and detaining the train several hours. Nobody hurt but the cow.

☞ One of our fellow-laborers in the chair editorial, we regret to learn, is "indignant." We advise all locomotives to keep out of the way until his wrath shall abate.

☞ The Kansas Free State Convention is in session at Topeka. Gov. Reeder has, officially, 400 more honest votes for Delegate to Congress, than Whitfield has, of illegal votes and all.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS possess most astonishing powers in the cure of General Debility.—Copy of a letter from H. Ambrose, of Houston, Chickasaw, Mississippi, to Professor Holloway. "Sir,—I suffered for a number of years from weakness and general debility, and was brought to death's door by the same. I was told by those I consulted, that there was no hope of my recovery, when I resolved to give your Pills a trial, after using them for about five weeks, my health was considerably improved, and at the expiration of two months every symptom of my disorder disappeared." Oct. 30, by Rev. A.L. Dechant, Franklin K. Stauffer of New Berlin and Miss Harriet Ludwig of Baumstown, Berks county.

DIED,

In Hartleton, 19th inst., JAMES MADDEN, Esq., aged 6[illegible] years—one of the most respected citizens of Union county, formerly her Representative in the Legislature, and Post Master at the time of his death. A Surveyor, one of his last acts was as the leading Commissioner to run the Division line between Union and Snyder counties.

By drowning, in Lewisburg, 16th inst. OSCAR son of Daniel and —— Aurand, in his 5th yr.

In West Buffaloe, 11th inst., JOHN ENGLEHART, aged 22 years.

On the 15th inst, near Mifflinburg, CHARLES STAHN, in his 26th year.

Twenty-five years ago, Iowa was a wilderness tenanted only by the savage. Now she has a civilized population estimated at about six hundred thousand, and constantly increasing. The emigration to the state this year has been very heavy.

Indiana papers state that the recent frosts have had the effect to cause a great abatement in the "chill and fever" epidemic, which has been prevailing in that region during the present fall.

A Free Lecture from Dr. Kane,

Describing his Arctic Travels,

WOULD be a rare treat, and so would be the payment of dues to the Chronicle, on the old account, from solvent debtors. I have been delayed in finishing the settling up of several running accounts, which I purpose doing as fast as possible, and to which I do not refer. But there are many who have no offsets to make, and whose longer withholding from us our just dues must incur the outside charges, interests, and costs. From one to eight years' leniency, is surely ample time to pay small bills. Nov.21. O.N.WORDEN.
