False Boasting.

The Buchanan men of Union county are now "whistling to keep their courage up." To hear some of them boast, you might calculate they would have about 750 majority in Union county. At Lewisburg, we hear what tremendous things are going to be done in Hartley; and at Hartley, is retailed what astonishing progress old Buck makes in Lewisburg. Now, don't regard any of their stories. Our party is about as a whole, united as usual, and only requires a full vote to do its whole duty. When they say Hartley will give 200—or Lewisburg 300 Locofoco majority, don's believe a word of it. Lewisburg is true to her political faith, and Hartley the same.

Having heard that Esq. LINCOLN and hundreds other good men of old Hartley were going for Weidensaul and Charles, we thought it advisable to ask Mr. L. how it was, in order that the people may see what reliance to place upon the brag gings of unscrupulous party leaders. Here is his reply:

HARTLETON, Oct. 4, 1858.

Yours of the 28th ult., informing me that it was circulated in your end of the county that I and a large number of others of the Republican party were opposing the election of Mr. James Pross for county Commissioner, has been received. In reference to the report, all I have to say at this time is that it is not true, neither has it a shadow of foundation in fact. Our party here is much in favor of the regular ticket as usual; and neither the independent Democratic candidates for Sheriff or Commissioner will attract many votes from their competitors on our ticket.

Yours &c. R. VB. LINCOLN.

By Division among Ourselves,
James Buchanan was elected President;
Wm. F. Packer was elected Governor;
Abraham S. Wilson was elected Judge.

These offices—with all their influences and results—were lost to our party by want of concert and harmony among ourselves. We may lose a county officer, Assemblyman, or Senator, if we fail to pull together; or by uniting can elect them all.

☞If we are ever to triumph with correct principles, we must forget former difficulties and remain united in our primary and lesser contests. These nerve us for the greater, and ensure success.

BETRAYED!—Some of the very men who encouraged J. W. Pennington to accept the Locofoco nomination for Sheriff, were recently operating against him, in favor of Charles, a volunteer. Ascertaining the rascality of his new allies, Mr. Pennington thwarted their designs by resigning, and refuses to run. This demoralizes the Democracy, and leaves them without any regular candidate. Their choice now lies between the disorganizer who refused to be bound by the decision of their party in the Convention—and Crossgrove. Numbers of the old line Democracy are indignant at the treatment of their nominee, and will not support Mr. Charles, even if they are included in the "bill of sale," (which is said to be $100 and expenses paid.)

☞We have been asked whether Henry Charles, the Volunteer Loco candidate for Sheriff, is the one known as "Red Henry" or "Black Henry," for there are two of the name in Hartley, and if he should happen to be elected, there might be two claimants! Really (the Argus should indicate that) we don't know about the complexion of the candidate, but reckon—by the way some of the Democracy speak against him—he'll be Blue Henry after the election. Whether "Red" "Black" or "Blue," we are assured he is of the most rabid Lecompton stripe, (and yet a pretty clever man!) and has not the temperament, or the fitness for the office, of John Crossgrove.

☞John D. Bogar and John Kessler, the County Auditors who hold over, both reside in New Berlin, and the Loco candidate, Lewis Kessler, is also a citizen of New Berlin. Could n't Mifflinburg have just one Auditor—honest John Reber—or shall New Berlin have all three?

☞For Senate, we have two candidates—a young lawyer, but eighteen months in this district, who run behind his ticket in his own county for Treasurer—was defeated for Senator by his present opponent three years ago—and was nominated for the Erie Railroad Company. The district has been changed by leaving off Sullivan (where Detrick then resided) and taking Union in its place.....Col. Gregg is an iron maker and farmer, who has spent a long life in this his native district, and whose entrance upon public life was contrary to his own inclinations. In a neighboring county, nearly identified with ours, he feels most interested in securing the greatest want of Union and Centre counties—the Spruce Creek Railway; which will NEED his services during the three years to come.

☞In looking over our county officers, we find the Borough of New Berlin has the Prothonotary, the Register & Recorder, and two Auditors; and the Democracy very modestly ask us to give New Berlin also a Representative and the other Auditor! Is n't that a little too much, when Lewisburg has nothing? We were not awarded any candidate, but will do our best for THE CAUSE. Just help elect Crossgrove of Limestone, Pross of Kelly, Harris of East Buffaloe, and Reber of Mifflinburg, and the candidates will represent all parts of the county, and no Township or Borough have more than a proportionate share. This putting all in a few districts, and at either end of the county, is not the fair thing.

☞The fact is notorious, that, months ago, Lawyer Detrick was prophesied to be the nominee of the Locos for Senator in this district, by the power and money of the Sunbury & Erie Railway Company. In order to blunt the force of this conviction—a public impression which will cost Detrick hundreds of votes—his friends have recently started a "stop thief" story that Col. Gregg is the favorite of the Company! This retort makes no headway at Williamsport, the Company's head quarters. We are informed that Col. Gregg put in proposals for a contract on the Road, but received none—he was not the "right stripe!" and is not their favorite nor their first choice. The Railway defeated Geo. A. Frick—the Railway defeated Dr. Strohecker—the Railway nominated Lawyer Detrick—and the Railway will elect him...if it can!

☞Messrs. WAGENSELLER and PATTERSON, the People's candidates for Assembly from this district, have both pledged themselves to oppose the effort of the Penn'a R. R. Company to get rid of their Tonnage Tax. The Company is rich and prosperous, and, until the State Debt is paid, could and should stand a good stiff tax with the rest of us. They got the Main Line at a good bargain for themselves.

NO REPEAL!

—We are also authorized by ANDREW GREGG to pledge him against the proposed Repeal of that Tonnage Tax.

FAIR PLAY!—Most of the opposition in Lewisburg sincerely desire to ignore all former local divisions, and labor for PRINCIPLE. Our party friends in New Berlin and vicinity—we are assured by men, on whom we rely—are now almost unanimously of the same opinion, and will show it by their votes. We shall again trust them, as men of honor and patriotic integrity; if our confidence be misplaced, it will be hard ever to reconcile the two ends. Friends of New Berlin! she is in a minority in a local fight; but the majority have treated her fairly and generously! Now, "honor bright," and a good majority for every man on our ticket! As many for Pross as for Crossgrove—for Wagenseller as for Patterson!

☞Col. Curtin fulfilled all his appointments in this county, and has started for Lycoming. His speech in Lewisburg, Tuesday evening, was pronounced by many the greatest political effort heard here, for two years past, if it was ever equalled. It was a rare treat.

Mr. Patterson was called home by illness, and although expected every day, may still be prevented from paying us another visit, as he desired, from the same cause.

☞The statement has been circulated—and may have been believed—that Mr. Wagenseller last year voted against Mr. Hayes. We are authorized by Col. Wagenseller to state, that the story is false; he voted for Mr. Hayes. (Query, how many of the Roush men who circulate this story, voted for Mr. H.? Did Roush vote for Hayes? or did Roush join the conspiracy to sacrifice his own colleague on the ticket?)

☞Because the Whigs of Union County, in an excess of benevolence, have TWICE elected Samuel Roush, Prothonotary, some of the leech-like Lokys now want us to send his son Charly to the Assembly! This is asking a little too much. Two Locos of the same family in office at the same time, in a Republican county, is jest a little too much! Please excuse us, and wait till the Elder Roush is out! Your modesty is really too strong!

☞Mr. Detrick has been in Union County again, trying to "fix sings." "Little Onion" (as the Lokeys call it above) makes some trouble if she is small—and may again (as of yore) "bring tears to the eyes" of Loky Fokeydom!

☞Every vote for Weidensaul is half a vote for Moyer.

The Bridge and the Steps.

☞The aim and hope of the Locos in this county is to defeat Mr. Pross—one of the best and purest and most worthy men in our county. What member of our party will be persuaded into such a movement, and then endure the shouts and taunts of the Democracy?

The Bridge and Steps story is pretty much exploded, and yet it is whispered abroad wherever it is thought a man can be deceived by it. We republish the correspondence on the subject, which is sufficient, one would think, to satisfy any man willing to be convinced:

LEWISBURG, Sept. 27, 1858.

MR. JAMES PROSS, KELLY TOWNSHIP.

Dear Sir—Having learned that active efforts are being made to injure you by circulating certain false reports, I take the liberty of asking of you replies to the following points:

1. Have you agreed with any man or men, Delegates to the late County Convention or others, in Lewisburg or elsewhere, to endeavor, in case you are elected County Commissioner, to have a new County Bridge erected over Buffaloe creek at any point opposite or adjoining Lewisburg?

2. Do you believe it expedient to erect such a Bridge, in the present state of county finances? and would you make any effort, by the selection of Jurors or otherwise in an official capacity, to favor that project during the term for which you are proposed?

3. Would you, if elected Commissioner, favor the building of steps to the Court House at the expense of the County? or would you carry out the letter and spirit of the Bond and the law, that said building shall be erected "without any cost or tax whatever being imposed upon the taxables?"

Your views are known to many, and these who know you do not doubt your word. But in justice to yourself and your friends generally, it is deemed prudent that your views should be known and published, for the information of every tax payer who desires to vote intelligently.

O. N. WORDEN, for the Co. Committee.

Reply of Mr. Pross.

KELLY TOWNSHIP, Sept. 28, 1858.

O. N. WORDEN, Chairman of the Standing Committee of Union County.

SIR—Yours of the 27th is received, in which you ask me whether I will exert my influence, if elected County Commissioner, to have a County Bridge constructed across Buffaloe Creek, at or near the borough of Lewisburg, and whether I will if elected Commissioner favor the building of the Court House steps, at the expense of the county.

In reply to all your inquiries, I will say that I never was spoken to by any person or persons touching my nomination, or expected since, to favor the construction of the Bridge spoken of, or of the Court House steps. And in the present embarrassed condition of the finances of the county, I deem it imprudent for the county to build any bridge or bridges, or expend any more money for bridge purposes, except to keep them in repair that are already built. In regard to the Court House steps, I think their construction part of the building itself, and consequently the expense must be borne by the building committee of those who signed the bonds, and not by the county.

If the people of the county should see proper to favor me with their votes sufficient to elect me, I should do what is in my power to retrench and reduce the county expenses as much as practicable. JAMES PROSS.

THE BRIDGE.

We are authorized by Col. Slifer, Wm. Frick, and others who are supposed to be interested in the Bridge, to say, that they never had any understanding with Mr. Pross, before or since the nomination, about the Bridge, and have not and do not expect or hope to secure its erection at the County expense.

☞Look at it—Jacob Hummel, Esq., present County Commissioner, lives on the direct road where the Bridge is spoken of, and would use it much more, and his property would be more benefited by it, than Mr. Pross, whose place is not so directly on the road, whose property is much less, and who does not come to town as often. Mr. Pross nominated Esq. HUMMEL for Commissioner in convention at Mifflinburg three years ago, and worked and voted for Esq. Hummel; and so did Messrs. Frick, Slifer, Moore, Sheller, Schreyer, and all the gentlemen who are now "suspicioned" because they are also friends of Mr. Pross. No one then circulated the absurd story that Esq. Hummel was "got up by Pross, Frick, Slifer & Co., on purpose to get a Bridge" there: and yet, Esq. Hummel might then have been charged with it just as properly, and with just as much truth and plausibility, as Mr. Pross now is. The truth is, neither Mr. Pross, Esq. Hummel, or any other man expects a County Bridge there, and Mr. Pross would no more prostitute his office to that end than did his neighbor, Esq. Hummel. Even if he should desire it, he can only petition for it; whether a Commissioner or not. The Grand Jury first order a Bridge built—then the Court confirm it—and the Commissioners have to build it, whether they desire it or not. Whether Pross, Moyer, or Weidensaul is elected Commissioner, therefore, will not affect the building of the bridge an iota. The Commissioners all opposed the building of the late bridge to accommodate a dozen families in Hartley; but they had to build it, against their own convictions of right and expediency.

THE STEPS.

The last Locofoco humbug to divide the Whigs is, that the "Bondholders now want to saddle the building of cut-stone or marble steps to the Court House, at an expense of thousands of dollars, on the County." We believe this charge also to be wholly false—a base lie,—got up for political effect. We have never heard of any such plan. We conversed with several of the most prominent and influential of the gentlemen signing the bond, all of whom declare they have no wish or desire to avoid that last act in "finishing" the work as the bond and the law require. We are authorized by Esq. LINCOLN to say for himself—and we believe also for Commissioner RULE—that they are inflexibly opposed to any such burden being rolled upon the county. Mr. PROSS coincides in their view: so that our Commissioners are "all right on the Steps question."

Esq. Hummel, the retiring Commissioner, is himself one of the Bond-Holders, and, if an enemy were jealous and stubborn enough, he might have accused him, when running, of a desire to shift that Court House cost—be it less or more—from himself upon the county. But we do not believe Esq. Hummel desired to do, or would do, any such thing; he would live up to his word to "finish" the Court House; and so would the other gentlemen, his associates on the obligation. He would do just as Mr. Pross pledges himself to do; and every one who knows Mr. Pross knows him to be an upright, a fair, and as firm a man as Esq. Hummel.

☞But, neither Mr. Weidensaul nor Mr. Moyer is committed—as is Pross—against this "enormous expense." They may be in favor of it for aught that appears to the contrary. If little suspicious appearances are to govern, we might charge that Mr. Weidensaul was running expressly to get that Steps Tax upon the county. Mr. WEIDENSAUL IS ALSO ONE OF THE BOND HOLDERS—consequently (one might argue) deeply interested in throwing that great cost upon the county.

☞Several of his supporters are Bond Holders (witness Saml. S. Barton, going with Weidensaul's team, to persuade Mr. Moyer to resign in Weidensaul's favor.) This is a much stronger string of suspicious facts, than exists against Mr. Pross. And Mr. Pross has publicly committed himself against it, while Moyer and Weidensaul have not! Which is the safer man—Pross, who is not a Bond Holder, and whose interest is to keep off the tax—or Weidensaul, whose interest is to get the cost from his own shoulders?

"Nigger! NIGGER! NIGGER!"—Of a very lugubrious singer it was said, "He knows only two tunes—one is Old Hundred, and the other is 'nu'" Of our neighbor, the organ grinder of the Argus, it may also be said (judging by his paper)—he seems to have but two ideas—one is Niggerism and the other is 'nu.' Most of his profound contemplations seem to be on the dainty theme of Nigredom. No matter what his pen starts with, it ends with the gentlemen from Ethiopia. While others labor to enlarge the area of the White Man's domains, his great anxiety is to save the Union by aiding the fancy men who breed darkies, in extending the institution of Negro Slavery everywhere. While some would prefer the elevation of an unfortunate race, he toils to degrade and to grind them down, and then would curse them because they are down. There are no colored brethren in his church; his Heaven includes no Negroes; his Bible is down on all but the white folks. His political creed is founded on the tincture of skins and the length of heels. While we seek to enhance the wages of free White labor by a Tariff, his policy tends to foster unpaid and pauper labor. While we go with the North for White Liberty, he goes with the South for Black Slavery. Every topic with him has an inky tinge. Niggers seem to catch his eye at morning, noon and night. Asleep or awake, Congo's tawny sons and daughters haunt his perplexed brain. If his mind wanders at breakfast, and he is asked what he will be helped to? "NIGGER!" is his reply. In distressing "original" verse, or hackneyed "originaler" prose, the nightmare of Niggerism weighs upon his burdened mind, and stains his genius with a most sombre, solemncholy hue. For the defence of Niggerdom in its most oppressive and repulsive forms—Oppression and Amalgamation, or Slavery—his mighty powers are taxed from time to time. Really, we pity the chap. This "Niggerism" seems to chase him as the "snakes" do the man with the mania potu. If he should unfortunately lose his reason in his gigantic contests with these "powers of darkness," no doubt the cause assigned at the Asylum would be—"Ultra Niggerism—White at that!" And if his readers—sick of his stupid, everlasting, wishy washy twaddle about "Niggerism," should allow the Argus to die again some dark day, the verdict of the Coroner's Jury would surely be—"Died in the wool, a martyr to its own Niggerism!"

Spilt Milk—Very Salt Tears Wasted!

For some weeks past, the Democratic Division men in this end of the county have been "waxing valiant in fighting" the old Division question over again. Scores of them—to gain some votes for Mr. Pennington—openly declared they would "never—no, never vote for an Anti-Division man—"the rascals that cheated us all so last fall"—they would never trust them again with a pile of grindstones uncounted," &c. &c.

Mr. Pennington—for whom all this virtuous indignation was manufactured—is choked off the ticket by some of his new bed-fellows; and where go the Division Democrats find themselves? Every one of their candidates is an Anti-Division man—Roush, Moyer, Charles and Kessler!!! all, rabid, out-and out Anti-Divisionists. Where, now, is the pent-up wrath of these disinterested sympathizers? What will be the result of their threats and protestations? How many votes will be cast for a full Anti-Division ticket by indignant, inconsolable, Democratic Divisionists?

Our party, on the contrary, seek to "forget and forgive" all past issues. It does no good to keep up animosity, among neighbors, about settled questions. Half our candidates were on one side of the Division question, and half on the other. All we have to do, is, like a band of brothers to GO TO WORK AND ELECT THEM ALL.—CROSSGROVE, PROSS, HARRIS and REBER!

A Lecompton Test.

Mr. MOYER, one of the Buchanan candidates for Commissioner, is represented as a right or wrong Lecompton man—one of the few who still believe that "the Whigs are the same as the Tories of the Revolution," and Republicans and Whigs are the same thing. (It is years since we heard the Whigs reviled as Tories, but this Lecomptonite is one of those innocent ones who really believe that "bugaboo" story, and hasn't heard that the Whigs are such very good fellows!)

Mr. WEIDENSAUL, the other Buchanan candidate, last Spring signed the Anti-Lecompton remonstrance—embracing the names of a majority of the Democrats of Lewisburg—against the efforts of Crotzer and three or four others, to represent the Union county Democracy as favoring Buchanan's Kansas policy.

☞Here is one good test of the party feeling on that subject. Let the Anti-Buchanan men all stand by their own man, (Pross) and the Democrats vote for Moyer or Weidensaul, according as they approve or disapprove the President's Kansas policy, and thus fairly settle the disputed point as to which is the strongest party in the county.

Mr. Buchanan's late Pledges.

U. S. Senator Brown, of Mississippi, recently delivered a speech at Vicksburg, in the course of which he said that he called on the President before he left Washington, and Mr. Buchanan assured him in the most positive and unequivocal terms that he would appoint no man to office who held the opinion that Kansas ought to be admitted before she has a population which would entitle her to a Representative in Congress, (according to the terms of the English Conference Bill,) and that he would decapitate every office-holder who expressed such a belief. Senator Brown went on to state that he regarded this as a solemn pledge on the part of Mr. Buchanan, and although he considered him "a little weak in the back," he believed he would stick up to it. Whenever he (Senator Brown) plighted his faith to any man, he always stuck to it, and he intended to hold Mr. Buchanan to his declaration.

☞Ex-Gov. Pollock and Hon. James H. Campbell will address the people at Milton, this (Friday) evening, on political subjects.
