Freedom, national; Slavery, sectional!

STATE CONVENTION.

The citizens of Philadelphia and the several counties of this Commonwealth attached to the People's party, and all others who are opposed to the unwise and extravagant measures of the National Administration, are requested to send delegates, equal in number to their representation in the General Assembly, to a Convention to be held at HARRISBURG ON WEDNESDAY THE 8TH OF JUNE, 1859, to nominate candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General, to be voted for at the General Election in next October.

HENRY M. FULLER, Chairman.
WM. B. MANN, Secretary.

New England, Purified!

Not one Pro-Slavery Man in either branch of Congress in any of the six Eastern States.

RHODE ISLAND IS ERECT!

There are no happier, more prosperous, better educated, more refined, or truer model republics in the wide world than those commonly called "New England." Take out the hundreds of paid pensioners of the General Government, and their dupes, the thousands of ignorant Irish and other foreigners who have of late years collected in their towns, the Free Trade Slavery power could make no more show in New England than the Tories did in the Revolution. Vermont and Rhode Island have the least of this foreign element, and are the staunchest Republican States. The Election in the latter State, on Wednesday of last week, resulted in the choice of SAMUEL G. TURNER, Governor.

JNO R. BARTLETT, Secretary of State.
JAS B. KIMBALL, Attorney General.

No choice for the other State Officers, the Opposition having two candidates, but as the Legislature (which will elect) is overwhelmingly Anti-Administration, there will be no loss there!

The choice for Congressman in the Eastern District was enlivened by having two candidates on the right side. The vote stands—

ROBINSON	3,797	6,219
DAVIS	2,422
Arnold, Democrat		1,522
Rep. maj. only		4,687

In the Western District, there was not much of a contest. The vote stood

BRAYTON, Rep.	2,946
Anthony, Dem.	700
Only a maj. of	2,246

ALL HAIL, RHODE ISLAND! the first Republic on earth which inaugurated as a PRINCIPLE of government, the RIGHT of freedom of religion, not as a "toleration," but as a God-given boon, inalienable as the right to life itself.—In Rhode Island, also, was started the first Cotton Manufactory in the United States.—Land of Roger Williams! of Nathaniel Greene! of Oliver Hazard Perry! of William Ellery Channing! of Revolutionary renown, and of sterling men. Small she is in territory, yet a mighty heart animates her, and her influence and her example are felt wherever true Republicanism and soul-liberty extend. In the words of CLARKE—

"Mid rocks and sands,
With spots of cultured earth,
Rhode Island stands,
Proud of her place of birth.

She's mother of a race
Of sturdy sons and daughters,
At the wifely and the manly place—
The nursery, and on the waters.

Happy Rhode-Island! hail,
Hail to thy daughters' charms!
Their cradle and their milking pail,
Thy villages broidered with green farms,
Thy white spires, pointing thought above,
Thy vales of bloom, and silver streams,
Thy width of mind and warmth of heart—
All—all that strangers see and love,
That brighten on their lonely dreams
When they and thee are doomed to part!

—This Election completes the WEEDING OUT of New England—drives the last nail into the coffin of Locofocoism, there—leaves not one out of her 12 Senators and 35 Congressmen—47 in all—who is not in favor of Free Soil and Free Labor! So let the Ball of Freedom roll on, until the whole North is relieved from the disgrace of being misrepresented by traitors and doughfaces.

It is to be regretted that our party is becoming so strong in New England that they can so often afford to run double setts of candidates, for the habit may work mischief in future.

"Firm, united let us be Rallying 'round our Liberty!"

FROM HARRISBURG.

The supplement to the Lewisburg Building Association act is signed by the Governor.

The divorce application of Mrs. Fry, met a most decided defeat—only 8 voting for it in the House. Seven other applications in the House for a divorce, were defeated.

The Quinn case, to remove the venue from Union to Northumberland county, came up and passed the House and second reading in Senate.

A bill passed House (and we suppose Senate) to confirm the late election in Union Tp., Union Co., and to fix the place of holding the same.

A bill passed requiring road supervisors and poor overseers in Northumberland county to give security.

The Legislature probably adjourned yesterday—making a session of 100 days, for which they voted themselves $700—being $7 per day and the extras.

BOB TYLER has already called together his Committee, in whose name he has published a long Address begging the dear Democracy to avoid the Free State Convention as they would "the poison of the stiletto of the assassin!" It is a pathetic, rhetorical affair, and foreshadows a great many good things before election.

APRIL 12.—There is a large attend- preparatory to the Democratic State Convention, to morrow. The use of the Hall of the House has been granted to the Convention.

FROM WASHINGTON.

"J. B." is wondering and vexed that the returns from all the Free State Elections and Missouri are against him yet, and can not understand why the people think differently from himself and the Government.—The first election return for a Convention in Kansas, although it includes only Leavenworth, looks as though Kansas was determined to come in—as Oregon did—with less than 93,000 population.

Lord Lyons, the new British Minister, has arrived and been cordially received by our Government at Washington.

It is thought O. Barrett of Harrisburg—not a Printer by trade—will be appointed Superintendent of the U. S. Printing, in place of Geo. W. Bowman, who has resigned to take charge of the "Constitution"—the new paper founded upon the ruins of the "Union" (which concern J. B. & Co. recently purchased.)

☞The Sickles Jury having been made up on Wednesday of last week, the trial proceeded (the prosecution confining itself to the one fact of the killing of Key by Sickles) and closed on Friday. Saturday and Monday, Mr. Graham, for the defence, made an elaborate opening speech, arguing that the offence of Key was—both according to Scripture and Shakspeare—worthy of death; referred to numerous precedents where men had slain the seducer of sisters and others and were acquitted, and that the betrayer of the wife was one much more culpable; arguing also that the transport of rage into which Sickles was thrown was sufficient to make the case at worst a man-slaughter only. The first witness called, to rebut any presumptions of malice, testified to the long continued friendship of Key and Sickles, and that the former dined at the house of the latter only the week before the homicide. Robert J. Walker, a servant girl of Sickles, and others, testified to the agony, the wailings of despair amounting almost to perfect phrenzy, which Sickles exhibited during the half day preceding his fatal assault. An attempt to introduce Mrs. Sickles' written confession of her guilt, was undecided before the Court at our latest advices. The case will probably occupy another week.

The next Pennsylvania State Fair is to be held on the Powelton Grounds, at Philadelphia. Messrs. D. Taggart and A. O. Heister, President and Secretary of the Society, are now in Philadelphia, making the necessary arrangements.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A few evenings ago a railroad engineer, named Lord, was at a dance near Port Carbon, Pa., when a fight occurred, in the course of which he was struck upon the head. He then ran off, and continued running until he fell from exhaustion, and died in a few minutes.

Bellefonte papers speak of large contemplated internal improvements there and at Milesburg. Messrs. Valentines have erected at their forge the first steam engine whose screech has been heard in that portion of Centre county. The erection of a market house is strongly urged in Bellefonte. They expect the Lock Haven & Tyrone Railway finished in July.

The dwelling of David Yon, of Freedom township, Blair county, with all its contents, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last. Mr. Y. and his family barely escaped with their lives. The fire was the result of a defective stove pipe.

Mr. Peter Gray, residing near Muncy, received a severe injury to one of his eyes, a few days since. While chopping wood a piece of pine knot flew from the axe and struck the eye with such force, and inflicted so much of a wound, that it is feared the sight has been destroyed.

Twenty-four rafts escaped over the dam at Lock Haven, during a recent freshet, and were completely wrecked. The high water on Larry's Creek was unusually severe in its effects, carrying away dams, bridges, and large quantities of timber.

The receipts of the Cattawissa Road are on the increase. The net returns for February last were $19,685 52, which is $2,923 38 more than for February, 1858.

Christopher Campbell has a specimen of iron ore found on his farm in Rush township, about five miles from Danville. It is said to be a rich article, and the deposit is quite extensive.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided that the legal signification of the term "orphan," is a child who has no father.

On Tuesday fortnight, a fire consumed the carriage manufactory of Samuel Sickles, in Sunbury, and with it some carriages, tools, and patterns. The fire originated on the second floor from a stove-pipe.

PAYING.—A verdict of $1,250 has been obtained against W. C. Braley, of Erie, Pa., for the destruction of the Constitution newspaper office during the "railroad war" at that place in the Spring of 1856.

In the Presbyterian Church of Middle Spring, Pa., on Sabbath, ANDREW FRAZER, Esq., one of our most venerable and esteemed church members breathed his last, sitting in his own pew, with his eye upon his pastor. From perfect health his spirit fled in almost the twinkling of an eye.

This morning our rural friends demanded three and four shillings for butter, and many persons were glad to obtain supplies at the latter price.—Harrisburg Telegraph, 6th inst.

A young fellow who was confined in limbo at Bellefonte lately proposed to settle his little difficulty by marrying his frail damsel, and the parties forthwith repaired to the Catholic church, but on hearing that he was to love, honor, cherish, protect, &c., her only, drew in his horns and answered "No, sir, not with my consent—not guilty;" and went back into the custody of the sheriff.

Gen. Adam Diller, a veteran of the war of 1812, died at his residence in Philadelphia, on Saturday, aged sixty years. He was Adjutant General of the State for many years, and held the post of storekeeper at the Navy Yard for five years.

"Harris' Park," to contain about one acre of ground surrounding the grave of John Harris, is shortly to be enclosed in Harrisburg.

A goose, a few days since, attempted to fly over the barn of Robert Pollock, of Perry township, Clarion county, Pa., when the wind drove it upon the lightning rod, which penetrated its neck and killed it instantly.

The Chambersburg Valley Spirit says Forney has issued his manifesto to his associate "cut-throats" to assemble at Harrisburg on the 13th. Democrats are getting quite complimentary to each other.

The artesian well of Mr. Lauer, in Reading, Pa., has reached the depth of 500 feet. The rock penetrated is still limestone, mixed with horn blende, carbonate of lime, and a trifle of sulphur.

Richard Sneath notifies the public that he will pay no debts of his eloped wife's contracting. The Shirleysburg Herald says "his avowal may be implicitly relied on; his aversion to paying debts being so strong as to disincline him to pay those even of his own contracting."

In Union Tp., Mifflin Co., a son of Jonathan K. Zook, aged 2½ years, got hold of some ratsbane that had been laid away as its mother thought carefully, and ate enough to cause its death.

A child of Gil. Hogle, of Lewistown, aged about three or four years, was fatally burnt on Friday evening last, by its clothes taking fire while playing about the stove. It survived its injuries but a few hours, during which it presented a heart-rending spectacle and by its piteous cries for "water" drew tears from many eyes.

A lad named Edward Weaver, died at Harrisburg, on Thursday evening last, of hydrophobia. He was bitten by a dog about nine weeks ago. The Telegraph describes the lad's sufferings as intense.

A son of Uriah Kline of Derry township, Mifflin county, while playing with a dog on Sunday last, inadvertently made a motion with his hand towards another who was present; the savage animal flew at the boy, and seizing him near the eye tore the flesh down his nose. He will probably survive his injuries, but retain the marks of the brute for life.

FIRE.—A fire occurred in Bellefonte, on Thursday evening, which entirely destroyed the law office of James M'Manus, Esq. The roof of the office took fire by sparks from an adjoining chimney. The office contained an extensive library and many valuable papers, most of which were saved by the efforts of our citizens. The wind being very high at the time, the houses of Messrs. Wilson, Curtin, M'Manus and Green, took fire by sparks blown from the burning building, but fortunately the flames were extinguished before much injury was done, except to the house of Mr. Wilson, which was considerably damaged by the fire, and more by the water and mud carried in by the excited crowd. We have been at fires before, but never did we see so much good sense and courage displayed by the fair sex; instead of running, screaming, and wringing their hands as is generally the case, those belonging to the burning and endangered buildings behaved perfectly well, and aided whenever opportunity afforded in impeding the progress of the flames. We did not learn the amount of the loss sustained by Mr. McManus.—Democrat.

At a horse sale in Perry county, a kicking mare brought the lowest price, $62,25. Good horses were sold from $72 to $235.

A man named Finnicle was stabbed in a drunken spree at Duncannon, Perry county, last week, by another named McMurray, and died on the following day.

James M'Cormick, a fireman on the "Blazing Star" engine, was struck by a plug of a water tank near Harrisburg last week, and killed.

On Tuesday, the 29th ult., the public house of A. P. Parris, at the Forks of Pine Creek, in Cummings township, was entirely consumed by fire, together with a large amount of furniture, provisions, &c. The flames soon communicated with the residence and store room of Mr. James S. Harris, which were also rapidly destroyed. The whole property was insured to the amount of two thousand dollars, in the West Branch Insurance Company, at Lock Haven. The total damage is estimated at about seven thousand dollars.

Hon. William H. Seward, was recently on a visit to Harrisburg, and dined with Senator Cameron and several members of the Legislature. He, also, visited both Houses of the Legislature, and was very cordially received. His visit was one entirely of a social character.

Rev. E. A. Sharretts, late Pastor of the Evan. Luth. Church of Bloomsburg, has resigned his charge and moved on a Farm in Mount Pleasant. His failing health seemed to make this change desirable. He will be succeeded by Rev. Jonathan Dimm, of Aaronsburg, Centre county.

About twenty of the Democratic papers in Pennsylvania openly defend Gov. Packer from the assaults of the Buchanan's office-holder's convention.

A young man of Selinsgrove, was arrested on Tuesday night of last week, for committing an assault and battery on one of the policemen. He had a hearing before Burgess Colsher, and held to bail in the sum of $200 for his appearance at Court.

The Episcopal Chapel in Bloomsburg was struck by lightning during the heavy thunder shower on Monday evening, 11th inst. The damage was slight.

The Storehouse of Messrs. B. & F. J. Schoch, of Selinsgrove, was entered on Wednesday night a week, and about fifty pounds of bacon extracted therefrom.

A Lancaster paper says there were 1300 carriages came in from the country to the city on the great money market day—1st of April—and estimates that the exchanges of cash made there on that day amounted to One Million of Dollars.

The course pursued by the Lecture Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association of Bloomsburg, we think is a commendable one—that of mainly relying upon Home talent. It not only tends to bring out and develope talents and abilities that were unknown to exist, but it secures Lectures, in nine cases out of ten, much more practical than is heard from men "with a reputation."

A man lately died in Chester county, Pa., and left a family of children, whose united weight is one ton (2000 lbs.) Attorney General Knox, in reply to a note from the Auditor General of the State, has decided that venders of merchandise must take out a license, whether their annual sales amount to a thousand dollars or otherwise.

A man named Chase has undertaken to establish a Buchanan paper in Bradford county. He will have hard sledding, as a dozen predecessors did who failed.

The Harrisburg Cotton Mill is again in operation.

On Friday of last week, the barn of widow Watt, in West Perry township, Snyder county, and a stable near Richfield, were entirely consumed by fire. It is supposed to have been the work of an insane man, who was accordingly committed to the Snyder county jail.

Daniel Webster, alias Dangerfield, who was so brutally hurried away from Harrisburg on charge of being a slave, was freed, even by a Slave Commissioner—a sure sign of the returning spirit of freedom in our land. The interest taken in his defence, day and night, and the thousands who surrounded the place of examination, and bore him off in triumph on his acquittal, was unprecedented. He was doubtless a slave, and has gone to Canada. Others also have left Harrisburg, and it is rumored that other colored persons in Harrisburg have been stolen and sold into Slavery.

Hon. John C. Knox is denounced as a "Black Republican" by the Buchanan papers. If they drive over to our side all the Anti Lecompton Democrats, Pennsylvania will give 75,000 Republican majority for President.

The Volette says they can not count a dozen J. B. Democrats in Jersey Shore.

Important to Farmers & Gardeners.

THE subscriber having recently traveled much in this and adjoining States, and seen the great failures in Grain and Garden Vegetables, has concluded that a CHANGE OF SEEDS is absolutely necessary; this also is the opinion of the best Agriculturists generally. I have therefore imported (or made arrangements for) quite a variety of NEW Seeds, such as have been found best suited to our soil and climate at this time. The following are specimens of new varieties, and their yield per acre, now on hand for sale at my residence in Mifflinburg, Union Co., Pa.:

	Yield per Acre
White English Mediterranean Wheat, very early as the Early English Dykemen Potatoes	60

Persons wishing either of the above, will please leave their orders as early as possible, that I may be able to supply them all.

Those who wish to procure any of the following varieties, (with directions how to cultivate) will call and examine the specimens which I shall green the coming season, and leave their orders as soon as may be convenient:

	Yield per Acre
White Egyptian Spring Rye, very early	40
Roman or Winter Rye	45
Nepaul Beardless Barley	50
White Oats, weighing 45 lbs. per bushel	75
Imp. King Philip Corn, long ears, ripens in 60 days, yields	50
Washington Potatoes, ripe in 90 days later do	80
Honey Locust Ornamental Shade, produces 20 to 30 bushel seed & 6 to 10 tons fine hay per acre, mowed twice.
Applejon Melon, weighs 50 lbs. green skin striped, inside with
Outer, produces large quantities per acre.	50
Strawberry Watermelon, very large, 2000 per acre.

Also other kinds of Garden Vegetables. These seeds have been carefully selected from different places, and it is thought will be found advantageous to Gardeners and Farmers. Call and see First come, first served.
