UNEXAGERATED TESTIMONY:—READ IT.—Having suffered long, and often very severely, with a painful weakness of Nerves, and as a means of relief have made use of nervines of various kinds, with more or less benefit at the time. Laterly, however, my health having become worse, and my condition, owing to the increased weakness of my nerves, much more painful and distressing, I have had recourse to CARTERS' NERVE PILLS, and I can truly say that they have done me more good than anything else that I have ever used, for the condition in which I then was. They not only quieted and strengthened my nerves, but their use has relieved me of a peculiar feeling of faintness or goneness, which at times distressed and weakened me very much. I can therefore, from my own experience, most conscientiously and cheerfully recommend the use of these Pills to any person troubled as I was.

EVELINE BRACK

Green Tp., Erie Co., Jan. 7, 1860.

A COMFORTABLE DISCOVERY.—The suffering of the American People, especially the young and middle aged—with Nervous disorders, such as Neuralgia, Nervous Headache, Wakefulness, Weakness, Despondency, &c., is such, as to awaken sympathy and call loudly for some counteracting agent, something prompt, safe, and convenient, by which the intensity of these attacks may be mitigated, and the subject of torture rescued from their misery. From what we have heard of Carter's Nerve Pills, and from our knowledge of the proprietors, we cannot but regard them as just the Remedy for these evils, and we have not a doubt but that their circulation throughout the country will be a speedy deliverance to many a subject of these sufferings and distress. We therefore advise all such to make trial of them, especially as they can do so for the trifling sum of TWENTY FIVE CENTS. 26 tf

IT CURES too many COMPLAINTS. I would have far more confidence in it, if instead of professing to cure nearly every disease, it was recommended for but one or two. Such is the charge frequently made against Carter's Extract of Smart Weed, by persons who have been urged by their friends to make use of it in some case of disease. But if this is a reason for not using it who is to blame for it? certainly not the proprietors, for when first put up by them they recommended it merely as a stimulant, and ready remedy with which to warm up the system, open the pores of the skin, and throw off cold, prevent Fever and the like, and as a good Liniment or External application in cases of Neuralgia, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, and other pains, and never [illegible] recommending it for such complaints as Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Liver and Kidney Complaints, [illegible], Chronic Diarrhea, etc., etc., diseases for which it is now successfully and extensively used. But when once it got into a family, the success that followed its use in one case, led to a trial of it in others, and thus it passed from one individual to another, and from one family and neighborhood to another, until it has got voluntary recommendations for almost every disease, and is fast finding a place in every family throughout the country. What better evidence could be given in favor of any medicine than recommendations obtained in this way. Let those that lack confidence in this Extract give it a fair trial in some one disease, and then they can judge [illegible] of its value. 2w29

Boilers and Appendages for the United States Steamer Michigan, at Erie, Pa.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Bureau of Construction, Equipment, and Repairs,
December 15, 1859.

SEALED PROPOSITIONS will be received by this Bureau until the 18th day of January next for two tubular boilers and the following appendages for the United States Steamer Michigan, to be delivered on board the vessel in the harbor of Erie, Penn., on or before the 10th day of June next: Six (6) green sand iron castings, to be fitted in the boiler furnaces for grate and bridge wall supporters; one smoke-pipe, in two pieces, fifty-one (51) inches diameter, of Nos. 10, 12 and 14 sheet iron, one piece five feet long, with caps and cleets for securing it to the steam drums, the other piece twenty-seven feet long, the bands and eye-bolts of old pipe to be fitted and fastened on the new; two cast-iron safety valves and seats fitted therein, with wrought-iron levers and cast-iron weights; one gun metal double branch steam pipe to connect main steam pipe of engines with steam drums of boilers, (this casting will weigh about 560 pounds,) with one large and two small flanches, the former to be faced and fitted to steam drums of boilers, all the flanches to have the bolt-holes accurately drilled; one blow-off pipe, of 4 pounds copper, to connect both safety-valve chests to the pipe leading into wheel-house, with four gun metal flanches, faced, bored, and bolt holes drilled, one hundred and fifty ¾-inch and one hundred and fifty ⅝-inch iron joint bolts.

Placing in lathe and reboring the piston of starboard cylinder, furnishing and fitting thereto a new wrought-iron piston-rod, twenty new piston follower-bolts and nuts of the same dimensions as those now in use. Reboring in place (true with shaft journals) the crank-pin holes of centre shaft cranks and fitting two new wrought-iron crank-pins to the same; one set of main cross-head brasses; one set of air-pump link brasses, one set of air-pump link connection brasses; one set of air-pump cross-head bushings, (brass.) The metal of the above brasses to be composed of 14 parts of best banca tin and 86 parts of refined copper, bored and plained to fit accurately their respective rods and pins. The gun-metal pipe and flanches to be made of 12 parts of copper and one of tin. The boilers to be made of the best quality of charcoal bloom boiler plate, tube sheets to be one-half (½) inch, water bottoms and ash pits three-eighths (⅜) inch, shells five-sixteenths (5-16) of an inch in thickness. The crowns and sides of shells to be stiffened by T iron, from which the braces are to lead, which are to be accurately adjusted, so that when subjected to the steam pressure the tension upon all will be alike. The tube sheets to be drilled and reamed accurately to a guage, and in setting the tubes they are to be expanded on both sides of the tube sheets.

The boilers will be each nine feet two inches wide in front by nine feet six inches high and fifteen feet eight inches in length, furnished with the necessary man and hand hole plates, furnace, flue and damper doors, lugs for front grate-bearers and for securing boilers to the ship, to be tested in the factory when completed at a hydrostatic pressure of forty (40) pounds per square inch, and when on board in their place and the connections made to be tested by a steam pressure of thirty (30) pounds per square inch.

The brass tubes to be furnished by the Department and to be set up by the contractor, the Department being responsible for all tubes condemned from their defect, and the contractor for all condemned from bad workmanship.

The price of boilers to be per pound finished less the weight of the tubes. Cast-iron will only be used for furnace doors and mountings, man hole, and man-hole plates, and stay thimbles.

The whole work to be done in the best manner and to be subject to the inspection and approval of such persons as the Department may appoint, who will have the right to reject any part of the work or material in any stage of progress.

Drawings of the boilers will be furnished steam engine manufacturing establishments who intend bidding, on application to the Bureau of Construction.

Payment will be made on the boilers for one-third their estimated amount when they are half completed, one-third when they are completed and tested satisfactorily by hydrostatic pressure, delivered and properly placed on board the vessel, and the remaining sum that may be due to be paid when they are connected to the engines and tested satisfactorily by steam pressure.

The remainder of the work will be paid for when it is properly executed and delivered on board of the vessel satisfactory to the superintending engineer officer.

Bidders will be particular in stating the prices and the time within which they propose to complete and deliver the work, and the time must not exceed the 10th day of June next.

It will promptly lessen the Cough and shorten its course one-half from its ordinary tedious duration For removing irritation from the Lungs and air passages, it is unequalled in its operation—its use invigorates the pulmonary organs and greatly strengthens the voice, thereby enabling many people to endure greater exposure without serious results. Read the following evidence from a host of Erie county witnesses who have used this medicine, such testimony speaks for itself

We, the undersigned citizens of Erie City and vicinity, have used Dr. P HALL'S Celebrated Cough Remedy with great success, in curing diseases of the Throat and Lungs, and take pleasure in recommending its use to the afflicted as a speedy and effectual remedy, full worthy of public confidence

Stranbro's Patent Seed Sower!

FOR sowing Clover, Timothy, Millet and Hungarian Grass Seeds, also, Wheat, Barley and nearly all kinds of Grain, Plaster and Lime. There is also an attachment to this machine for sowing in rows, Rut Baga, Carrot, Onion, Beet and Sugar Cane Seeds.

These Machines have now been before the Farmers of Michigan nearly two years, and have been tested by more than two hundred Farmers; all of whom are willing to give strong certificates in their favor.

This improvement in Seed Sowing consists in the use of a cord or small rope in combination with tubes or bridges, which so protect the cord from the weight of the seed that it works without friction and with much ease, causing no grinding, and the seed is discharged without receiving any injury.

There is no danger of clogging, as is the case with other Seed Sowers, and they can be guaged so as to sow any desired quantity Wind does not affect the even distribution of the seed; and, in case of rain, the seed is well protected in the box by the cover

Reference can be made to nearly two hundred Farmers; but we will select only a few of the best and most reliable who have used them: F. W. Fairman, Homer Johnson, Rufus Thayer, John Allen, W Congdon, all of Plymouth Mich.; Wm. Fuller, Justin Kellogg, Pittsfield, Mich.;—Alonzo Olds, Hon Kingsley S. Bingham, Hon H. N. Butterfield, Dr. Wells, Green Oak, Mich.

☞ This Machine took the first premium at the Michigan State Fair for the year 1859, and also at several County Fairs in the same State.

Price only $15 00 for the Combined Machine. All Machines warranted to give satisfaction, and may be returned after a reasonable time if they do not prove so, and the money will be refunded. A few Town and County Rights for sale in the state of Pennsylvania. Address,
