LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Christmas next Saturday.

The river has been frozen over in many places.

A merry Christmas and a happy New Year to all.

And now rejoice, the shortest day of the year is past.

Chester county has had twelve murders within four years.

Levi Goshen is putting up a house on South Third Street.

Horningtown Sunday School is preparing to decorate a Christmas Tree on Friday evening.

Abraham Guss, Jr., of Milford township, has choice chestnut rails for sale.

Go see the Christmas Tree, in the Lutheran Church on Christmas evening.

Carlisle has a steer that weighs 5,000 lbs. His owners expect to take him to the Centennial.

The M. E. Sunday School will hold a Jubilee and decorate their Christmas Tree on Christmas eve.

A number of wild dogs, that escaped shooting last summer, are roaming about in the vicinity of town.

Muddy Run school House took fire from the stove-pipe last Friday at noon. A boy—a scholar—put the fire out.

The Lutheran Sunday School Christmas Jubilee will take place on the evening of Christmas day instead of on Christmas eve.

Wheat fields, or fields of wheat impress one unfavorably now. The late severe weather is the cause of the unfavorable appearance.

The finest flavored Candies, and handsomest Toys for Holiday presents are to be found among the large stock that Books has just received from the city.

A buggy and a two-horse wagon collied on Main street last Monday. The wagon came out of the collision all right. The buggy came out with a broken axle tree.

Philadelphia Grain Market.—Wheat $1.20 to1.40. Corn, old, 72c; new 58to64c.—Eggs 30to32c Butter 28to34c. Cattle 3to 8c per lb., gross; Hogs 10½to11½c per lb. Sheep 4½to5c per lb.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will issue excursion tickets for the Holiday season, commencing the issue on the 23d inst., and continuing the same every day thereafter until the 1st day of January, 1876.

Thieves went through Dundore's Stove and Tinware Store some nights ago. They gained an entrance by the front door to the cellar, and left the building by the back door of the store room. Some eighty cents were stolen out of a drawer.

During the storm on Monday week a straw stack was blown over by the wind, on the farm of Mr. Savorrow Miller, about two miles north of Oriental, this county, covering up a valuable cow, which was smothered before she could be extricated.

The weather reporter has not stated or announced a longer period of wind than that which prevailed, well say from last Saturday back into the past an indefinite number of days. Who said "it will snow after the wind falls"? That rules out another weather prophet. A thaw set in on Tuesday night.

An exchange says: As the season for wearing over-shoes is at hand, the following recipe for mending rubbers will prove timely and be worth inserting in your memorandum book: To mend rubber boots, cut up some pure rubber in very small pieces and dissolve in benzine. Put a patch of rubber over the place to be mended, and stick it fast with the solution.

"Those of our readers who visit Philadelphia should go and see the Great Clothing Emporium of Wanamaker & Brown, corner of Sixth and Market streets. It is worth a visit. If you wish a suit of clothes, you can save the amount of your fare by buying it there. It is probably the most complete clothing establishment in the world. Goods can be returned (if unworn), and money refunded.

The Lewistown Gazette says: "The Mifflintown Sentinel says Colonel Alexander of Lewistown was in attendance at court there." The Gazette is hereby informed that the Sentinel published nothing concerning Colonel Alexander or any other Alexander, and would suggest that the editor of the Gazette put on his spectacles the next time he reads proof, so that he puts the right names in the right places.

We are informed by the Commissioners that the Court House expenses, including the expenses attending the building of the house on the northeast corner of Court House square, will not quite amount to sixty-one thousand dollars ($61,000). The next Auditors' Report will doubtless be fully itemized. Many Democrats and Republicans predicted that the expenses would run up to one hundred thousand dollars. It is a gratification to know that their calculation was not correct, and that so such outrage was perpetrated.

BY-AND-BY.

BY MRS. PRESTON.

What will it matter by-and-by,
Whether my path below was bright,
Whether it wound through dark or light,
Under a gray or golden sky,
When I look back on it by-and-by?

What will it matter by-and-by,
Whether, unhelped, I toiled alone,
Dashing my foot against a stone,
Missing the charge of the angel nigh,
Bidding me think of the by-and-by?

What will it matter by-and-by,
Whether with dancing Joy I went
Down through the years with a gay content
Never believing,—nay, not I,
Tears would be sweeter by-and by?

What will it matter by-and-by,
Whether with cheek to cheek I've lain
Close by the pallid angel, Pain,
Soothing myself through sob and sigh,
——"And will be elsewise, by-and-by!"

What will it matter—Naught, if I
Only am sure the way I've trod,
Gloomy or gladdened, leads to God,
Questioning not of the how, the why,
If I but reach Him by and-by.

What will I care for the unshared sigh,
If, in my fear of lapse or fall,
Close I have clung to Christ through all,
Mindless how rough the road might lie,
Sure He will smoothen it by-and-by.

What will it matter by-and-by?
Nothing but this:—That Joy or Pain
Lifted me skyward—helped to gain,
Whether through rack, or smile, or sigh,
Heaven—Home—All in All,—by-and-by!

NO STRIPED STOCKINGS.

My boots are new, my garters too,
My pull-back's fit is splendid,
For thanks to pins, my dress begins
Just where Eve's costume ended.

But how can I the world defy
Unless my hose is striped?
For as I go, each dust doth show
My termination biped.

Oh! dainty foot! gaiter foot!
To piety you are shocking,
I ne'er can go to church, for oh!
I've no gay striped stockings!

PERSONAL.—Holmes Dysinger, a former teacher in the common schools of this place, whom nearly all the scholars heartily liked, is home on vacation from Pennsylvania College.

D. A. Hartman, former principal of the schools of this borough, sojourned among his friends in this borough last week.

Theorus Garman was married to Miss Fances Spyker, last Thursday. The best wishes of many friends attend them as they journey through the pleasant seas of the honey-moon voyage, and earnest prayers encircle them, for that when those happy days are merged into every day life scenes, the substantial relationship of man and wife may prove the happiest state of all.

Wert Henderson hauled the Lutheran Sunday School Christian Tree to town, and in his wrappings to keep out the cold he looked nearly like Santa Claus on his errand of distributing blessings on Merry Christmas day.

Mrs. R. C Gallagher has been confined to her house by poor health.

George Jacobs, Jr., is one of the editors of a law school journal published at Albany, N. Y., in the interest of the law school at that place.

Mr. Levi Luckey is the name of President Grant's new private Secretary.

THE many will not rest,
The little people will not be blessed,
Until the pockets in their vests
Are filled with the best of candies,
And Toys, for girls and boys,
'Tis a truth that Santa Claus will drive
His tiny sleigh over your roof,
Down into the fire-place, and
With a loud ha! ha! exclaiming:
"With Post Master Books there is no use
For any one to run a race.
These things I got in his store,
Through the Post Office door.
To purchasers I say, you'll find
No hook or crook, when you
Buy your Candies and Toys from Books."
A word to his team of deer,
And Santa glided up the chimney without fear,
Saying, as he went—"Oh!
The crookedest looks, and crookedest crooks
Are full of shoals and sandy,
But if you do what is right
You will go to Books for toys and candy."

That is the way our poet was going on over the Holiday stock that Books has for sale, when Books saw him and disturbed the poet in his writing. Books was sorry, and requested him to add that he will be happy to wait on all who may choose to favor him with a call for Holiday purchases, and he hopes everybody will choose to call for that purpose.

"A Franklin (Pa.) congregation recently announced its intention to add $200 to the pastor's salary for each child born in his family during his ministrations there. The result was—twins, and the society has rescinded its resolution.

The eight of fifteen parts of the magnificent publication by J. W. Lauderbach, of Philadelphia, has just been issued. The work is entitled "A Century After; Picturesque Glimpses of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania." Sold by subscription only. Buy it and read and see Philadelphia without once going there.

The scholars of the McAlisterville Soldier's Orphan School will hold a Concert and Exhibition on Christmas evening, Dec. 25, 1875. "WARTS are very troublesome and disfiguring excrescences. The following is said by a French writer to produce a perfect cure, even of the largest, without leaving any scar: Take a small piece of raw beef, steep it all night in vinegar, cut as much from it as will cover the wart and tie it on it; if the excrescence is on the forehead, fasten it on with strips of sticking plaster. It may be removed in the day and put on every night. In one fortnight the wart will peel off. The same prescription is said to cure corns also."

LITERARY NOTICE.—The Second Annual Convention of Literary Societies of Juniata county will be held at Centre, in Walker township, commencing on Tuesday evening, January 25, 1876. Prof. John M. Garman has been selected as special orator for the occasion. Circular letters of instruction will be sent to the several societies as soon as possible. Address all communications to the Secretaries of Convention of April last, either Miss Rose Hamilton at Mexico, or E. A. Tennis, at Thompsontown. By order of

J. N. GRUBB,

J. H. SMITH,
GEORGE KING,

Thompsontown, Dec. 17-td

THE proposed convention to take into consideration the tramp nuisance and the care of the poor, is definitely settled to take place in this city on the 19th of January, and continue two or three days. Commissioner Hileman, of this county, has received letters from parties in nearly every county in the State, and the attendance of from one hundred and seventy-five to two hundred delegates is assured. There will be five from Allegheny, none ten or twelve from Philadelphia, and Lancaster, Berks, Dauphin, and other large counties, will send their quota, while it is probable nearly every county will be represented.—Altoona Tribune.

ON Friday evening last a man named John Powers made a desperate attempt to rob the money drawer of Mr. J. P. Stewart's restaurant. He leaped over the counter, and covering Stewart's eyes with one hand, he with the other reached for the money drawer. Stewart struck at him with a butcher knife, but the blade bent double, and the desperado for the time being escaped. He however, afterward fell into the clutches of the police, and in default of bail was sent over to the burg to await arraignment at court.—Altoona Tribune.

ON Friday, 10th inst., Mr. Harry Musser, of the Big Valley, seven miles east of Mill Creek, while engaged in rubbing cloverseed, had his hand caught in the machine and had it perfectly riddled in pieces above the wrist joint.—A surgeon was at once called and amputated the arm. The case is doing well.—Huntingdon Globe.

FORT PLAIN, Montgomery county, Pa., is greatly troubled over some recent kissing business. A young man kissed a pretty girl at a sociable. His wife was angry. He explained that he did it by mistake, and there was peace for a day or two. The pretty girl heard of the terms of settlement, however, and being angry in turn, reported around town that the young married man had made the same mistake hundreds of times. Hence the difficulty, and there is apparently to be no end to it.

AN exchange writes this, relative to a new food for horses and sheep: A favorite and rather new kind of mash for horses and sheep is coming into use, composed of two quarts of oats, one of bran and half a pint of flaxseed. The oats are first placed in the stable-bucket, over which is placed the linseed; add boiling water, then the bran, covering the mixture with an old rug and allowing it to rest for five hours; then stir the mass up. The bran absorbs while retaining the vapor, and the linseed binds the oats and bran together. A greater quantity of flaxseed would make the preparation too oily and less relished. One feed per day is sufficient. It is easily digestible and is specially adapted to young animals, adding to their volume rather than to their height—giving substance to the frame. Prof. Sanson reminds us not to overlook the food in the nourishment question in connection with the amelioration of live stock. He considers oats, as so generally given to sheep, as objectionable and approaching the unprofitable.—Rams generally receive one pound of oats daily, ewes half that quantity. Oats, forming an exciting food, are especially suited for rams during the season when they serve; but for hastening the development of young sheep they only build up the bones, not the flesh.

TUSCARORA ACADEMY.—This popular institution of learning, under the principalship of Prof. D. D. Stone, is in a highly prosperous condition. The recitation rooms have just been furnished with new desks, new maps, and other school-room requisites. The sleeping apartments for boarders have been repainted and papered, and the rooms all furnished with wardrobes, and nothing has been left undone that would add to the comfort and convenience of the students. We know of no better place where parents could send their children to be educated than Tuscarora Academy. We have been acquainted with Prof. Stone for a number of years, and can recommend him as a ripe scholar and a superior principal. . . .

AS PER BLOOMFIELD PAPERS.

On Thursday night of last week Comp's shoemaker shop, at Bridgeport, Spring township, was entered, and three pairs of boots, two pairs of shoes and a side of sole leather were stolen.

A cow belonging to John Owings, of Centre township, died from what is supposed to be mad itch a few days ago. A couple of weeks ago we published an item giving that as the cause of the death of several cattle in a neighboring county, and the manner in which they were affected. It is said that the cow belonging to Mr. Owings was affected in a similar manner.

On Tuesday of last week a five-year old daughter of Mr. Geo. M. Albright, of Newport, was seriously burned by her clothes taking fire while attempting to remove one of the plates from a cook stove. Mr. Richard Latchford, who resides in the same house, ran to the assistance of the child and tore the clothing off her, after the mother was unsuccessful in smothering the flames.

Last summer Mr. J. J. Barclay, R. R. Agent at Newport, lost his watch, and though a reward was offered for its recovery, it failed to come to time. On Tuesday last a colored man was detained at Lancaster on suspicion of offering a watch thought to have been stolen. By telegraphing to the maker, it was learned that the watch belonged to Mr. Barclay and upon being notified, he went to Lancaster and recovered his property. The person offering it proved to be a barber named Wilson, who had a shop in Newport. He was arrested and gave bail for his appearance at court.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its powers and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

IS IT YOU

Who said that you would like to get such Clothing as City People wear, rather than the wholesale goods commonly sold? This will tell you how to do it.

The very large increase of our business allows us to make A STILL LOWER SCALE OF PRICES, AND

You Can Save Enough

in buying a Suit at Oak Hall

TO PAY FOR THE TRIP

from anywhere in this County to the City of Philadelphia, and have a day of sight-seeing besides. Wanamaker & Brown stand by this Statement, and so will you after one trial.

Character of the Goods we sell! For Men & Boys.

TO be sure of what we sell we manufacture our goods, some of them in our own building. They are well cut, sewed and finished. They can be relied upon. Storekeepers out of the city misrepresent us when they say they sell our goods, as we do not wholesale, but confine ourselves to retail. We bear no ill-will to any one, and state this fact, because some dealers sell poor goods as coming from our house. To each of our customers we are responsible for articles bought of us. By our plan of Ticketing the right manner of the materials in our goods, no one can be mistaken as to qualities.

How Wanamaker & Brown treat their CUSTOMERS.

THE price in plain figures and nothing off. The same price to acquaintances and strangers. To easy people and country people equal advantages. With each article sold, a guarantee is given, that the Price is as low as it can be bought anywhere, and that the quality is as represented; also, that the money will be paid back in full, if purchaser within 10 days wishes, for any reason, to return the goods, unworn.

Exactly where the Store is.

THIS is important indeed, because unprincipled people having stores in Philadelphia, copy our signs, cards, advertisements, and stop strangers on the street, with false directions about where the store is, so that they may sell their counterfeit goods. There is but one Oak Hall in Philadelphia, it is a large building, the size of four ordinary stores, and is on the South-east corner of SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH and Market Streets.

Those who cannot come to the City.

WE send patterns of material and prices by mail when requested. Persons can have ready-to-wear goods sent by Express, by sending their measure (we furnish easy directions that any one can measure by,) and describing color wanted, and price desired. Payment can be made to the Express Co. on receipt of goods, and the privilege of examining them is allowed before paying. Where goods do not please, we will return the money and pay the expressage back to Philadelphia.

You should be sure to see our name on the building and over the door as you enter.
