The Presbyterian congregation have remodeled the main room of their church. Hereafter all meetings, Sabbath School included, will be held up stairs.

It is reported that Mr. Gaugler, the contractor, bought the Selinsgrove and North Branch Railroad, or as much of it as was sold, some days ago at Selinsgrove.

Mr. Matthews, of Ohio, is displaying the qualities of a new fence in the Court House yard. The fence seems to be substantial, but it should have been displayed on other grounds this kind of weather.

There was no preaching in the Presbyterian church last Sunday, occasioned by the absence of Rev. Mr. Sherrard, who was away in another part of the district preaching as per arrangement of Presbytery.

It is said that people love darkness better than light. The exception to this recognized saying is found in this place by everybody declaring in favor of the light of the new street lamps.

The light seen last Monday evening a week was occasioned by the burning of the stable of C. M. Fageley, in Licking Creek Valley. It caught from a spark from a butcher's fire.

The Presbyterian Church Sociable will be held at Wm. Allison's residence next Friday evening. The proceeds of the sociable will be appropriated to the reconstruction of a fence around the Presbyterian church grave yard.

TRAMPS.—These pests are becoming more desperate in their vocations, and must be promptly checked. They are entitled to no quarters. On Monday evening Mr. Daniel Coyle, who had called at the Shamrock House on Tenth avenue to pay a bill, and who was indiscreet enough to exhibit his money, which was observed by several tramps present, was followed after he left and robbed of about $25. They approached him from behind, one of them throwing his arm around Mr. C.'s neck, while the others rifled his pockets. They were arrested, but as no money could be found upon them, they were released with an admonition to light out of the city, in double quick time. The city is nightly infested with this class of peripatetic scamps, who think of nothing but prowling and pilfering.—Altoona Tribune.

COCALAMUS JOTTINGS.—Keeping silence so long is not of necessity a sign that the people of the lower end of the county are entirely asleep. They are all awake, and in their usual quiet way keep things moving along.

As the time of the spring election is coming on, there are some remarks made as to who will be the proper persons to administer the township affairs. Amongst other places where the citizens of Cocolamus meet to talk over various subjects and get their news, is in Mr. Wm. H. McAlister's store room. Mr. McAlister is a genial, kind-hearted man, and courteous and upright in his dealings, and thereby secures a good share of custom which others would fail to secure.

J. E. and D. M. Jamison, successors to R. W. Jamison, deceased, are doing a good business in the Fayette Foundry. They are extensively engaged in the stove trade, of which they have a large supply on hand.

Our friend, Mr. Samuel S. Hunt, has just returned from a trip to New York and Philadelphia. He has also been to the State of Connecticut to visit his friends. During his visit he has been to hear some of the celebrated divines of our day—amongst them Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Dr. I. Hall, Rev. Dewitt Talmage, and Messrs. Moody and Sankey. Mr. Hunt is in good spirits since his return. It is a treat to hear him relating the various incidents of his visit. Here again is demonstrated the value of a good education. While others have made similar trips and have returned as empty as they were when they left, he has secured a large amount of valuable information which, besides being a benefit to himself, is a pleasure to others.

The Sabbath-school at Union school house was closed on the 2nd inst. It is expected to open again after a vacation of three months. This school has had a very able body of teachers. They have great reason to rejoice at the signal success with which their labors have been crowned.

Prof. Beck, formerly of the McAlisterville Orphan School, has taken charge of the week-day school at Union, in place of J. A. Shelley, deceased. Success to the Professor is the wish of all.

DONALD.

Jan. 12, 1876.

THE Huntingdon Journal relates the following sad accident: William Atherton of Shirleysburg, was accidently shot by his brother, on Friday the 31st ult., under following circumstances, viz: He and his brother James were in the woods gunning. A squirrel was run into a hollow tree about fifteen feet from the ground. To scare the squirrel from its hiding place William climbed the tree while James held his gun in readiness to shoot on its appearance, and unfortunately left the hammer escape from his fingers discharging the gun and lodging the contents in Williams right side, stomach and thigh. The gun was loaded with heavy buck shot. One of the shot, it is supposed passed through the right lung. The wounded young man was taken to the residence of their father, Mr. Charles Atherton where his wounds were promptly dressed by Drs. McNite and Stine. The young men are aged respectively 23 and 16 years, James being the younger. Mr. Atherton's family has been very unfortunate. An older son, some years ago, lost an arm; a daughter nearly lost the use of a hand by a fall, and the father himself, not long ago, broke an arm, by falling from a building. They have the sympathy of the entire community. The wounded young man is doing as well as could be expected.

ON the 27th ult., two men purchased a twenty cent handkerchief at Myers & Co.'s clothing house, near the depot, and presented in payment a five dollar bill. Not having the change, Mr. Blitz took the note to Russ' hotel, and the clerk on duty being in a hurry, did not examine the bill, but gave the change. The note was subsequently found to be an advertising dodge, the face having a great resemblance to a genuine note, but the back bore the words "United States Cotton Mill, Mauch Chunk," etc., showing at once that it was worthless. Yesterday Mr. Blitz identified the two men in front of the Bomgardner House, and had them arrested and arraigned before Alderman Jackson, where they gave the names of James Gambo and W. D. Wagner, and stated that they were brakemen on a freight train running between this city and Altoona. The men evinced a disposition to settle the matter by paying the costs and $5 in good money, alleging that if they were not on the train by six o'clock they would lose their situations. It was found out, however, that the two had attempted to pass a similar note on Marks, of Market, street, yesterday afternoon. This settled it, and the men were sent to jail for trial in default of $500 bail each.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

HAVE you ever felt it, as the poet puts it? Thus—

"In the month of November, the day I remember,
Now gazing o'er mountain and plain,
My heart travels back to that flowing track,
And lives in the light of her eyes once again.

"How glorious and bright were the stars of the night,
And the whippoorwill tuning its song,
When our hearts were so true, and I loved only you
In that multitude rushing along.

"The day never comes, and the night never goes,
But I sigh for the woodland and stream,
Where we sat in the moonlight, and clasped in fond love,
In that bright sunny land—like a dream.

"Many years have gone by, still I sadden and sigh
For the musical strains of the past;
My heart fondly turns to incense and burns
On the altar of love to the last.

"One by one we step out, to that land full of doubt,
Where Hope only leads up the way.
To the realms of bliss, where an angel kiss
Bids us welcome to eternal day.

"The lips of an angel can never impart
A pleasure so pure and so true,
As I felt in my soul and my fluttering heart,
In the moonlight—when first I kissed you."

THE newly-elected sheriff was sitting in his office sad-eyed and haggard. He held in his hand a stack of manuscript representing the applications of eight hundred and seventy-nine candidates for positions of deputy sheriff, each of whom said he had worked for him at the polls, and had gained him all the way up from two hundred to one thousand votes from their personal friends who did not vote the party ticket.

A man attired in a blue shirt, with a paper collar and a red nose, entered the office, and, grasping the hand of the tired official, greeted him cordially.

"Ah, Mr. Sheriff, but it's glad I am to see yon looking so hearty; don't you remember me?"

"I don't think I do," remarked the official, "although there is something in your face which is familiar to me."

"Ah, Mr. sheriff, I thought you'd know me. I worked for you all day election, and got you one thousand votes, and I came for that place,"

"Well, I am sorry to say that I have already promised all the places at my disposal."

Oh, give me a place; I don't care what it is."

"Oh, by the by," said the sheriff with a malicious grin in his eye, "there is a place, but it's not worth much, and I don't think you'd take it."

"Ah, Mr. sheriff, I'll take anything; I don't care what kind of a place it is Tell me what it is, and I'll jump at it with my coat off."

"All right," said the sheriff, "there is a Chinaman going to be hanged at the jail next month, and he wants somebody to take his place. I think it will suit you."

The man with the red nose ceased to smile, and asking the sheriff for a quarter to pay for his lodging that night, he left the office and mingled with the throng of would-be deputy sheriffs on the outside.—San Francisco Call.

THE Perry County Advocate says:—The revival in the Presbyterian church in Millerstown resulted in the addition of 54 members to the church, with the prospect of a still further accession of those who have not yet made application for admission.

Mr. John Welty, formerly of this county, had his pocket picked of a pocket-book containing $160, on the cars between Rockford and Chicago on the 27th ult. A friend on the cars pointed out the thief who had started for the platform where he was joined by confederates and the fellow escaped with the money. Mr. Welty was on his way to visit friends in this county.

THE Perry County Freeman says:—W. A. Zinn, Esq., Postmaster at New port, lost his pocket-book containing $400, on Wednesday morning last when running to a fire. It was soon found with only 30 cents left in it. Mr. Z. offers to give the finder $75, if he will return the balance.

The contents of Mrs. Ickes' millinery establishment at Newport, were destroyed by fire occasioned by the explosion of a lamp, on Wednesday morning last. Her loss is covered by insurance. What causes a lamp to explode? Does good oil in a good lamp ever explode?

THE Lewistown Sentinel says of the Sunbury and Lewistown Railroad: The hopes for a re-opening of this road have brightened materially. MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

IS IT YOU

Who said that you would like to get such Clothing as City People wear, rather than the wholesale goods commonly sold? This will tell you how to do it.

The very large increase of our business allows us to make A STILL LOWER SCALE OF PRICES, AND

You Can Save Enough
in buying a Suit at Oak Hall
TO PAY FOR THE TRIP

from anywhere in this County to the City of Philadelphia, and have a day of sight-seeing besides. Wanamaker & Brown stand by this Statement, and so will you after one trial.

Character of the Goods we sell! For Men & Boys.

TO be sure of what we sell for custom, we make the goods, some of them in our own building. They are well cut, sewed and finished. They can be relied upon. Storekeepers out of the city misrepresent us when they say they sell our goods, as we do not wholesale, but confine themselves to retail. We bear no ill-will to any one, and state this only because some dealers sell poor goods as coming from our house. To each of our customers we are responsible for articles bought of us. By our plan of ticketing the right names of the materials on our goods, no one can be misled as to qualities.

How Wanamaker & Brown treat their CUSTOMERS.

THEY price in plain figures and sell by it. The same price to acquaintances and strangers. To city people and country people equal advantages. With each article sold, a Guarantee is given, that the Price is as low as it can be bought anywhere, and that the quality is as represented; also, that the money will be paid back in full, if purchaser within 10 days wishes, for any reason, to return the goods, unworn.

Exactly where the Store is.

THIS is important, because unprincipled people having stores in Philadelphia, counterfeit our signs, cards, advertisements, and stop strangers on the street, with false directions about where the store is, so that they may sell their counterfeit goods. There is but one Oak Hall in Philadelphia, it is a large building, the size of four ordinary stores, and is on the South-east corner of SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH and Market Streets.

Those who cannot come to the City.

WE send patterns of material and prices by mail when requested. Persons can have made-up goods sent by Express, by sending their measure (we furnish easy directions that any one can measure by,) and describing color wanted, and price desired. Payment can be made to the Express Co. on receipt of goods, and the privilege of examining them is allowed before paying. Where goods do not please, we will return the money and pay the expressage back to Philadelphia.

You should be sure to see our name on the Building and over the door as you enter.

Patterson, Pa. Nov. 11, 1874. SAMUEL STRAYER.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

☞Price, in a sealed envelope, only six cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on the receipt of six cents or two post stamps. Address the Publishers,
