LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

They say a dog in Huntingdon had small-pox.

Trout fishermen are getting their tackle ready for trout fishing.

The Banks in this place will be closed on Friday, 22nd inst., that being a legal holiday.

The public sale of John Esh, Jr., has been changed from March 12 to March 11, 1878.

The Benevolent Troupe will give an entertainment in Graybill's Hall, on the 22nd instant.

Jacob Hostettler, of Mt. Pleasant, Walker township, makes a first-rate corn broom. Buy from him.

Eight hundred bushels of Valentines passed through the New York City post-office last week.

Our acknowledgments are due, and are hereby presented to Senator Crawford for valuable public documents sent us.

A recent writer on the wheat fly, says that salt sown on wheat in the fall will kill the fly midge, and cause the grain to ripen about six days earlier than usual.

The full text of the Silver Bill, as it passed the Senate, will be published in next issue. It does not differ greatly from the Bland bill, which is published in to-day's paper.

Twenty new members joined the Lutheran church in this place on Sabbath—fifteen by confirmation, and five by baptism; also ten old members were restored to membership, swelling the number to thirty.

"Huntingdon Presbytery will meet in the Second Presbyterian Church, Altoona, on the 26th inst., to consider the dissolution of the pastoral relationship of Rev. W. J. Chichester, with that congregation."

"Charles Napier, an English scientist, prescribes a vegetable diet as a cure for intemperance. The relinquishment of meat for six or seven months, he asserts, will destroy a desire for alcohol in the most aggravated cases."

The Huntingdon Monitor says: The valuables found in the possession of William C. Manson, who met with such a horrible death in Altoona, recently, amounted to $102,733.27. They were sent to his home, in Mt. Gilead, Ohio.

In a recent scandal case in Smith county, Kansas, a lady witness declined to answer a question, and the attorney demanded her reason. "Because it is not fit to tell decent people." "Oh, well," said the lawyer, "just walk up here and whisper it to the judge."—Omaha Journal.

A Palmer Irishman is credited with sending the following telegraphic message to his brother in New York: "Your wife died yesterday. We will wake her to-night.—Come home. P. S.—Don't open this for two hours, so as to prepare yourself for the melancholy news."—Palmer Journal.

By referring to the vote on the silver question, cast last Friday in the U. S. Senate, it will be noticed that Senators Cameron and Wallace voted for the late amendment, which is for the Bland dollar, with other provisions of coinage that render it acceptable. Full text next issue, if not changed before then.

On a Friday evening, not long since, three tramps, by a back window, entered the school house in which Miss Lizzie Loudon teaches school, near Van-Dyke station, and remained in the building till Monday morning. They left a brisk fire in the stove to remind the teacher that they had quartered there over Saturday and Sunday.

On Saturday morning, the United States Senate, after a whole night spent in disposing of the various amendments to the Silver Bill, by a vote of 48 yeas to 21 nays, voted "to authorize the coinage of the standard silver dollar, and to restore its legal tender character." See amendments and proceedings of result, in another column.

The Huntingdon Globe says: Don't forget the rifle tournament on the Fair Grounds on Washington's birth-day, February 22d. Sportsmen from Blair, Bedford, Cambria, Mifflin, Juniata, Fulton, and other counties, have been extended an invitation. A prize will be given the best marksman. A good time and some good shooting may be expected.

Railroad ties in large numbers, comparatively speaking, have been taken in from Lost Creek valley, to the P. C. R. R., within the past few days, and among the number were loads of ties that had been intended for the Selinsgrove and North Branch Railroad. If the stockholders of the last-named concern do not soon receive a statement of the affairs of the concern, they will deem it necessary to call a meeting to organize a movement of inquiry.

Mrs Susan Cargill, the lady whose husband lately died of small-pox, in the borough of Patterson, desires to return her thanks to the "Benevolent Troupe," for their kindness in presenting her with a share of the proceeds of what they earned by their entertainment given in Graybill's Hall, January 15th. It is justice to mention that the boys labored hard to get up the entertainment, and all the proceeds were distributed to the poor of the two boroughs.—They will give another entertainment for the same purpose, on February 22d. They ask a liberal patronage.

The old canal boat that obstructed the wharf opposite the Elder tannery is being torn to pieces, by Dorse Switzer.

The Railroad company filled its ice houses in Patterson from the ice that formed, on the dams in Licking Creek, during the late cold weather.

Adjourned Court Proceedings.

FEBRUARY 15, 1878.

Reported by B. F. Burchfield, for the Sentinel and Republican.

In the case of the Insurance Company vs. John Lukens and wife, the charge of the Court was filed—"Under the weight of the evidence you (the jury) should find a verdict for the plaintiff, against John Lukens, for $40, and in favor of Jane Lukens, the other defendant," and the Prothonotary is directed to make up the record as of Feb. 15, 1878.

Overseers of Beale vs. Overseers of Walker. Rule to show cause why a supplemental decree should not be made. Returnable 19th March, 1878.

John Cleck vs. Joseph Adams and Mary Adams. Ex. Fi. Fa. No. 8, Feb. term, 1878. Rule for distribution of proceeds of Sheriff's sale of real estate. Returnable March 19, 1878.

The proceeds of the sale of the real estate of James Cox considered in court, and an issue directed to be framed between the claimants, and put at the head of the list for trial at April term, 1878.

The report of D. D. Stone, Esq., Auditor distributing the proceeds of the Sheriff's sale of the personal property of Joseph Adams, was filed, and he was appointed to distribute the assigned estates of Christian Benner and Abraham Swartzlander.

Emanuel Long petitioned to be subrogated to the rights of Daniel Lesher and Amos Folk, as against A. A. Murray, for contribution. The Court granted a rule with notice to be given the Auditors of Folk.

L. E. Atkinson, Esq., was appointed to state an account between Isaac Hoffman, the surviving partner, and Michael Hoffman's estate, of the partnership transactions in the business of tanning.

In the matter of the real estate of William M. Allison, sold by the Sheriff to William M. Allison, Jr. Sheriff Knouse having by some means neglected to sign or seal the deed, which fact was not discovered until the property had again been sold and the deeds recorded and Knouse gone out of office, an order was procured from the Court of Common Pleas, No. 1, of Philadelphia (that being the court which issued the Testatum Execution upon which the property was sold) to the present Sheriff to make and acknowledge a new deed, which was done.

The life estate of P. B. Shirk in a property in Beale township having been taken in execution, the Court awarded a writ to sequester the rents, issues and profits, and appointed A. J. Patterson, Esq., Sequestrator to carry the same into effect.

Rebecca C. Casner, by her next friend Robert Leach, vs. William H. Casner. In divorce. Order of publication granted.

The petition of citizens of Delaware township for a re-re-review of a road in said township, known as the Hoops road, was presented, and Jerome Thompson, John Motzer and J. P. Wharton were appointed veiwers.

Burris & Smucker vs. J. B. M. Todd. Exceptions to defendant's bill of costs. "And now, 15th Feb., 1878, the mileage of A. J. Herbler stricken off."

Upon his petition for discharge, John O'Donnel was directed to give due legal notice of his intention to apply March 19, 1878, for his discharge under the insolvent law.

In the Stroup distribution the decree of the Court was amended so as to take the costs of the Sheriff's sale of the fund before distribution, which has the effect to reduce the amount awarded to Susanna Cox $50, and apply that amount to the judgment of Joseph Long.

Loan Association vs. Muthersbaugh.—Rule for dissolution of attachment. Defendant's answer filed. Decision reserved until 19th March, and execution stayed in the meantime.

Estate of Philip Ranck, dec'd. Petition for inquest of partition. Inquest awarded.
