SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN

MIFFLINTOWN.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 1887.

B. F. SCHWEIER,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Brown stone, from the quarry at Hummelstown, this state are sent to St. Louis to be used in the building of the Pennsylvania railroad depot at that place.

AN Oswego, Kansas, G. A. R. Post sends word to President Cleveland, through a Senator, that the members of the Post will remember the veto of the Dependent Pension bill, and vote accordingly in 1888. The Post favored the bill.

A RESIDENT of Chicago, to save a $1000 coupon from falling into the hands of a robber, chewed and swallowed the coupon, and then applied to the Government for a new coupon to replace the one that he had put down his throat. His request was not granted. It is not every man that disposes of a thousand dollars at a swallow.

A CRANK named George Hutchins, of Ancora, made a will and then died. He willed nearly all of his $15,000 estate, to that other lunatic, Henry George, of New York. Ancora had no children, but left a wife, who, he willed but a very small portion of his estate. The act of a man giving his money to a loony reformer and leaving his wife almost destitute, proves into how idiotic a state the communistic reformer can work himself.

A NATURALIZED German named Reabecker, of Shelly county, Illinois, went on a visit to his native country, last January. He had no sooner arrived in the Fatherland, when he was put into the army to serve out his army service term. He claims that he is an American citizen, by naturalized right. Uncle Sam will attend to his case if he be a naturalized citizen. Doubtless there will be little trouble in obtaining his release.

IT is remarkable, that such characters as Henry George, and the Catholic priest, Dr. McGlynn, both of New York city, should profess to be troubled about individual land and house ownership, when there are places in this world easily reached, where individual land and house ownership is not recognized, but where tribal, or national ownership is the only ownership tolerated. All that will be necessary for them to do to find people who have the George McGlynn theories in practical everyday operation is to join the North American Indians of the plains, or the Indians of Alaska, or join the Arabs of Asia. Join the Indians or the Arabs, gentlemen, and be happy in the practical realization of no ownership in houses or lands.

Inter-State Commerce—A Synopsis

At the request of a number of readers of the SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN we have made the following synopsis of the Inter-State Commerce Act that was passed by Congress a short time ago.

The Act is in 24 sections.

The first section of the bill states that the provisions of the act shall apply to any common carrier engaged in the transportation of passengers or property, whether by railroad or water through the several states and territories, including the District of Columbia, but it does not propose to interfere with the management of transportation companies operating within the limits of the respective states.

The 2nd section declares that the common carrier who directly or indirectly gives special rates rebate draw back, or other device, collects or receives greater or less compensation for passengers, or property shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination.

The 3rd section declares it to be unlawful for any common carrier to give undue or unreasonable preference to any person, company, firm, or corporation and every common carrier shall afford equal facilities for the interchange of traffic between their respective lines.

Fourth,—provides against receiving greater compensation for a short than a long distance of transportation. Provided however that the Commission appointed by the act may hear cases, on the long and short transportation question, and arrange a scale of rates.

Fifth,—That it shall be unlawful for common carriers to enter into combination for the pooling of freights of competing lines, and to divide the net proceeds of the pool.

Sixth,—That every common carrier shall have his transportation rates printed and in keeping at every depot or station, for public inspection and it shall be unlawful to charge more or less than such rates for transportation of passengers or property and a copy of the rates shall be filed with the Commission hereafter mentioned. Copies of all contracts between common carriers shall be filed with the Commission. No common carrier, to the joint traffic rates shall be liable for the failure of any other common carrier to adhere to the rates, or fares. A failure to comply with the law, will subject the common carrier to an arraignment before any Circuit Court of the United States to answer for the violation of the law.

Seventh,—It shall be unlawful for common carriers to conspire, to prevent by any means or device a continuous transportation from the place of shipment to the place of destination, and no breakage, or stoppage shall prevent the transportation from being treated as one continuous carriage.

Eighth,—Violators of this act shall be held liable to the party injured to the full amount of the damage sustained, together with a reasonable counsel or attorney's fee, to be fixed by the Court.

Ninth,—Suit for recovery, under the provisions of the act may be brought in any District or Circuit Court of the United States. The Court is empowered to compel the attendance of officers, receiver, or trustee, or agent of the defendent company or corporation with books and papers.

Tenth—Companies subject to the provision of this act, who shall be guilty of an infraction of the act, are made punishable in the District Court of the United States and to be subject to a fine, not to exceed $5000 for each offense.

Eleventh—That an Inter State Commission, of five Commissioners be created by appointment of the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The first appointed shall continue in office, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 years respectively, the term of each to be designated by the President, but their successors shall be appointed for a term of six years. Any one may be removed by the President for cause expressed in the act. Not more than three shall be appointed from the same political party. They shall be appointed from the class of men who are not interested in the business of common carriers and they shall not engage in any other business, vocation or employment. A vacancy in the commission shall not impair the right of the remainder to exercise the power of the commission.

Twelfth,—The Commission is empowered to inquire into the management of the business of all common carriers, they shall have power to require the attendance of witnesses, the production of books, papers, traffic, contracts, agreements, and to this end invoke the aid of the United States Court and refusal to appear before court, may be punished by such court as in contempt thereof.

Thirteenth,—Provides the manner in which complaint against common carriers may be brought before the Commission, which shall be by petition, stating the facts of grievance The commission shall call the common carrier to satisfy the complaint, or to answer, and if redress or reparation shall fail to be made within a stated time, it becomes the duty of the Commission to investigate the matter complained of.

Fourteenth—Requires the Commission to report the case and state the amount of damages or reparation, if any shall be made by the common carrier against whom complaint was lodged.

Fifteenth—In cases, where grievances have been found by the Commission, the common carrier who has committed the offense shall be notified to desist from such violence by the law, or make reparation.

Sixteenth—In cases where the common carrier refuses to obey the requirement of the Commission the case shall be transferred to the Circuit Court of the United States where the case shall be disposed of in the speediest time deemed reasonable by the court.

Seventeenth—A majority of the Commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Any party may appear before the Commission in person or by Attorney.

Eighteenth—Each Commissioner shall receive a salary of $7,500. They shall appoint a Secretary at a salary of $3,500, and other officers as they need them. Witnesses shall be paid same fees and milage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States.

Nineteenth—The principal office of the Commission shall be in the city of Washington, but the Commission may hold special session in any part of the United States.

Twentieth—Common carriers are required to make annual reports to the Commissioners of capital stock dividends, surplus, number of stock holders, debts, interest, property, employees, salaries, expenses for improvements each year, with rates for travel and so forth.

Twenty first—The Commission shall on or before the 1st day of December in each year, make a report to the Secretary of the Interior Department. which shall be by him transmitted to Congress.

Twenty second—The provisions of the act shall not apply to free or reduced rates for government property, state, governments, charities, fairs, or the issuance of milage, excursion, or commutation passenger tickets, nothing shall prevent the giving of tickets at reduced rates to ministers of religion; nothing to prevent railroads from giving free carriage to their own officers and employees, or to prevent the principal officers of any railroad company from exchanging passes with other railroad companies.

Twenty-third—$100,000 is appropriated to carrry the provisions of the act for the year ending June 30, A. D. 1888.

Twenty fourth—That sections 11 and 12 relative to the organization of the Commission shall take effect immediately, the remainder of the act to go into effect 60 days after its passage.

Owen Lovejoy's Oratory.

Owen Lovejoy, a Representative from Illinois, was one of the prominent Republican orators. He was a man of considerable brains and a good deal of body, and his style of utterance was of the hyper-intense school. On one occasion he began his speech at the top of a voice of most prodigious compass, and kept on in the same strain, which, mildly described, might be characterized as a roar. When some waggish member on the Southern side cried, "Louder!" the effect upon the audience was convulsing. There stood Lovejoy, with his coat off and his collar open, his big, bushy head thrown back like a lion at bay, and brandishing his arms aloft, while his whole body rocked and quivered with excitement, hurling his denunciations not at the slave power this time, but at the Secessionists. His tremendous voice rang through the hall like the peal of a trumpet, and when he described the insults to the old flag he was truly eloquent.—From "Reminiscences," by Ben: Perley Poore.

Terrible Earthquake.

About six o'clock, last Thursday morning a terrible earthquake destroyed an unestimated amount of property and took the lives of several thousand people in part of France, Italy and Spain. When the first shock was felt at Geneva people crowded into a church, the second quake brought down the building and killed three hundred people. The people of the stricken district are living out of doors. In some places along the coast all who can, have gone on boats or ships. Fifteen thousand people have fled from the city of Nice. At one place a ball was going on when the disaster came. The house was tumbled into a mass of ruins, killing the dancers in their places

On Monday, Mrs. Druse was hung at the county seat of Herkimer Co., New York State, for having killed her husband in 1881. They were married in 1864, and quarreled two weeks after marriage, and never lived happily together. They have grown children. A daughter took part in the killing of the father and has been sent to the state prison for life. The parents had their final quarrel while at tea, over the "cutting up," of a threshing machine board. Druse drove his wife into the buttery with an axe. The mother in a frenzy of fright and anger drew a revolver and shot her husband, cut his head off with an axe and dismembered the body and burned it to ashes in the parlor and kitchen stove. The ashes were placed in a sack and box and hid in a clump of bushes. The box was found and in connection with the disappearance of Druse and an ugly smell that filled the atmosphere of the neighborhood about the time he was last seen led to the arrest of the wife. A hired boy who was a witness to a part of the tragedy was taken in charge by a lot of neighbors and frightened into telling what he knew of the dreadful deed.

Jim Stevens, a negro, was hung at Princess Ann, Md., last Friday, for having broken into the house, and murdered Mrs. Mary Trehearn. eight miles from Princess Ann, on the night of July 10, 1886.

Pimples, Boils,

And Carbuncles result from a debilitated, impoverished, or impure condition of the blood. Ayer's Sarsaparilla prevents and cures these eruptions and painful tumors, by removing their cause; the only effectual way of treating them.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has prevented the usual course of Boils, which have pained and distressed me every season for several years.—G. Scales, Plainville, Mich.

I was badly troubled with Pimples on the face; also with a discoloration of the skin, which showed itself in ugly dark patches. No external treatment did more than temporary good. Ayer's Sarsaparilla effected and I have not been troubled since.—T. W. Boddy, River st., Lowell, Mass.

I was troubled with Boils, and my health was much impaired. I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in due time, the eruptions all disappeared, and my health was completely restored.—John R. Elkins, Editor Stanley Observer, Albemarle, N. C.

I was troubled, for a long time, with a humor which appeared on my face in ugly Pimples and Blotches. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me. I consider it the best blood purifier in the world.—Charles H. Smith, North Craftsbury, Vt.

RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE

HAS PROVED TO BE

THE REMEDY

FOR RHEUMATISM.

MARION, IND., Aug. 12, 1886.

My wife was so afflicted with Rheumatism in her shoulder and arm that she could do nothing for herself, and could not sleep in bed, but had to be buttered up in a rocking chair. Physicians prescribed, many patent medicines were used, but the pain still got worse. I sent for the Russian Rheumatism Cure, under a cloud of doubts. It was used according to directions for one week, and my wife was cured. It was one of those agreeable surprises that you meet once in a lifetime. It is now over four months since the cure was effected, and she can wash, iron, hoe in the garden, and do all kinds of work as well as ever, and has no symptoms of the old disease. We have no hesitancy in recommending the cure to all similarly afflicted, as SAFE AND SURE.

Truly yours,
H. J. FISHELL.

Thousands of others have been cured.

PRICE $2.50.

For complete information, Descriptive Pamphlet, with testimonials, free.

DAVID FOWLES, Sheriff,
Mifflintown, Pa., February 14, 1887.

IN THE ORPHANS COURT OF JUNIATA COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of Mary M. Fritz deceased.

At an Orphan's Court held at Mifflintown, on the 10th day of February 1887, before the honorable Charles A. Barnett and his associate Justices present, it appearing to the Court from the return of the sheriff and the jury of inquest under their respective hands and seals, made to the writ of inquest, that the parties in said writ named had been personally warned (as many as chose being present) that the property described in said writ cannot be parted and divided without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof and that the said jury of inquest had therefore valued and appraised the said property as follows:

Purpart No. 1. At and for the sum of five hundred and three and 33 dollars.

Purpart No. 2. At and for the sum of ninty three and 75 dollars.
100

Whereupon the said Court confirmed said inquest.

At an Orphan's Court for the County of Juniata, held at Mifflintown on the 10th day of February, A. D. 1887, in the matter of the estate of Mary M. Fritz deceased, on motion of Alfred J. Patterson, Esq., Attorney for petitioner, the Court granted a rule, directed to William Fritz, Greiggton, Knox Co., Nebraska, Israel Fritz of the same place, Sallie E. Fritz inter-married with William Snook, of South Bend Indiana; Hannah Fritz intermarried with Shoop of Niles, Berrien County, Michigan; Dowes Fisher of Evandale, Juniata Co., Pa., who has for his Guardian ad litem, J. Howard Neely, Esq., of Mifflintown, Juniata Co., Pa; J. Wilson Fisher of Harrisburg Pa., Samuel Fisher of Juniata Co., Pa.; Laura J. Fritz intermarried with G. W. Messerman of Juniata Co., Pa., and who has for her Guardian, Alfred J. Patterson Esq., of Mifflintown, Juniata county Pa., Heirs and persons interested in said estate, and all other persons interested to be and appear before the Honorable, the Judges, of the said Court, at a Court to be held at Mifflintown on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1887 at 10 o'clock A. M., then and there to accept or refuse the real estate of said decedent, at the appraised value put upon by the inquest duly returned, or show cause why the same should not be sold.

Notice of this rule to be given personally or by writing left at their place of abode, to all persons interested resident in Juniata County, and notice to be given to all persons interested resident without the county of Juniata by publication in one or more newspapers published in Juniata county for three successive weeks and by mailing copies of each publication to him or her, addressed to his or her post office address if known. By the Court

EDWARD E. BERRY, Clerk of Orphans' Court. {L.S}

I certify the above to be a true copy of the original rule in my hands.
