It is the surplus that troubles the erring brethren. Leave them in office long enough and there will be no surplus to talk about. Instead of surplus it will be debt—defalcation. For proof take Buchanan's administration, and many country administrations.

Last Wednesday, the Commissioners brought an action against ex county Treasurer John M. Copeland, and his bail T. J. Middagh, W. W. Copeland, R. T. Guss and W. S. North to recover the amount due the county at the time of the retirement of Copeland from the Treasurership of the county at the first of the present year.

A horse that Miss Ella K. Banks was driving in a sleigh, with her friend Miss Long of Millerstown cut a caper on water street last Thursday afternoon, and wrecked the sleigh on a wood pile and threw the young ladies into the snow, and then ran to Patterson, and in his run away career knocked the sleigh to pieces and tore the harness into fragments.

A Loysville correspondent of the Perry County Advocate says: We have a man in our town who walked from Harrisburg to Newport in order to meet a hackster wagon in order to ride home. It is 30 miles from Harrisburg to his place and 28 from Harrisburg to Newport. If our friend had walked two mile more he would have been at his own barn and then he might have watched for a chance to ride from there to the house.

T. J. Middagh, Washington North, Ruben Guss, bondmen of ex county treasurer John Copeland, had Copeland arraigned before Squire J. B. M. Todd, last Tuesday evening, on the charge of embezzlement and appropriation of $4900 and upward, of county funds to his own use. The justice required $7000 bail on the part of Copeland, to answer the charge at Court. The following named citizens bailed him for his appearance at Court: David Sulouff, Emi Schott, A. H. Weidman, A. S. Wright, Alonza Faick.

From the handsome girl's head, lithographed in colors, nicely cut out, to the last slip of the pad, Hood's Household Calender for 1888 is thoroughly artistic. Every month is beautifully engraved, and each slip as torn off presents a new and pleasing combination of color printing. Hood's calender easily leads the procession. It is nice enough for any parlor and has so many excellent points in arrangement and convenience that it must be seen to be appreciated. Copies may be obtained at the drug stores, or by sending six cents in stamps to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Last Thursday morning, the 12th inst., Miss Varnes, daughter of Mitch Varnes, living at Locust Grove, about a mile from Mifflin station discovered a man dead; hanging, in her father's stable. In alarm she gave information of the startling sight. Justice J. B. M. Todd of Patterson, was informed of the suicide and went to the place to hold an inquest, but there being nothing to create a doubt or suspicion that death was caused by any means than by the man's own hands, the inquest was not held. The County authority was informed of the case, and Lieutenant Burchfield acting for the Board of County Commissioners had the body of the man decently interred in the Union Cemetery. The man had tied his own handkerchief around his neck, and with one of Varnes' hames straps fastened himself to a leg in the barn, and strangled himself, as appearances indicated. His feet touched the floor of the stable. He had appeared in that vicinity, on the evening of the 11th and was in Melov's store at Locust Grove after night fall. He was not a tramp, but a citizen of Fridenthal, Kris Rohenberg, Germany, as his papers proved, who had sailed from Hamburg Germany on the 27th of last Dec., on the ship, "British Princess," for America. He passed the Philadelphia quarantine January 6, 1888, and had a limited emigrant ticket to Milwaukie, dated January 8, 1888. The ticket had been punched as far as to Altoona; the ticket indicated that he had baggage that had been checked to Milwaukie. He had an envelope addressed to Adolph Heider 953 Warren Lowe, Milwaukie Wisconsin. His papers indicated that he was a farmer in his native land; that he was born September 22, 1841, that he had entered the military service of Germany in 1862 and was honorably discharged there from. He had regular governmentol passport papers, but no money. Why he left the train and wandered from the railroad more than a mile, is a mystery. That he was missed from the train is proven by despatches that railroad authorities sent to Lowistown asking, for information relative to a missing man, on the 11th inst. Lieutenant Burchfield, Clerk to the Commissioners, and Wm. M. Allison the Attorney for the Board, have been assiduous in their efforts, to have the unfortunate foreigner's case placed in the hands of his friends.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Personally Conducted Pleasure Tours to Florida via Pennsylvania Railroad.

In order to afford the opportunity of a pleasant trip to Florida to every one who has the leisure to go, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged for two personally conducted pleasure tours to that sunny land. The dates of the tours are fixed for January 26th and February 9th. The tourists will be carried through to Jacksonville via Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah, by a special train of day coaches and Pullman buffet sleeping cars, running on a fast schedule. The tourist agent of the Company, assisted by a chaperon, who will have a special care to the ladies unescorted, will direct the party. Roundtrip tickets, including sleeping car accommodations and meals en route in both directions, good for the return trip for fifteen days, will be sold at a rate of about $42.50 from Philadelphia and $45.00 from New York. The party in each case will be limited to 150 persons. Names may be entered on the lists at any time in advance.

Detailed information as to the tours will be published within a few days.

Obituary.

From the McConnellsville, Pa., Courier.

Ada Seiber Wolfe, sister of Rev. L. L. Seiber, died suddenly after three days' illness, in Polo, Illinois, where she had lived since her marriage to Mr. H. R. Wolfe of that place. Only a little more than two years ago she left Connellsville on her wedding tour, followed by the many well wishes of her friends here, and with the fairest prospects of a life of prosperity and happiness. She had literally obeyed the solemn warnings of the scriptures, "Set thy house in order, for thou shalt die and not live." Her husband had gone from home to be absent a few days, and she was to spend those few days with a friend. She had closed up the house with everything in perfect order, with the kindling in the basket beside the stove ready to start the fire on her return. She never returned to kindle the fire on the domestic hearth. Her spiritual preparation was as perfect as her material preparation for she lived a faithful christian life from childhood. The following obituary was read after the funeral services, which were held in the Lutheran church at Polo, December 23rd: "Mrs. Ada Seiber Wolfe was born September 1, 1857, died December 19, 1887, aged 30 years, 3 month and 19 days. She was the youngest child of Abram and Fannie Seiber of Juniata county, Pa. Her parents have both preceded her to their reward, dying in the Christian faith. She was confirmed in the Lutheran church at an early age, and lived a happy, joyous, faithful life. She was married to H. A. Wolfe, Nov. 24th, 1885, after which she lived in Polo, Illinois. She was a constant attendant upon the church and Sabbath School and was beloved of all who knew her. All who feel her loss in the church and community will mingle tears of love with her sorrow smitten family over her grave. All will cherish fragrant memories of her devoted life, for the memory of the just is blessed. She leaves a husband, two sisters and four brothers to mourn her sad loss. We lay her body to rest under the winter snows—emblem of her pure spirit. Her work is done. The master called her and swift to obey her spirit fled. The gates of sunset opened, and now her spirit is with the Lord. She has exchanged the cross for the crown, a broken harp for a harp of gold. Her soul is full of glory, let ours not be overwhelmed with sorrow as though we had no hope.

The Handsomest Lady in Mifflintown and Patterson Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy as it stopped her cough instantly when others had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit, any druggist will give you a Sample Bottle Free. Large size 50c and $1.

MASON & HAMLIN PIANOS.

THE improved method of fastening the strings of pianos, invented by the Mason and Hamlin Organ and Piano Company a few years since, is unquestionably one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in its tones, as well as more durable, and less liable to get out of tune.

The Population of Mifflintown and Patterson is about 1600, and we would say at least one half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial size free. Sold by all druggists.

Notice.
