Lumber and wool, on the free list, and still there is a Democrat here and there that will argue that the Democratic leaders are not pushing toward free trade as fast as they can.

Teacher—Supposing that eight of you should together have 48 apples, 32 peaches, 56 plums and 16 melons, what would each of you have? Pupils (in chorus)—The stomach-ache.—Judge.

Rev. Philip Graif, preached in his church on Sunday, after several weeks of absence at Baltimore in attendance upon the last days of his mother whose funeral took place last week.

Last week was a week of victory for the base ball players of Mifflintown. In the games with Mifflin county nine, Lancaster county nine, and Thompsontown nine, the Mifflintown players were successful.

Don't allow machine oil to come in contact with a cut or scratch on you hands. Blood poisoning has resulted from such contact. The fat of diseased animals is sometimes used in the manufacture of such oils.

Between six and seven hundred industrial establishments were organized in the south within the past year. The South will not be solid this year for Cleveland, unless the vote is not allowed to be counted out.

The western anarchists are restless. Western Americans are not the kind of people to put up long with the tomfoolery of the anarchists, and the sooner the worthless foreigners realize that the better for them.

Last week, Bertha Leach, daughter of John Watson Leach, while running down hill, fell and sprained one of her wrists so badly that surgical attendance was necessary. Dr. Banks rendered the needed attention.

The Republican State Committee will meet in Parlor of Continental Hotel Philadelphia on Wednesday, August 8, to nominate a successor to the late Auditor General A. Wilson Norris. Auditor General McCamant, in all probability will receive the unanimous nomination.

If you need lumber, call on Emery McCahen. By the way Mr. McCahen is Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, and presumably is politically happy over the prospect of the passage of the Mills free trade bill which puts lumber on the free list.

If free trade will impose such a paradical state of society, it is queer that its advocates do not seek to live in the countries that come nearest to its practice. If it is such a good thing it is strange that the people of the countries that are nearest to its practice come to protection America.

The executive committee of the Juniata county Veteran Association met in the Democrat and Register office on Saturday afternoon the 21st inst., and adjourned to meet in the same place on Saturday afternoon the 28th inst., at 2 P. M. for the purpose of appointing a Committee to make arrangements for holding the annual Reunion.

Adopt free trade and a direct tax will have to be levied to run the general government; a direct tax such as is levied in the town and township for poor purposes and school purposes. John C. Calhoun the Democratic apostle of free trade was against tariff and instead advocated a direct tax. Cleveland is running his party in the direction of free trade, and direct taxation.

"It has been agreed that the Democratic conferees of the Berks-Lehigh district will meet on August 4, at the Girard House, Philadelphia, to name a candidate for Congress."—It is strange that the conference must go out of the district to make a nomination. Is Cleveland going to extinguish Sodan for voting against free wool, or what's up? is a question that is easier asked than answered.

Editors generally don't have time for flirtations, lace making and so forth, but so evil have the times become that a Kansas editor eloped with an other man's wife and was caught and jailed in St. Louis, and the wife of an Ohio editor eloped with a neighbor and has not been heard of since. The Ohio editor is a philosopher and says, as far as he is concerned if his wife only stays away he'll be satisfied. A newspaper might be filled with the accounts of elopements that took place the past month.

"On Sunday, July 29th, the corner stone of the proposed new Lutheran and Reformed St. Peters church, about four miles south of Richfield, is to be laid with appropriate religious ceremonies. There will be services in the forenoon and afternoon, in which the regular pastors, Revs. Schaeffer and Brown will have the assistance of able preachers from abroad. It is expected that the occasion will be a very interesting one, and the attendance of the Christian public is desired."

A large company of men, women and children assembled last Saturday afternoon to witness a great game of base ball between the picked nine of Forest and Stream Fishing Club of Columbia, who have been camped along Licking Creek between McCulloch's Mill and Hawn's Mill and the Cuban Giants of this town. The Giants were victorious and bore their honors with becoming modesty. The Forest and Stream Fishing Club nine, it is reported are great players.

"Jason," one of Huntingdon county's most famous newspapers contributors, sends the following to the Altoona Tribune: "I have recently found a remedy that relieves head-ache, from which I have suffered a great part of the time for many years. It was given me by a gentleman who had to give up business on account of his aching head, but who has been relieved by this remedy. I bought five cents worth (an ounce) of bromide of potash, put it in four ounces (about a gill) of water, and took a teaspoonful four times a day at first. It works wonders and I feel as if I had a new lease of life. Now I put a teaspoonful of the solution into a half cup of water and take it whenever my head aches or feels oppressed. I want all sufferers from headache to try this simple remedy.

A Washington D. C. newspaper man asks, "who set our fashions?" The same question was asked in Mifflintown some years ago by Rev. Geo. Benaugh one Sabbath morning in the course of his sermon. He asked the question. "Where do your fashions come from?" and he answered the question. "Well, you get your fashions from Philadelphia. Philadelphia gets the fashion from New York. New York gets her fashions from London. London gets her fashions from Paris, and Paris gets her fashions from the Devil." It is a question whether Rev. Benaugh's answer would be satisfactory to the Washington newspaper man.

Last Thursday, Wm. M. Allison, sat as commissioner in lunacy to hear evidence on the question of the capability of Mrs. Jane Gallagher to manage the affairs of her estate without wastefulness. The commission was instituted at the instance of Samuel A. Speddy, a nephew—she having no children—Speddy's affidavit of the incapability and unsoundness of mind of his aunt was supported by James North and Cornelius McClellan. A number of Witnesses testified to the point of the case and were attentively listened to by the following jury. James Kauffman, David Divin, Jacob A. Kauffman, John Jacobs, Kurtz Kauffman, John Adams. The jury adjudged Mrs. Gallahger incapable of managing her estate during the past five years. The report of the Commissioner will be presented to next court and in all probability will be followed by the appointment of a guardian under bond to care for Mrs. Gallagher and see to it that her estate is not wastefully expended.

The erring brethren have appropriated this motto: "A free Ballot and a fair count" and placed it on their banner that is suspended across Bridge street. It as a Republican motto; on using it the brethren have followed the example of the Confederates during rebellion when they appropriated—occasionally—the uniform of the boys in blue, and the stars and stripes to get near the union lines to get in a deadly fire before they were even suspected of being rebels in disguise. Wm. Books, son of Mr. Solomon Books of this place tells of his experience at the polls in Memphis, Tennessee, which is illustrative of the manner of the "free ballot and a fair count," of the southern allies of the northern Democrats. Books says that while he was at the polls in Memphis, a colored man came up shyly to vote. An officer demanded harshly, "What's your name." The colored man answered, "John Brown." The officer ran his finger down on the list of voters that he had in his hand and suddenly paused as if reading a name, then he looked at the colored man and said with a fearful expression: "Get out of this you son of a gun, you died of yellow fever, and we buried you three years ago."

From the Bloomfield Times: An old chap from Carroll township was in town on Friday last, and among other questions he asked was "what is all this talk about the Democrats carrying a bannana and what do they want to carry the bannana for?" * * * John Ripple, residing in Fishing Creek Valley, lay down under a tree for a rest on Tuesday last and soon fell asleep He was awakened by a feeling of suffocation and a terrible griping at his waist. He succeeded in getting home, telling his wife that he never felt such queer sensations in his life and then laid on the lounge while his wife loosened his pants and prepared to bathe his stomache with a hot liniment. When the pants were unbuttoned at the waist she was horrified to see a large blacksnake proceed to crawl out, and the suffocating feeling speedily left John, who eagerly aided his wife in killing the reptile. It had evidently crawled up the pant leg as the man was asleep and had coiled itself tightly around the body. John will hereafter tie a string around the bottom of his pants when he sleeps in the field. * * * See here!—We want some money.—Our subscribers in the county who are not coming to Court can send money by some neighbor who is coming. If no neighbor is coming the United States Mail is at the service of all, and our subscribers outside of the county should avail themselves of its use. We have hundreds of dollars lying around the country that we need here. Will you send them to us.

"Who learns and learns,
But acts not what he knows,
Is one who plows and plows,
But never sows.

Saltpeter Solution.

One teaspoonful in a pail of water. A pint poured around each hill of cucumbers or squashes is very good for the plants, and very bad for the bugs, both striped and black, which burrow at night in the earth about the plants. Cut-worms also are said to dislike earth treated with saltpeter. This is a remedy which certainly would be very useful to the plants, and if, as claimed, it destroys or keeps away insect marauders, it will prove most valuable.—Bulletin Vermont Experimental Station.

Grand Army Encampment.

A meeting of delegates from the counties composing the G. A. R. and Veteran Soldiers' Association of the Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys, was held in the Headquarters of Col. Huling Post, No. 176, on Saturday last, to perfect the arrangements for the encampment to be held in this place commencing Wednesday, Aug. 22 and closing Friday, Aug. 24. Reports from all the counties in the district are of such an encouraging nature that the officers feel able to say that the citizens of Lewistown will see the largest number of old soldiers and strangers during the three days' encampment that has ever been assembled in the county.

The first day will be devoted to receiving visiting delegations, &c. On the second day a grand parade of military, firemen and civic organizations.

Orations by Gov. Beaver, Gen'l J. P. S. Gobin, Dep't Commander Frank Magee, Post Department Commander Samuel Harper, Assistant Adjutant General Thomas Stewart and others. There will be a display of fireworks in the evening by Prof. Jackson, of Philadelphia. Third day, sham battle, &c.

Any other information concerning this reunion will be cheerfully furnished by the President of the Association, Hon. WALTER H. PARKER, Lewistown, Pa.

Cain's Wife.

Where did he get her?
Who was her brother?
Had she a sister?
Had she a mother?
Was she pre-Adamic—
Born before history—
With her identity
Shrouded in mystery?
Maid of Phoenicia,
Egypt, Arabia,
Africa, India,
Or sun kissed Suabia?
Who was her father?
Was he a viking,
Cruising about
Just to his liking;
Out of the Whenceness,
Over the water,
Into the Where,
Bringing his daughter?
Native of Norway,
Denmark or Sweden?
Lured by the charms
Of the Garden of Eden?
Blonde or brunette?
Rounded or slender?
Fiery or frigid?
Haughty or tender?
Why are her graces
Unknown to fame?
Where did Cain meet her?
What was her name?
Whisper it softly—
Say, can it be
The lady we seek
Was R. Haggard's "She?"
Tell me, ye sages,
Students of Life,
Answer my query:
Who was Cain's wife?

—Chicago News.

"Who is this Mr. Tariff so much is said about in the paper, Job?" queried Mrs. Shuttle, as she looked in vain for the "fashion notes" in the newspaper.

"Oh, well, he is a very important man, I guess. Everybody seems to be talking about him."

"He must be very popular?"

"Yes, and he will be elected, too."—Hartford Post.

MUSICAL COLLEGE—The 34th Session of SIX Weeks, opens Monday evening, July 30th, for the Teaching and Training of Young Ladies in Vocal and Instrumental Music. Address,

P. C. MOYER, Musical Director,
Fossburgh, Pa.

The Handsomest Lady in Mifflintown and Patterson Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy as it stopped her cough instantly when others had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit, any druggist will give you a Sample Bottle Free. Large size 50c and $1.

MASON & HAMLIN PIANOS.

THE improved method of fastening the strings of pianos, invented by the Mason and Hamlin Organ and Piano Company a few years since, is unquestionably one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in its tones, as well as more durable, and less liable to get out of tune.

The Population of Mifflintown and Patterson is about 1600, and we would say at least one half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial size free. Sold by all druggists.

I WISH TO STATE

A FEW FACTS

Worth Knowing,

That I can STOP TOOTHACHE in less than five minutes; no pain, no extracting.

That I can extract teeth without pain, by the use of a fluid applied to the teeth and gums; no danger.

That Diseased Gums (known as Scurvy) treat successfully and a cure warranted in every case.

Teeth FILLED and warranted for life.

Artificial Teeth repaired, exchanged or remoddled, from $9.00 to $12 per set. Beautiful Gum Rubberoid Teet inserted at prices to suit all.

All work warranted to give perfect satisfaction. People who have artificial teeth with which they cannot eat, are especially invited to call. I will visit professionally on the 2d Monday in each month by request.

Will visit regularly at Richfield the 2nd weeks of May and October.

TERMS—Cash.
