Mineral Springs' celebration.

Neighboring Counties.

Milk sells for four cents per quart in Pittston.

Mr. Jeremiah B. Shiffer is the new postmaster at Pittston. He takes possession July 1st.

Since the late disaster the parlor and smoking cars have changed places on Lehigh Valley trains.

The new "Ward House," of Towanda, has just been completed at a total cost, without furniture, of $25,182.95.

There will be a fourth of July celebration at Wyalusing. Hon. Geo. Landon has been invited to deliver the oration.

All the injured passengers of the late accident on the Pa. & N. Y. R. R., near Wyalusing, are getting well.

A young man from Auburn, who went to Texas this spring, has telegraphed home to his father:—"Fatted calf for one."

The Herald says that the jail of Wayne county is without a tenant, the last three prisoners having been discharged on Thursday of last week.

Judge Williams, of Wellsboro, started for Edinburgh, Scotland, on Wednesday of last week. He was accompanied by his wife and Mrs. James Bryden.

A Scranton man has been arrested for perjury. He swore that he had lost $1,500 by a recent fire, while the actual damage is said to have been only $250.

Scarlet fever of a mild type has attacked a number of persons in the 1st and 2nd wards of Scranton. The disease is raging with great fatality at Mt. Pleasant.

Alderman Post, of Scranton, has bound over to Court a woman of that city upon the charge of being a "common scold." This is a dangerous precedent, and other scolds had better beware.

A gentleman named France, of Trucksville, Luzerne county, while working in his garden the other day, dug up what he supposed was horse-radish and gave it to his two little girls who ate some of it and were seriously poisoned. It turned out to be poke root.

Paymaster Bissell, of the D. L. & W. R. R., and Captain Carling, while on their way to pay miners with $12,000, were attacked on the outskirts of Scranton, by two highwaymen, who fired on them, wounding Carling. The fire was returned and the robbers fled.

We learn from the Nicholson Item that the store of H. P. & C. S. Hallstead was visited by burglars on Wednesday night of last week, and about $100 worth of goods taken. The entrance was effected by sawing a hole in the door of the feed room, and from there they proceeded to the main part of the store. No clue as yet.

The Pennsylvania Coal Company has sold 200,000 tons of coal at auction this week, at lower prices than ever before known on the seaboard. It is fearful times when Anthracite sells at less than the cost of mining and transportation at the lowest possible wages, and coal stocks are the foot-ball of brokers. Del. & Hud. C. Co., is about 27 and has been even lower.—Carbondale Advance.

The Bradford Reporter says that about two weeks since a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, of Wells, aged three years strayed from her home and was lost in the woods. A general search was instituted for the missing one, which was continued for three days, about one hundred persons being engaged in it. The child was at last found about a mile and a half from home, in a very weak and feeble condition, having been more than twenty-four hours without food or drink.

A lady stopping at Binghamton received a day or two since a small package from Lincoln, Nebraska. On being opened it was found to contain a large Western grasshopper, which on being placed under a glass case in the sunlight soon became as active as ever. The 'hopper had been four days confined in a perfectly tight box, and was more interesting to the recipient, than it would be to a Western farmer.

Judge Rhone, of Luzerne county, has called for the vouchers for the items termed funeral expenses in a recent case heard in the orphans' court. The amount of the decedent's personal estate was $581.82, while the expenses of burial were returned by the administrator at $139.75. On the subject of extravagant funerals Judge Rhone says: "It is not necessary to have a pompous procession in great length, in which figure conspicuously waving plumes—the prancing livery steed, harnessed to finely upholstered vehicles—and a glistening silver plated casket in which is placed the cold clay clothed with raiment as costly as the richest he wore when living. Neither is a pile of carved marble with poetic inscriptions set over the tomb in a conspicous corner lot in the city of the dead, necessary for a Christian burial. Have the terms grave, coffin and shroud, been forgotten by everybody? Such parades as are called 'fine funerals' may gratify the vanity of the living, but no respect for the dead demands them, and where a decedent's estate is limited and his debts are not paid, or where he leaves a family of helpless children, the expenses of such burials will not be allowed out of his estate. Those who contract for and enjoy such luxuries must pay for them themselves."

State Items.

General Fitz Hugh Lee, nephew of Gen. R. E. Lee, is expected to visit Hazleton and vicinity, in the interest of Virginia emigration.

There will be no meeting of the Pennsylvania Reserves this year. The times are too hard and so many members are out of employment.

About $114,000 were disbursed to the shopmen at Altoona on the last pay day. The pay next month is not expected to be more than $90,000.
