LATE FIRE IN JERSEY CITY.

MR. SILAS C. HERRING—Sir: It gives us great pleasure to state that a Safe of your make was the means of preserving our books and valuable papers, together with a lot of Silver Spoons, Forks, &c., from destruction by the fire that occurred in our store on the night of the 27th ult. at No. 45 Montgomery st. The fire commenced near the Safe, which, owing to its situation on a wall, did not fall into the cellar, but was exposed to the full heat of the fire from its commencement, and when taken from the ruins had all the brass plates and knobs completely melted off.
Yours, R. H. EARLE & Co.

Great Fire in Strawberry st.—Letter from Lewis & Co.

Philadelphia, March 29, 1852.

MR. JOHN FARRELL—Sir: It affords me much satisfaction to inform you that the "Herring Salamander Safe," which we purchased of you a short time since, preserved our books and papers in good condition, during the severe ordeal through which they passed at the disastrous conflagration that took place at our warehouse on the morning of the 28th instant, when the safe was exposed to the most intense heat for some hours, and when taken from the flames was red hot on several sides. We make this statement by way of bearing testimony to the worth of these valuable Fire Proofs.
Very respectfully, Lewis & Co.
