NEW JERSEY ELECTION.—But one Democrat has been elected to Congress, the rest of the five being Whigs. The State Senate will consist of ten Whigs and Americans to ten Democrats. In the House the Whigs and Americans are largely in the majority. The Fusion majority against the Democratic party is over 6975 on the Congressional vote; a most astonishing revulsion of popular sentiment since the last Presidential election.

MARRIED,

In Harford, by Rev. A. Miller, on the 16th ult., Mr. C. BRUNDAGE, of Clifford, to Miss NANCY I. TANNER, of Harford.

ABEL TURRELL

HAS resumed the DRUG and Fancy Goods business in the lower part of the town, on Maine street, near Keeler's tavern.
Montrose, November 15, 1854.

REMOVAL.

KEELER & STODDARD, since the late fire, may be found in the BASEMENT OF SEARLE'S HOTEL. Notwithstanding the unprecedented rapidity with which our stock of Boots, Shoes, &c., "went off" on the morning of the fire, we still have some on hand, and shall soon be well supplied again.
KEELER & STODDARD.
Montrose, November 13. 1854.

REMOVAL.

WE take this method to invite our friends around the corner, to our new location, only a few rods easterly of our old, and to give general notice that we are offering such great bargains as are likely soon to make this the business part of the town. Dont forget to drive around to Chestnut street, and you will find us in the East end of B. R. Lyons' building.

BENTLEY & READ

Montrose, November 14, 1854.

TIRE subscribers being severe sufferers from the late destructive Fire, have removed with what little remains of their stock, to the new buildings on the Avenue, opposite W. L. & S. H. Mulford's store, where they will be happy to see all their friends and customers, and hope in the course of some ten days to be able to greet them with an entirely NEW STOCK OF GOODS.

We first that some of our customers who have been long in debt, will remember that this is a time of special need with us, and do as they would be done by.

NOTICE!

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that letters testamentary upon the estate of Julia Ann Park, late of the Borough of Montrose, deceased, have been granted to the subscriber. All persons indebted to said estate are hereby requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims upon said estate to present them duly attested for settlement.

John Groves' Advertisement.

AS nature, who furnishes the birds and beasts with an extra coat for winter, has not made a similar provision for man, I have concluded to take it upon myself to attend to that department; and therefore I think proper to announce that all shivering male bipeds, that need new apparel, glorious or inglorious, fashionable or unfashionable, can have their wants supplied and their tastes suited by calling on me, at my shop in Montrose.

Donation.

There will be a donation for the benefit of the Rev. John Anderson, at Zion Church, Pleasant Valley, Montrose, on Thursday, Nov. 16th. Services in the Church in the evening of that day.

New Goods at the Ready Pay Store.

G. & W. H. FULLER

HAVE just received their Fall stock of Goods, which they are prepared to sell as heretofore, on the most favorable terms for ready pay.

The additions made to our former purchases, give us now a large and well assorted stock of Goods, favorably adapted to the wants of the people of this vicinity. Our stock is comprised of Dry Goods, Books and Stationery, Ready-made Clothing, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, a large stock of Wall Papering, Yankee Notions, a full stock of Groceries, Flour, Salt &c. &c.

If our friends will call upon us, we will convince them that the ready pay system is the most advantageous to all concerned. G. & W. H. FULLER.
Montrose, September 21, 1854.

OUR STOCK OF STOVES

IS NOW COMPLETE—and we would take this opportunity to say that we can show the most beautiful and splendid patterns of Parlor and Cooking Stoves to be found in the county. Among them can be seen the Revolving Front and Gothic Parlor, for wood or coal, entirely new and decidedly pretty stoves. Prices from five to ten dollars. Of Cooking Stoves we think it needless to say much, only to remark, that we are selling them at our former prices, and judging from the rapidity of our sales, we believe the public are entirely satisfied with our prices and the quality of our wares. We have "a few more left" of the "Clinton Air-tight Elevated Oven Stove," acknowledged to be the best cooking stove now in use. Russia and English Stove Pipe at old prices, and Trimmings and Tin ware of all descriptions at the very lowest rates. J. DICKERMAN, jr.
New Milford, October 23, 1854.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

THE subscriber is carrying on the CHAIR MAKING BUSINESS in all its various branches at the Chair and Ware Shop in Harford, where may be found a greater variety of Windsor and Rocking Chairs than at any other establishment in the county; also Flag and Cane Seats, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Lounges, Settees, Tables, Stands, &c. &c., all of which will be sold at the lowest prices at retail, (or wholesale, with short notice.) All work warranted well made and of good material. Short credits and small profits will be my motto. For demonstration of the above facts, please call at my shop in Harford village.
A. W GREENWOOD.
Harford, October 12, 1854. 1546m6

STOLEN.

THE person who took a Green French Merino Dress Pattern from the store of the subscriber can have an opportunity of returning it privately, and no explanation required, if done soon; otherwise exposure and prosecution will follow, as the transaction is understood. H. BURRITT.
New Milford, October 13, 1854.

FELLOW CITIZENS,

YOU have just achieved a signal triumph. On the bloodless field of Peace, with "Freedom for your watchword and the "terror of Kings" for your battle-axe, you have wrought a revolution which in the Old World would have shaken off the crown, if not the head of every despot, and buried him beneath the shattered ruins of his own throne. And now amid your high rejoicings and the jubilant shouts of victory on every hand, I beseech you forget not those humble companions who clung to your standards in the days of your adversity and defeat, and who are with you now in prosperity and success, especially your old patriotic friend, THE DENTIST,
Who on the sunny heights of far famed Montavue,
Has met your deadliest enemy and won the victory too.
Entrenched within his gates of pearl, upon his ebon thrones,
He wears a crown of aching nerves, and speaks in human groans,
Hollows beauty's round cheek, clouds the sweet maiden's smile,
Fills his empire with tortures no power can beguile,
From the bright brow of childhood steals the roseate bloom,
And shrouds the visage of manhood with sepulchral gloom.
This fog to rest, and health, and bloom, the worst in all creation,
We seize, though armed to the teeth, and rout by excavation.
And now like Whigs and Democrats, and the Know Nothing too,
Since we have got the reins of power, we'll show what we can do.
We'll purge these "Augean stables" of the opposition clan,
And then with pure material will fill them up again,
And though hostile politicians differ widely in their views,
Of the contra sets of measures that each in turn may choose,
Yet in reference to our policy we sure shall not be told
That nauseous filth and rottenness should be prefered to gold,
Nor that when any system has grown rotten in the bone
The powers that did the mischief should not be overthrown.
This, then is what we do in the empire of the jaws,
The shiny tyrants we expel, and abrogate their laws.
If aught valuable remains, that our preserving purpose suits,
We cleanse and save it, all the rest we pull out by the roots.
Then on the ruins, by our art, we quickly rear again
An arch of burning Gold, with colonnades of Porcelain.
And now our figure to complete, we only have to say,
These wondrous transformations all are done for pay.
C. D. VIRGIL, Surgeon Dentist.
