The People's Candidates.

FOR PRESIDENT,

WM. H. HARRISON.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

FRANCIS GRANGER

Democratic Antimasonic Candidate for Governor,

JOSEPH RITNER.

On Thursday last we accepted the polite invitation given us, and took a ride in the car by the rail road to Newville.—We found the ride an exceedingly pleasant one. The road is finished in a style which excited the admiration of every one. We could not but particularly admire, a curve about five miles above our town for its beauty and regularity. On our arrival at Newville, we found a handsome dinner prepared by Colonel Woodburn, to which we sat down with an appetite highly sharpened by our ride, and by the flavour of the good things so bountifully provided. After an afternoon of enjoyment, we returned in high spirits to our accustomed avocations.

Cponing of the 2d Division of the Cumberland Valley Rail Road.

Our readers will be pleased to learn that the rail road is so near to completion, that in a few days, cars will run the entire distance from the river Susquehanna to Chambersburg: The Company have made arrangements for opening it on Thursday next, at which time those who may have received special invitations will be afforded an opportunity of a ride to Chambersburg.

On Friday the cars will be appropriated for the accommodation of the Military—and on Saturday for the citizens generally of the town and vicinity.

It is certainly a matter of great rejoicing that this important road on the great western thoroughfare is now ready for use; and great praise is due to the Company and to the Engineers for their successful perseverance under the difficulties and embarrassments arising from the confusion into which all money matters have been thrown by a glorification administration.

Port Deposit Bank.

We understand that this Institution, which suspended operations about three years since, is making arrangements to commence operation in the course of a short time. There is, we believe, much of the paper of this bank in the possession of the people of Cumberland and Perry counties. Speculators are now amongst us endeavoring to purchase it for a few cents in the dollar, with the almost absolute certainty of having it redeemed at its full nominal value. We therefore advise all holders of this paper to keep it until the bank shall resume operations.

The Lady's Book.

The November number of the Lady's Book is received, and contains, if possible, a richer variety than any of its predecessors. There are fifteen original pieces all of which are of superior order, besides a goodly quantity of well selected matter.

This work seems to increase in value from month to month, and as in the next year, Miss Leslie will add her assistance, our fair readers may expect much without fear of being disappointed.

We perceive by the advertisment for the coming year—which we shall insert in our next—that accompanies the present number, that, in addition to what has heretofore been given to the subscribers of this work, each number will be embellished with a beautiful colored plate of the fashions.

We shall be pleased to send on the names of any of our fair friends who are anxious to take the work.

Harrison Meeting.

A meeting of the friends of Gen. HARRISON was held in this borough last evening. As our paper is ready for press, we have room only to state, that the meeting was ably and eloquently addressed by C. B. Penrose, Esq. We were glad to see several in attendance who have heretofore battled manfully for Jackson, but who are not disposed to assist Martin Van Buren in his ruinous war on the interests of our country. Old Tippecanoe in 1840 will receive a tremendous vote in Old Mother Cumberland.

Foreign Influence.

The Pittsburg Times of Wednesday last, has the following in reference to the foreign influence which will be brought to bear on the coming election in this state for Governor. Is it not time that Pennsylvanians should arouse and show the "powers that be" at Washington, that they will no longer brook their interference in our elections. "We understand that a Van Buren member of Congress, on his way home from the special session, stated in this city, that it had been arranged at Washington, that John Klingensmith, of Westmoreland, was to be the Sub-Treasury candidate for Governor. The rumor of a projected change in the cabinet gives a probability to this story. Mr. Buchanan is to vacate his seat in the Senate, and go into the cabinet—Muhlenburg will be brought forward as a candidate to fill Buchanan's place and thus afford an opportunity for the New Man party to exhibit some semblances of unity and friendship."

"I put this Ball in Motion."

Glorious News!

We are happy—very happy—to have it in our power to present to our readers the soul-cheering intelligence that NEW YORK has come out and proved herself sound to the core, giving Mr. Van Buren a tremendous reproof. Our Philadelphia papers of Saturday bring us intelligence down to Friday, at which time the returns from every quarter of the State were most favorable, far exceeding the anticipations of the most sanguine. In the city of New York, where the most desperate efforts were made by the Loco Foco's, the Whig ticket has succeeded by the handsome majority of near THREE THOUSAND; and this too, notwithstanding the fact that a great many have left the City, in consequence of the ruin of their prospects by the measures of a reckless administration.

In the State, as far as heard from, our friends have carried all before them, having elected 43 members of Assembly, while the Van Burenites have elected NOT ONE! In these same counties last year, the Van Burenites had thirty-five members, and our friends only eight, making our gain this year, equal to the whole number of the opposition last year. The Whig and Anti-Masonic gain at the present moment, stands at near FIFTEEN THOUSAND VOTES.

This is cheering intelligence, truly, and we most cordially join in the loud congratulations which reach us from every quarter. It is a severe blow to the hopes and wishes of Van Buren; and coming, as it does, from those who were once his warm friends, must cut to the very heart, causing him to experience feelings similar to him who exclaimed, "Et tu brute?"

We shall hold our paper back until after the arrival of this day's mail, that we may let our readers have the latest intelligence.

POSTSCRIPT.

The Philadelphia Inquirer of yesterday says, 'We have further and, if possible, still more glorious intelligence from New York. The State is fully and wholly redeemed and disenthralled. From Canada to New Jersey, and from Lake Erie to the sea, the people have risen to the rescue, and swept the minions of corruption before them, as chaff before the wind. The triumph is the greatest that has ever been achieved in this country. Such an over whelming change in public opinion and in the course of so short a period, is without precedent in our history. But a few months since, Martin Van Buren's majority in the empire State, was nearly 30,000 votes. Now, in the same State—the state of his birth, the cradle of his political existence—he is in a minority of 20,000!!!

EIGHTY-TWO Whigs and SEVEN Vanocrats elected to the Legislature

The Pittsburg Times.

This establishment has passed into the hands of A. W. Foster, jr. Esq. by whom it will hereafter be conducted. By the following extracts from his inaugural, it will be seen that the editor will boldly and fearlessly battle for the cause of "Antimasonry and the Supremacy of the Laws." He has nailed to the mast head the name of JOSEPH RITNER, as our candidate for Governor at the next election. "Old Tippecanoe" will also receive his ardent support. We wish the editor success in his new undertaking.

"In taking charge of the Times, the new editor states plainly and unequivocally, that he flings open to the breeze the broad banner of political antimasonry; and will uphold it with what strength he possesses "against all the enemies and opposers whatsoever;" we have made up our mind to hard work; but we have put our hand to the plough.

"We believe that the author of the letter to Sherrod Williams' is the President of a party and not of the people.

"We believe he is endeavoring to make public officers independent of, and superior to, their masters.

"We believe he is endeavoring to divorce the Government from the people, by creating two currencies; gold for the office-holders and rags for the people.

"For these, and numerous other reasons, we shall oppose his re-election.

"We will support the nominee of the Democratic Antimasonic National Convention; and in the mean time, will endeavor to convince our friends that William H. Harrison should be the man of their choice. This task we expect to find a very easy one."

We acknowledge the receipt of the first number of volume 2d of the Eclectic Journal of Medicine, edited by Dr. Bell of Philadelphia, & published by Messrs. Haswell, Barrington & Co. Although not medical men ourselves, yet from a hasty perusal of it, we feel no hesitancy in recommending the work to the profession, as one well meriting their approbation. The selections and original papers which it contains, evinces a good judgment on the part of the editor. We hope a work conducted with so much spirit and energy will be liberally patronized by the sons of a liberal profession.

Hurrah for Cumberland.

The West Chester Register and Examiner has an article about big pumkins, in which they yield the palm to Lancaster county, as the pumpkin of the latter county weighed 195 lbs. while that of Chester county weighed only 161 lbs. But this is all a matter of moonshine, compared with what has been accomplished within the bounds of our own borough. Mr. Robert Eckles from a single vine, raised six pumpkins of the following weights, 200, 160, 145, 128, 120 and 117, the argest measuring 7 feet 1 inch in circumference. Beat this who dare.

We copy the following article from the Hagerstown Torch Light, knowing that many of our readers are anxious to know the result of the proceeding had between the Rev. Mr. Wynkoop and several of the members of his Congregation. "Many of our readers will recollect that considerable excitement was produced, in this neighborhood, in the latter part of 1836 and early part of 1837, by the arraignment and trial, before the session of the Presbyterian Church, in Hagerstown, of several members of said church, which resulted in the publicly reading out of church of all the members thus arraigned and tried. Among the number was the editor of this paper. He appealed to the Presbytery of Carlisle, and that body at its meeting in April last, sustained his appeal by a vote of 20 to 2, or 10 to 1. From the decision, the Rev. Mr. Wynkoop, on behalf of the Session of the Hagerstown Congregation, appealed to the Synod of Philadelphia. The case came up before Synod, at its late session in Baltimore, when the decision of Presbytery was sustained by an almost unanimous vote—so much so, that not even a count was required or called for.

The final minute of Synod in the case, thus unanimously adopted, does not, however, stop at merely sustaining the decision of Presbytery. It goes one step further, (according to our recollection, for we speak from memory not yet having obtained an authenticated copy of the minute) and reproves session for having commenced process in the premises upon 'weak and insufficient' grounds.

Further, Synod has appointed, (notwithstanding Mr. Wynkoop's decided opposition to the measure) a committee to visit the Hagerstown congregation. That committee consists of

Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Shippensburg;
Rev. Mr. Watson, of Gettsyburg;
Rev. Mr. M'Kinley, of Carlisle;
Mr. M'Clure, of do. and
Col. Agnew, of M'Connellsburg.

Mr. Wynkoop has appealed to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States. That body will meet in Philadelphia in May next, when the case will probably be finally put to rest.

MARRIED.

On Thursday morning the 9th instant, by the Rev. Mr. Greenleaf, Rector of St. Johns Church, Carlisle, Edward B. Grubb, Esq. of Mount Hope, Lancaster county, to Miss Eleonora B. second daughter of Isaac B. Parker, Esq. of Carlisle.

On Thursday the 12th of October, by the Rev. N. J. Stroh, Mr. Jacob Powners to Miss Margret Age, all of Shippensburg.

By the Rev. D. P. Rosenmiller, on the 19th ult. Mr. Peter Tobias, to Miss Eliza Jane Hale, both of this county.

On Thursday the 24 inst. by the Rev. John M'Culloch, Mr. Charles S. M'Culloch, to Miss Sarah, daughter of Mr. John Black, both of Dickinson township.

On Thursday evening last, by the Rev. J. Ulrich, Mr. David Cormany, to Miss Mary Kitch, all of this place.

STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with the usages of the Democratic Antimasonic Party of Pennsylvania, a State Convention for the nomination of a suitable candidate to be supported for the office of Governor of the commonwealth, at the next general election, will be held in Harrisburg on the fourth day of March next (1838.)

The county committees of the several counties are therefore respectfully requested to take the necessary measures to have their respective counties or districts represented in the Convention by a number of Delegates equal to the number of their Senators and Representatives in the State Legislature, so that there may be a full, and equal expression of the wishes of the whole party in the selection of the candidate. The accomplishment of that object by the convention, is all that is necessary to produce the complete triumph of the cause.

A CARD.

The Cumberland Valley Rail Road Company, intend to open their road from the River Susquehanna to Chambersburg on Thursday next, and to invite strangers from a distance to partake with them in the ceremony. The Managers have it not in their power to accommodate all who might desire to join them, and they are therefore obliged to limit the number of invitations to citizens of Carlisle and east of it, to a very few, that those who reside west of it, and have not had an opportunity of gratifying their curiosity heretofore, may be accommodated. Cards of invitation will be given by the Managers.

Carlisle, Nov. 11, 1837.

Pennsylvania Reporter and State Journal.

Is published at Harrisburg, twice a week during the session of the Legislature, and once a week during the recess.

The Reporter has been, and will continue to be, a firm and unwavering laborer in the cause of Democracy;—an advocate of the principles of the Administration of the General Government—an untiring opponent of the party which rules in the Executive Department of the State, and which has trampled upon the rights, and wantonly disregarded the will of the People of Pennsylvania.

As the ensuing session will be one of more than ordinary importance, the proprietor has made such arrangements as will enable him to give full and satisfactory reports of the proceedings of the Legislature, and to realize the expectations of those who may patronize the Reporter as a vehicle of Legislative information.

The terms of the Reporter and Journal, are,

Per annum,	$3 00
During the session,	2 00

Any agent or other persons forwarding $10, or becoming responsible therefore, will have six copies forwarded, as may be directed, during the the session of the Legislature.

Persons forwarding names of subscribers are requested to be particular in stating whether the subscriptions are to continue for the year or the session.

Semi-Weekly Intelligencer.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

The approaching session of the Legislature promises to be one of unusual interest, and hence the spirit of its sittings cannot fail of being momentously interesting to the general public. The Intelligencer will be issued SEMI-WEEKLY, pending the session of that body. We, therefore, solicit the support of the friends of HARRISON & RITNER to aid us in our enterprise. We design employing competent Reporters, who will faithfully and impartially note the proceedings of both branches of the Legislature. The dominant party have come under solemn promises to devise a remedy for the existing diseased state of the currency, it will be not among the least amusing and ludicrous incidents in the history of that party, to observe the indifference with which those sundry pledges will be regarded and the complacency with which they will be violated. The majority must restore the circulation of specie, and bring back to its wonted regularity and soundness, the monetary affairs of this State, or a thousand promises will be broken. The action of this body on the internal improvement question, will also be of interest.

During the sitting of the Legislature, a number of Conventions will assemble at the seat of government, the transactions of which, will be of no ordinary interest to the people, and it shall be our steady and constant care to advise our readers of the import of their deliberations.

The Constitutional Convention, now in session, will doubtless prolong its session for some months yet to come, and consequently regular reports of their proceedings shall also have a place in this paper.

In short, it shall be the constant endeavor of the editors to collate and embody in the columns of the Intelligencer, as great an amount of interesting matter as practicable, and no pains or expense will be spared, at any time, to render this paper the vehicle of the latest and most important news, on all subjects of general interest.

TERMS:

For the Session, twice a week,	$2 00
For the whole year,	3 00

SIX COPIES will be sent to any place during the session, for $10, if paid in advance.

A liberal discount will be given to persons at a distance, disposed to act as agents for the Intelligencer.

AN ORDINANCE,

TO REGULATE THE MARKETS.

Section 1. The Town Council of the Borough of Carlisle ordain: that the inner stalls and area of the Market House shall be exclusively appropriated to butchers and retailers of meat, who shall use the stalls or spaces between the columns for the purpose of exposing their meat for sale. The outer stalls or benches shall be exclusively appropriated to the venders of provisions and articles other than meat by less measure or quantity than a quarter, which shall not there be exposed for sale: and any person or persons offending against the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay to the Borough of Carlisle the sum of one dollar.

Sect. 2. No butcher or retailer of meat by less quantities than a quarter shall occupy any stall of the Market House without first having obtained a license therefor from the Borough Treasurer, and having paid for said license the sum which shall be fixed as the annual rent of such stall, as he or they may select: a stall, being the space between any two of the columns which support the building. And any one offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar for each offence.

Sect. 3. It shall be lawful for any vender of provisions or articles other than a retailer of meat by less quantities than a quarter, to have a space upon the outer benches of the Market House appropriated to his, her or their exclusive use, he, she or they having first obtained a license therefor from the borough Treasurer, and paid for the same at the rate per annum which shall be fixed by the Borough Authorities, from time to time And during the time for which the said license shall be so granted, it shall be unlawful for any one else to occupy the space so appropriated; and any one offending against this provision, shall forfeit and pay to the person interrupted, the sum of one dollar.

Sect. 4. It shall be lawful for a person or persons to occupy a stall or half a stall, and the area of the market place, for the purpose of vending meat, for a market day, having first paid to the clerk of the market, such price for the occupation of the same, as shall be fixed from time to time by the authorities of the Borough.

Sect. 5. It shall be unlawful for any person to buy any article of provisions, (groceries, all kinds of grain, and bread only excepted,) after the hour of sunset of the evening of the day preceding the markets, as established by the charter, except in the Market House.—And it shall be unlawful for any person to retail any article of provision (except as before excepted) in shops or houses, within the said Borough, without first having obtained a license for that purpose from the Treasurer of the Borough, and paid for the same such price as shall be fixed therefor. And any one offending against these provisions, shall forfeit and pay, for the use of the Borough, the sum of one dollar for each offence.

Sect. 6. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, who have obtained a license as aforesaid, to retail provisions, to purchase within the usual Market hours, any article or articles of provision, above the quantity herein limited, to wit: Half a bushel of buckwheat or corn meal, 4 quarts of any kind of nuts, 2 dozen of eggs, six pounds of butter, 12 bushels of potatoes, one bushel of fruit, 20 pounds of meat, (unless a single piece should exceed 20 pounds.) And any person offending against this provision, shall forfeit and pay to the Borough, the sum of five dollars.

Sect. 7. If any person shall hereafter sell or offer for sale, any butter which shall be found not to be of full weight, such butter shall be forfeited for the use of the Borough, to be sold by the Clerk of the Market, and the proceeds paid over into the hands of the Treasurer.

Sect. 8. It shall be unlawful to bring to market for sale, unwholesome, bad, or unmarketable provisions; and any one offending against this provision shall forfeit and pay to the Borough the sum of five dollars for each offence. And it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Market immediately to remove the offensive article.

Sect. 9. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Borough to issue a license to any person or persons applying for the same, entitling him, her or them, to the exclusive use and occupancy during market hours, of any stall or stalls in the area of the Market place, or any space or spaces on the outer benches, for a term not more than one year, nor less than three months: the applicant or applicants therefor, paying to the Treasurer the following annual rent, to wit—For stalls Nos. 1 and 26, the sum of twelve dollars; for stalls Nos. 2 and 25, the sum of 10 dollars; for stalls Nos. 12 and 13, the sum of 11 dollars, and for stalls Nos. 11 and 14, the sum of nine dollars. For all other stalls in the North East wing of the Market House, the sum of nine dollars; and for all other stalls in the South West wing of the Market House, the sum of eight dollars. And the applicant or applicants, for a space or spaces on the outer benches of the Market House, paying to the said Treasurer, the annual rent of two dollars for a space of four feet, or one dollar and a half for a space of three feet, as marked, designated and numbered on the said benches, which said several rents shall be paid quarterly in advance. And it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer to keep an entry in a book for that purpose, of the numbers of each and every stall and space, and the names of the persons to whom the license therefor has issued, and the time for which it has issued.

Sect. 10. It shall be unlawful to use any fraud, force or violence in the act of purchasing or removing, or attempting to remove any article or articles of provision without the consent of the owner. And it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, to use any fraudulent or dishonest practice either in buying or selling during market hours in the market place; and any one offending against these provisons shall forfeit and pay the Borough for the use of the person injured the sum of two dollars.

Sect. 11. It is hereby ordained that the stands to be used by butchers in cutting up their meat, shall be made of plank about three inches thick, with feet to stand upon, of a proper heigth, and to be in length, not exceeding four feet, and in breadth not exceeding two feet six inches; and that the same shall not be suffered to remain in the Market House, except in Market hours, unless the same shall be so turned upon the permanent benches between the columns as that the outer surface thereof, shall not be exposed to filth or uncleanness. And no person or persons shall bring within the Market House or the enclosure which surrounds the same any block, dray, cart, wagon, carriage of any kind, or any other thing not authorized by this ordinance. And it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to bring into and leave within the said enclosure any head, feet or the offal of any animal; and any person or persons offending against any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay for each offence the sum of two dollars.

Sect. 12. It is hereby ordained that the Clerk of the market, shall always keep for the use of the corporation exact standard weights and measures, as the same are or shall be fixed by the laws of Pennsylvania, and that it shall be his duty once in every three months, or oftener if he shall be thereto required, to try the weights and measures of all inhabitants of the said borough, who buy or sell by weight or measure, and all and every weight or measure used in the said borough either for buying or selling, which shall be found either greater or less than the standard weight or measure, shall be taken into the custody of the said clerk, whose duty it shall be under the direction of the burgesses or either of them to reduce or to increase the same to the true standard, and the expense of doing the same shall be paid to the Borough by the person owing or occuping the said weights or measures, and if any person or persons within the said borough shall knowingly sell any article by weight or measure under the just standard so to be kept or shall buy by any weight or measure above such standard, he she or they on being thereof duly convicted, for every such offence shall forfeit and pay for the use of the corporation the sum of ten dollars, and shall also forfeit the said weights or measures.—And if any inhabitant within the said borough using any weights or measures for the purpose of buying or selling, shall refuse on demand being made in the day time by the said clerk of the market, to produce or deliver the said weights or measures by which he either buys or sells, to the said clerk, for the purpose of being tested by the said standard weights and measures, and being thereof legally convicted shall for every such offence forfeit and pay to the use of the said corporation the sum of twenty dollars. And it shall be the duty of the clerk of the market to attend every market morning at the market house, where the said standard weights and measures shall be kept, in the house provided for keeping the same, and all articles offered for sale (other than butter, put up in precise quantity) the price of which shall depend upon weight or measure, shall if brought to the said house, be by him justly weighed and measured, and he shall be paid by the seller for weighing each draft not exceeding ten pounds, one cent; and if over ten and not exceeding twenty pounds, two cents;—and if exceeding twenty and not exceeding fifty pounds, three cents; and if more than fifty and not exceeding one hundred pounds, four cents; and if more than one hundred pounds, six cents; and for measuring all kinds of articles sold by the bushel, or less quantity, he shall receive if under half a bushel, one cent for each measure; if above half a bushel and not more than one bushel, two cents; and two cents for every bushel he shall have so measured in addition. And if the said clerk shall be called upon by any person or persons buying or selling any articles by weight or measure, to weigh or measure the same at any other time than on the morning of the prescribed market days, and within market hours, the seller shall pay to the said clerk double the rates above mentioned.

Sect. 13. No huckster or seller of cakes shall be permitted to occupy any stall or sit within the line of posts and foot pavements put around the Market House, with intention to sell at any other time than during market hours; nor shall they then occupy the Market house unless they have a license for that purpose, under the penalty of one dollar to be paid to the Borough.

Sect. 14. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to cut, break, mash, deface or otherwise injure the Market House or the enclosures around the same, or any other improvement or ornament which now is, or hereafter shall be made, within the said Market House Square or any other of the public Squares of the Borough; or to cut, break, mark, deface or otherwise injure, any public building or house of worship which now is, or hereafter may be, enclosed within any of the public squares of the Borough: and it shall be unlawful for any crowd of men or boys to assemble in the Market house or enclosures, or either of them, for the purpose of amusement or otherwise, and for any person or persons to use or occupy the benches in the said Market House for any purpose whatever, except during Market hours; and any person or persons offending against the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay to the said Borough the sum of twenty dollars.

Sect. 15. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to construct and put up in the said Market house, or cause the same to be done, any beam, hook or device for any purpose whatever in addition to the same as at present constructed, without first having obtained the consent of the Town Council thereto, and any person offending against this provision shall forfeit and pay the sum of two dollars: and the Clerk of the Market is hereby required to remove the same.

Sect. 16. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer once in every three months to furnish to the Clerk of the market a list of the persons who have paid for and taken out licenses for stalls or places in the Market House, and if any of the said stalls shall be occupied or used by any person or persons who have not taken out a license for the same, it shall be the duty of the said Clerk immediately to make report in writing thereof to the Treasurer, whose duty it shall be to procure process to be issued against such person or persons for the collection of the penalties imposed by this act. Provided, however, that any person or persons may obtain permission from the Clerk of the market to occupy a stall or half a stall in the said Market House for one day during market hours, first paying therefor to the said Clerk the sum of fifty cents for the use of a stall or twenty-five cents for half a stall. And if the Clerk of the Market shall neglect or refuse to perform the duties required of him by this act he shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty cents for each individual so occupying the stall or stalls without license, and for each and every market day the same shall be so occupied.

Sec. 17. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to grant and issue a license to any person or persons applying for the same to retail provisions of any kind or to keep and maintain an oyster or eating house within the said Borough for the term of one year, he, she or they so applying for the same having first paid to the said Treasurer the sum of two dollars; and any person or persons who shall keep or maintain an oyster or eating house in the said Borough without having obtained a license therefor shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars.

Sect. 18. It shall be the duty of the High Constable on the second Saturdays of April, July, October, and January, to make due enquiry & report to the Treasurer, all and every person or persons, retailers of provisions within this borough; and if any person or persons shall be found retailing without a license, the Treasurer shall cause process to be issued against such person or persons so offending, for the penalties in such case provided.

Sect. 19. It is hereby ordained that the space on the South and East sides of the Market House are hereby appropriated during market hours for the use of wagons, carts, or carriages, and the owner or driver thereof shall back his wagon, cart, or carriage in such way as that the hind part thereof shall be next the Market House, and any person or persons the owner or driver of a wagon, cart, or carriage, who shall suffer the same to remain any length of time during market hours in any other position shall forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar. And it is hereby also ordained that wagons ladened with wood, rails, boards, or other lumber shall not be permitted, during market hours, to occupy any of the space on the South or East side of the Market House, and any person or persons offending against this provision shall forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar.

Sect. 20. It is hereby ordained that all laws heretofore passed, which are altered or supplied by this ordinance are hereby repealed. Passed the 31st October, 1837.

FRED'K WATTS,
President of Town Council.

Attest—James W. Hoff, Clerk.
