SELECT

Institute for Ladies,

No. 6, Fayette street,
Near the Battle Monument, Baltimore.

REV. JOHN F. HEY,

(Late Instructor in Dickinson Institution, Carlisle, Pa.)

Respectfully informs the public, that he will open, early in April next, a Select Institute for Ladies.

Modifications.

Limited to thirty pupils. Lectures delivered on the Sciences at stated periods through the Sessions. Government mild but inflexible. Vacation four weeks in August.

Sessions.

I. From the 1st September to the 23rd of November.
II. From the 24th November to the 16th of February.
III. From the 17th February to the 11th of May.
IV. From the 12th May to the 4th August (all inclusive.

Terms.

ENGLISH LITERATURE, per session, $15 00.
Ancient and Modern LANGUAGES, DRAWING, PAINTING, MUSIC,
Vocal and Instrumental, at the usual rates, additional.

Proportionate reductions made for pupils entering after the opening of a session.

Text Books, &c., furnished, if required, at the customary prices.

With an experience of more than twenty years, as a teacher of both Ladies and Gentlemen; with the uniform approvals he has received, the eligibility of his Academy, and the facilities it offers; and with the intention judiciously to promote the acquisition of useful and polite learning, and faithfully to guard the morals of his pupils, Mr Hey presents himself before the public as a candidate for a portion of its patronage; hoping not only to receive but to deserve its support.

A few pupils will be received as boarders, at $50 per session, tuition included.

Applications for admission can be made at Armstrong & Berry's, or Isaac P. Cook's Bookstores, Market street, until the 1st of April, when applications can be made at the Institute.

Miles' Compound Extract of

TOMATO,

The Celebrated substitute for Calomel.

THIS excellent article having stood the test of experience elsewhere, is offered to the public with confidence, that those afflicted with diseases in which Calomel, or any of the peculiar preparations are indicated, will find relief from its use. Its perfect applicability in affections of the liver, and in fact in all visceral obstructions, has been fully tried and the decision of public opinion, as well as a great number of the most respectable Physicians, has been given in its favor. It is particularly recommended in liver diseases, obstructions of the bowels, diarrhœa, eruptions of the skin, ill-conditioned ulcers, and dyspepsia. Its action is mild and perfectly safe.

The following, is a voluntary statement made by a highly respectable and scientific Physician, and appeared in the "Jeffersonville Courier," last winter:—
