HERALD & EXPOSITOR

CARLISLE, PA.

Wednesday Morning February 14 1844.

☞V. B. PALMER, Esq., No. 59 Pine street, below Third, Philadelphia, is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the "Herald & Expositor," and give receipts for the same.

☞Our thanks are tendered to Mr. Gorgas, of our State Senate, for valuable public documents.

☞We are indebted to a friend in Harrisburg for a copy of the Annual Report of Hon. Charles McClure, Secretary of the Commonwealth and ex-officio Superintendent of Common Schools of this State.

☞The argument yesterday in the Common Pleas and Orphans' Court of this county, in the case of the rule upon Peter F. Ege, Esq., to show cause why he should not be stricken from the roll of Attorneys, terminated in an order of the Court directing that his name be erased from the list.

☞We have ascertained that a gross imposition was practised upon us by an advertisement we published in our paper of the 31st ult., signed H. A. Morrett, and offering a reward for a pretended runaway boy named Michael M. Hummel. Having no knowledge of either of the individuals, we inserted it agreeably to the request of the letter in which it was contained, and regret that we were thus made the medium of inflicting an injury upon the character and feelings of Mr. Hummel, whom we now learn is a resident of Shiremanstown. It is not possible for newspaper publishers to guard against such deceptions, but they can very effectually punish the authors if detected, and we should like very much to give the rascal in this case the castigation he so richly merits.

New Post Office.

A new Post Office has been established at Alterton, in West Pennsborough township, seven miles west of this place, on the Railroad; to be called "Campbell's Farm—DAVID ALTER, Esq. Postmaster.

Agricultural Society.

The proceedings of the meeting of the Board of Managers of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society, held on Wednesday last, will be found in another column, together with the Constitution adopted by the Society. It will be seen that a Committee has been appointed to make the necessary arrangements for a public exhibition on the fourth Thursday of October next. We trust the Society will receive the hearty co operation of all Farmers and the friends of Agriculture, in its praise-worthy objects and designs.

Carlisle Bank.

☞We take the following statement of the condition of the Carlisle Bank, from the report of the Auditor General transmitting the quarterly statements of the Banks and Savings Institutions of Pennsylvania. This statement gives the condition of the Bank on the 2d day of October, 1843.

Common School Journal.

☞We have received the first number of the Common School Journal of the State of Pennsylvania, which promises to become a work of considerable importance to those connected with the Common School System. The work appears in monthly numbers. Mr. E. C. Biddle, of Philadelphia, and Hickok & Cantine, of Harrisburg, are the publishers. Professor John S. Hart, of Philadelphia, is the editor.

Insure your Property!

☞It will be seen by their advertisement that the North American Fire Insurance Company, of which Dr. John J. Myers is Agent in this borough, have considerably reduced their rates of insurance on frame and log buildings. No person can feel secure in the possession of his property without having it insured.

Campbell's Foreign Semi-Monthly Magazine.—The first number for February of this valuable periodical has been received. More than three fourths of the matter of it is selected from the magazines received by the last steamer from Europe. This number is embellished by a beautiful mezzotint (Nydia) by Sartain. The contents are useful and interesting.

☞Our neighbors of Shippensburg have been fortunate enough to secure the services of Hon. Mr. Spackman, of our State Senate, to deliver a lecture before the 'Vigilant Fire Company,' on the 22d instant. They may expect a rich intellectual repast.

☞A grand fight is to come off on the 26th instant, between the 'democratic' conferees of Perry and Cumberland, in the selection of a Senatorial delegate. William M. Mateer (Shunk) has been nominated by Cumberland, and William B. Anderson (Muhlenberg) by Perry.

☞The citizens of Shippensburg have held a meeting for the purpose of adopting measures to afford relief to the sufferers by the late fire there. A considerable amount, we learn, was promptly subscribed.

☞We learn from the Philadelphia Ledger, that Mr. Wm. H. Gray, of Carlisle, had his pocket-book, containing over $400, stolen from him in Philadelphia on Tuesday last.

☞"The Old Warrior," (the title of a new paper issued at Harrisburg,) strongly advocates the claims of General Markle, of Westmoreland, as the Whig candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania.

☞The Hon. WM. HEISTER, of Lancaster county, has, in a letter to the Lancaster Examiner, withdrawn his name from the list of Whig candidates for Governor, on account of the precariousness of his health.

Snow!—Sleighing!

☞A 'glorious' snow, as a considerable portion of the community would term it, fell on Wednesday night last, reaching to a depth of nine or ten inches. The railroad of course was rendered impassable and the mails detained, but through the enterprize of its managers opened by Saturday.

The sleighing, too, has of course, been very fine for several days past, giving full fruition to the "hopes deferred" of all those who have been anxiously waiting, and who have the "appliances and means to boot" for an indulgence in that spirit-stirring recreation with its thrilling "poetry of motion." We find in an exchange paper the following jingling stanzas, which are apropos to the season, and dedicated to those who like to "go it while they're young":

"Jingle! jingle! clear the way,
'Tis the merry, merry sleigh!
As it swiftly scuds along,
Hear the burst of happy song,
See the gleam of glances bright,
Flashing o'er the pathway white,
Jingle! jingle! how it whirls,
Crowded full of laughing girls!

Jingle! jingle! fast it flies,
Sending shafts from hooded eyes,
Roguish archers, I'll be bound,
Little heeding who they wound,
See them with capricious pranks,
Ploughing now the drifted banks,—
Jingle! jingle! 'mid their glee,
Who among them cares for me?

Jingle! jingle! on they go,
Caps and bonnets white with snow,
At the faces swimming past
Nodding thro' the fleecy blast;
Not a single robe they fold,
To protect them from the cold.
Jingle! jingle! 'mid the storm,
Fun and frolic keeps them warm!

Jingle! jingle! down the hills—
O'er the meadows—past the mills—
Now 'tis slow, and now 'tis fast—
Winter will not always last.
Every pleasure has its time!
Spring will come and stop the chime!
Jingle! jingle!—clear the way,
'Tis the merry, merry sleigh!"

Later from Europe.

☞By the ship Republic, which arrived at Boston on Tuesday evening, later intelligence is received from Europe. We take the following items:

According to all accounts, O'Connell may be convicted.

The State Trials were to begin in four days—on the 15th ult.

There had been a further improvement in the wheat market.

Cotton was again in the ascendancy. Market closed firmly at the last accounts.

There have been a few revolutionary indications in France. A thousand students had called upon Lafitte; they were ripe for an emeute, and cried "vive Moliere," &c.

A good prospect for a very fine spring trade was held out.

Every thing was prosperous in Great Britain.

MARRIED,

On Thursday, the 1st inst., by the Rev. Dr. De Witt, Mr. WILLIAM MARTIN, of Cumberland county, to Miss ELIZABETH STAR, of York.

On the 21th ult., by the Rev. C. W. Schaeffer, Mr. HOOVER C. WHITCOMB, to Miss LYDIA HETTELFINGER, both of Cumberland county.

Red Ochre & Ploughs.

THE Subscriber having obtained the right for Cumberland county, of the WITHEROW PREMIUM PLOUGH, is now manufacturing these and other ploughs which he has now for sale, at Cumberland Furnace. He designs by the first or middle of March next, to distribute a number of them through the different towns, and to other public places of the county, where farmers can judge of their excellence. The prices will be low, in accordance with the times.

THE RED OCHRE

he also designs to put a supply of, in many of the public places, in and out of the County. A trial of its quality, will cost but little. Like all other paints it does best with flax seed oil; but for weather beaten timber, or brick it answers very well with fish oil, milk, or even water. It adheres more closely than lime, or any other paint. Several gates, &c. in the neighborhood have been painted for a year past; some with milk, others with water, and are now as bright as when it was first put on. In either way it is a great preservative of timber, possessing great tenacity.

DR. WM. STEELLING'S
Family Medicines;

ARE NOW ACKNOWLEDGED ON ALL HANDS TO BE THE VERY BEST REMEDIES IN GENERAL USE.

Dr. Steelling's Pulmonary Syrup,

Contains the most extraordinary curative properties for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Spitting Blood, Croops, Measles, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Pains in the Breast, Side, and all Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

THIS remedy has been used, and its astonishing curative qualities testified to by many of the most respectable citizens of the United States. We do not—nay cannot, claim, as does the BRAZEN FACED QUACK, infalibility for our medicines: but having tested the medicinal qualities of the "Pulmonary Syrup," in an extensive and varied medical practice for many years, with remarkable success, we unhesitatingly pronounce it one of the very best Panaceas in the world for Pulmonary Diseases. A single trial will thoroughly satisfy any one that it is not one of the common Quack Nostrums of the day—but that it is a medicine of real value, worthy to be in every family. Its unprecedented low price is another strong recommendation; while other Cough or Pulmonary Medicines are selling for $1.00 and more, STILLING'S PULMONARY SYRUP, sells for only 50 cts. per bottle.

For sale in its purity in Carlisle, at SAMUEL ELLIOTT'S Drug Store, East Main st.; in Harrisburg at WM. BELL'S Grocery Store, 3d and Chesnut streets.
