The Whig County Ticket.

☞ In another column will be found the proceedings of a meeting of the Whigs in this borough, called to respond to the nominations for Congress, Senate, members of Assembly, and county officers, made by the late Whig County Convention.—The meeting was large and enthusiastic in the highest degree, and it will be perceived gave its warm and hearty approbation to the nominations.

Our county ticket is now complete, and we believe a better one was never presented to the people of this County. Of our candidate for Congress, Hon. ROBERT ELLIOTT, the Perry 'Freeman' says, "his qualifications for a member of the U. S. House of Representatives cannot be questioned by any one competent to judge, who knows him. His moral character is above suspicion—aught against it cannot be said even by his foes, if he has any. His political views and opinions commend him to the support of every anti-Locofoco, and every honest citizen in the District. The soundness of his judgement is conceded by all. He has been indentified with every benevolent enterprize of the day; and has for many years stood forth in the public eye as the honest man, the intelligent farmer, the ardent supporter of every moral enterprize, and the genuine, true American citizen. We mean what we say when we declare it as our opinion, that a better selection could not have been made in the District. And all who know him, will, we are confident, concur with us in opinion."

Our candidate for the State Senate is ROBERT IRVINE, of Perry county, who is represented to be one of the most sterling citizens of that county. He is a practical farmer, a first-rate business man, whose mind is well stored with that kind of learning which enables a man to discharge, with credit to himself, the various duties of the good, virtuous and intelligent citizen in every department of life. His name is indentified with integrity—slander can breathe nothing against his character. His qualifications for the office are good. He has ever been known as the unwavering supporter of true American principles—not the advocate of the principles of the mushroom Locofocracy—but of the principles of the Fathers of the Republic. He is, in the most rigid sense of the word, a good man.

Our candidates for the Legislature are well known to the people of this county, as men of the best standing, as respects moral worth, intelligence, honesty and integrity. Having served one session in our legislative halls, they are now prepared to enter upon the duties of legislation with the enlarged views acquired from experience. We believe that their attention to the private interests of their constituents, as well as their studious care of the public interests of the Commonwealth, acquired for them the reputation of faithful guardians of the public weal. Their election now in the embarassed situation of our financial affairs is of the utmost importance, as experience has proven that it is to a Whig Legislature alone that the people may look for a reform of the public evils and a prudent and economical administration of the government.

MR. POSTHLEWAITE, our candidate for Commissioner, is well known in this vicinity as an industrious mechanic and deserving man. He has always been a consistent and undeviating Whig, and will make a most admirable Commissioner.

Our candidates for Director and Auditor, Messrs. FRAZER and BRYSON, are well known throughout the county as honest, sober and industrious citizens, and are well qualified to fill the respective offices for which they have been nominated.

Letter from Mr. Clay to the Democracy of Dickinson Township in favor of the Tariff of 1842.

☞ We published in our last the proceedings of the adjourned democratic meeting held in Dickinson township, on Saturday the 31st ult. at which it will be recollected the committee to address James K. Polk on the subject of the Tariff of 1842, reported that they had received NO REPLY from him. Before adjourning, the same committee was directed to address a letter, containing the same interrogatories to the Whig candidate for the Presidency. This duty the committee immediately performed, and on Monday morning last, Mr. Clay's reply was received. It is brief but to the point, and only reiterates what Mr. Clay has declared in repeated letters within the last year both to the North and the South—that he is in favor of the Tariff of 1842 and unequivocally opposed to its repeal or modification. The following is a copy of his letter:

ASHLAND, 9th Sept. 1844.

GENTLEMEN—I this day received your letter, addressing two enquiries to me—"1st. Are you in favor of the Tariff act of 1842?"—and "2d. Would you if elected, support that act as it is, without modification, or would you be in favor of modifying it?"

I have so often, gentlemen, expressed my opinion in favor of the Tariff of 1842, that the only regret I feel is that you should deem it at all necessary to request any renewed expression of it. Nevertheless, I take pleasure in complying with your request, in saying that I am of opinion that the operation of the Tariff of 1842 has been eminently salutary; that I am decidedly opposed to its repeal; that I should regard its repeal as a great national calamity; and that I am unaware of the necessity of any modification of it. I am therefore opposed alike to its repeal or modification. A fixed and stable policy is what the country now most needs, and I sincerely hope that the Tariff of 1842 may be maintained, and thus afford a security for that desideratum.

I am respectfully,
Your obe't, serv't.
H. CLAY.

Messrs. MILLER, LYNCH, DONALDSON, MOORE, SELLERS, BEYLER, SNYDER, PEFFER and MYERS.

Voters of Cumberland county! Friends of the Tariff! Here is the true position of the Whig candidate on this all important subject. Recollect, while you read the clear and explicit avowal of HENRY CLAY in favor of this great Pennsylvania measure, that JAMES K. POLK refuses to reply to the same questions! He is either so closely bound to the Anti-Tariff Free Trade principles of his Southern friends as not to be able to answer satisfactorily to Pennsylvanians, or else he is treating the respectful inquiries of a Democratic meeting with studied and deliberate contempt! We incline to the former opinion. Mr. Polk cannot avow himself in favor of the tariff, because he has ever been opposed to it. Can you be farther deceived by the shallow and insulting imposition that Mr. Polk is a tariff man? We leave it to your own sense of dignity and intelligence to determine as men ought to.

Since the above was put in type, the letter to Mr. CLAY has been handed to us, but too late for insertion this week. It will be given in our next.

Mass Meeting in Gettysburg!

☞ The following invitation to the Whig Mass Meeting in Gettysburg was received by the Clay Club of this borough, last week, and is published for more extensive circulation. All our friends that can we hope will go and give our gallant neighbor a "good lift" at rolling the Whig ball:

Gettysburg Sept. 7th 1844.

Gentlemen:—The Whigs of the "Young Guard" of the Commonwealth of the Keystone State (Adams County Pa.) will hold a Great Mass Meeting in Gettysburg, on Friday the 20th of September inst., and have directed us, as the corresponding Secretaries of the Central Clay Club of Adams County, to tender to your Club, and through you, to the different Clubs in your vicinity, as also to your Whig citizens generally, and counsel with us upon this occasion. We have only to say, that the latch string of every house in our town, will be out, or rather, that our doors and our hearts will be open and ready to welcome our Whig brethren from abroad. Come then, one and all! Bring your music and your coons, your Banners and your Balls, and assist at our Grand Rally!

Yours in Whig Communion,
H. J. SCHREINER
ROBERT SMITH
A. D. BUEHLER

The Maine Election.

☞ In 1840 the Whigs carried the State of Maine by a small majority. In 1841 it returned to its first love. In 1842 the loco governor was elected by a majority of over eleven thousand! Now they have defeated the Whig candidate by a majority of about 5,000, while the abolition vote is about 4,500, and this is the amount of victory! The whigs did not count upon Maine at all, but if the abolition vote is cast against Annexation in November, it may go for Clay after all.

This is the loco foco victory. They have only lost five or six thousand; and therefore think they must be permitted to hurrah, because they hav'nt lost the whole! It would be a pity if they were unable to get a State in one end of the Union for "Polk and Texas," and as Louisiana has gone against them, their hopes were all fixed upon Maine, a locofoco stronghold. Having carried her by a small majority, they call upon all the Chapmans to crow! A crumb of comfort truly!

NEW JERSEY.

☞ Charles C. Stratton, formerly member of Congress, and an able man, has been nominated by the Whigs for Governor of New Jersey. His opponent is John R. Thompson, nominated by the influence and wealth of Capt. Stockton.—This Mr. Thompson is at the head of a great Railroad monopoly, which is another evidence of the hatred [illegible] bears to [illegible] corporations!

Look Here, Tariff Men!

☞ We know the 'Volunteer' considers the New York Plebeian one of the most valuable papers on its exchange list. Dare it copy the following short extract from that paper?

From the New York Plebeian of Sept. 2.

"The Courier occupies a column and a half to prove that the country is indebted to the Whig party for the present Tariff! Now this is a little too bad; to waste so much ink and paper to prove precisely what is universally conceded. No ten honest, sensible men in the Union can be found that deny that the present Tariff is a Whig measure out and out. "The Whigs framed and passed the present Tariff, and its evil results and good effects (if there are any) must be ascribed to them as a party. True, some few democrats voted for it, not because they approved of it, but they gave their reasons, which it is not necessary now to refer to; and some few Whigs opposed it. But it is, as the Courier says, a pure Whig measure; whatever protection it affords to the manufacturer is a Whig bounty. * * * *

"If there is a Democrat in the Union, who has been deceived into the belief that the present Tariff is a democratic measure, let him be undeceived; let the patronage of the present Tariff be duly acknowledged; let him assist the Courier in removing all doubts as to the origin of the present infamous law that is fast destroying the nation's industry, and if continued will lead to a dissolution of the Union itself!"

One need not go to the South to find locofoco papers advocating the Repeal of the Tariff—there are plenty of them in the North, and as sure as Polk and a Locofoco Congress is elected the repeal and modification of the present Tariff may be looked for! Will the people be warn'd in time?

Our Favorite Son's Testimony!

After General Harrison had been nominated in 1840, James Buchanan, in a State Convention of his party in this State, said:

"The Whig party had in Mr. Clay a candidate of whom they might have justly been proud—a man of bold and fearless heart—a man of high and commanding eloquence, and a man of distinguished ability. Although opposed to his political principles, yet I have ever felt for him the highest regard."

It seems that Mr. Clay's duels, Sabbath breaking, swearing and gambling have not deprived him of Mr. Buchanan's "highest regard," though the small-fry locolocos have such a holy horror for him on that ground! What hypocrites!

Senatorial Conferee Meeting.

The Whig Conferees for the district of Cumberland and Perry counties, met agreeably to appointment, at Sterret's Gap, on Tuesday the 10th instant, and organized by appointing SAMUEL McKENZIE, Chairman, and MICHAEL G. EGE Secretary.

The following gentlemen appeared and took their seats:

Perry—Samuel McKenzie, James Marshall and Captain C. Roth.

Cumberland—Robert Laird, Esq., S. D. Adair, Esq. and Michael G. Ege.

On motion, ROBERT IRVINE, Esq. was unanimously nominated as the Whig candidate for the Senate from this district. Also,

Resolved, That we know ROBERT IRVINE, our nominee for the Senate, to be firmly attached to the principles for the maintenance of which the Whig party is now contending, and that we will use every honorable effort to secure his election.

[Signed by the officers.]

The West in a Blaze!

☞ The Whig papers in Western Pennsylvania are filled with accounts of great Mass Conventions held in Washington, Erie and Pittsburgh. The Washington meeting [illegible] comprised 15,000 persons, and the Pittsburgh papers put their meeting down at from 40 to 50,000!! We cannot attempt to follow the soul-stirring descriptions of the numerous gatherings. General MARKLE was at the Pittsburg meeting, whether he was escorted by over 15,00 Whigs from Westmoreland. The old General rode on horse-back, making a fine appearance, and made a very pithy speech in reply to the committee of reception. Tremendous mass meetings have also lately been held in Milton, Northumberland and other places in the North. In every quarter we hear of Whig Mass Meetings, Conventions, processions and speeches. The spirit of 1840 is abroad, and VICTORY must follow!

Public Discussion of the Tariff and Distribution Questions.

☞ It will be recollected that the Editor of the 'Statesman' two weeks since threw out a challenge for a public discussion of the Tariff and Distribution. The challenge has been accepted by a gentleman of this borough, and the discussion will take place in the Court House, in this borough, on Thursday, the 19th inst, at 2 o'clock P. M. The following are the two propositions advanced in the challenge of the editor of the Statesman:

1st. A Revenue Tariff such as is defined by James K. Polk in his letter to Mr. Kaine of Philadelphia, is more favorable to the general interests of the people of the United States than a direct protective tariff such as is defined by Henry Clay.

2nd. A distribution of the money arising from the sales of the public lands amongst the States, is impolitick and would result injuriously to the general interests of the Country.

The citizens of the county of all parties are most respectfully invited to be present at the discussion.

Mr. Clay and the Bankrupt Law.

☞ Some of the most prominent and bitter loco focos in Cumberland county found the Bankrupt Law very advantageous in helping them out of a scrape a year or two ago, but now that they have got out of their difficulties they join heartily in the loud cry against it. It will perhaps relieve the loco focos here to know that Mr. Clay is equally opposed to that law. In a letter to a gentleman of Tennessee, dated August 20th, 1844, Mr. Clay concludes by saying:

"I consider that the American people have expressed a decided disapprobation of the late Bankrupt Law, and for one, in deference to that opinion, I do not desire to see that law revived or any other Bankrupt Law passed."

The Result in Vermont!

☞ The result in Vermont is glorious for the Whigs! Mr. Slade, the whig candidate for Governor beat his loco foco opponent, 6,816, and beats the loco and abolition candidates, together, 1,888. Majority against the whigs last year, 1,108.—Whig net gain this year, 2,996! Is not that glorious?

The Whigs have a majority of 12 in the Senate, and 75 in the House! Huzza for Vermont, the whig star that never sets!!

PETERS' COUGH LOZENGES are now rapidly superseding all other preparations for the relief of Coughs, colds, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Catarrh, Tightness of the Chest, Bronchitis, and similar pulmonary affections. It is now so well established, that a large proportion of cases of Consumption, by which so many lives are annually sacrificed, owe their origin to the neglected Colds and Coughs, which might easily have been removed at an earlier period. No medicine will be found so efficacious in curing such cases as these Lozenges. They faithfully allay the cough, by removing the irritation which keeps it up, while at the same time they promote expectoration, and relieve congestion.

If there is a pain in the chest or side, one of PETERS' PLASTERS, (price only 12½ cents,) should be spread over the part and worn till relieved.

ENTHUSIASTIC BOROUGH MEETING.

An overflowing and enthusiastic meeting of the Whigs of Carlisle, was held in pursuance of public notice, at the public house of Peter Weibly, on Wednesday evening the 11th inst. for the purpose of responding to the nominations made for member of Congress, member of the State Senate and the members of the Legislature and county officers.

On motion, WM. IRVINE, Esq. was called to the chair, and JAMES HACKETT, appointed Secretary.

The following resolutions were then offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the nomination of the Hon. ROBERT ELLIOTT, of Perry county, as the Whig candidate for Congress, meets our entire and hearty approbation. His well known character for intelligence, moral worth, sound judgment and sterling integrity, eminently entitles him to the favorable consideration of the people of this Congressional district, and afford ample guaranty that if elected he will faithfully represent his constituents and give a strenuous support to the great whig measures necessary to a prosperous administration of the government.

Resolved, That we also heartily approve of the nomination of ROBERT IRVINE, Esq. of Perry county, as the Whig candidate for Senator from this district, as a citizen worthy of the confidence of the people and whose election would promote their best interests.

Resolved, That the COUNTY TICKET settled by the Whig County Convention on the 2d inst. meets in every part our cordial and warmest approbation. The nominees are citizens of old and blameless standing in their respective neighborhoods—they are known to be worthy, honest and capable men, and unwavering whigs, who will faithfully discharge the duties of the several trusts which may be committed to them.

Resolved, That each and all of the nominees on the ticket now completed, shall receive our firm and undivided support at the ensuing election.

The resolutions having been unanimously passed, Gen. S. ALEXANDER and Hon. JOHN REED successively responded to the call of the meeting in animated, powerful and convincing addresses on the political topics of the day, and bore strong testimony from a long and intimate knowledge of the several gentlemen composing the ticket of their high personal worth and fitness for the public trusts to which they have been named.

The meeting was further enlivened by some admirable songs from the Clay Minstrels, after which it adjourned.

Signed by the officers.

NORTH MIDDLETON ERECT!

Agreeably to public notice a large number of the whigs of North Middleton township assembled at the public house of John Wunderlich, on Saturday evening the 7th inst. for the purpose of forming a Clay Club. On motion, JOHN MILLER, Esq. was called to the chair, and THOMAS D. URIE, and BENJ. B. GIVLER appointed Secretaries.

On motion, Maj. Wm. M. Henderson, George Sponsler and Jacob Horner, were appointed a committee to draft resolutions, who reported several well-drawn and forcible resolutions which are excluded for want of room.

The meeting was then briefly addressed by Mr. Thomas D. Urie, after which it adjourned to meet at the public house of Mr. Rinehart on Saturday evening the 14th inst.

Centreville Whig Meeting!

☞ An enthusiastic whig meeting was held in Centreville on Saturday last, the 14th. A towering Liberty Pole was erected, with a splendid banner giving proudly to the breeze on its ample folds the name of our distinguished candidates and their glorious principles where they float full and free as an evidence that whigs do not conceal their principles. The meeting was then organized by appointing as President.

Mr. PHILIP WEAVER;
Vice Presidents:
John Reed Robert Laird John T. Green Benj. Shaffner, William Gillelan, Adam Coover, Dr. R. Hoover, William Glenn, and J. J. Hutchinson.
Secretaries:
W. Hubley, George Weaver, Dr. Long, and Geo. T. Woods.

A series of able resolutions in favor of our candidates for Governor and President and declaring our principles, were then passed. Hon. JOHN REED afterwards addressed the meeting in a forcible and convincing manner on the political topics of the day. The meeting then adjourned.

Whig Meeting at Lewisberry.

☞ A friend who was present informs us that the Whig meeting in Lewisberry, York county on Saturday last, was one of the most heart-cheering popular demonstrations which has taken place this season. Not less than FIFTEEN HUNDRED persons were estimated to be in attendance about two hundred of whom were old and young ladies who joined with enthusiasm in the proceedings of the day!

Although the farmers are now very busy, the momentous issues involved in the present political contest nevertheless drew them out to the meeting in immense numbers.—Large delegations were present from Mechanicsburg, New Cumberland, Allen township and other neighboring places.—The town was beautifully decorated with arches and flags, and every Whig house displayed some manifestation of the enthusiasm which all classes and both sexes feel in the grand good Whig cause. The citizens of that place we learn displayed a most liberal hospitality. Nothing could afford stronger evidence than the Lewisberry meeting of the unbounded enthusiasm which prevails in every direction, and which will ensure victory to the noble cause of MARKLE and HARRY of THE WEST.

The 'Coon NOT dead in Mifflin!

Only a mistake of the Printer!

Agreeably to public notice a large and enthusiastic meeting of the whigs of Mifflin township was held at McElhenny's school house, on Saturday evening the 14th inst. which was organized by appointing as —President—ROBERT McELWAIN, Esq.

Vice Presidents—Daniel McGlaughlin, Sr. Joseph McElhenny, Emanuel Snoke, William Knettle, and Thomas McElwain.

Secretaries—Andrew Stewart and John M. Koons.

Messrs. Andrew McElwain, John M. Koons and William Stevick, being appointed a committee for that purpose reported an ably-drawn preamble and resolutions setting forth the crisis in our political affairs, and pointing to the success of Gen. JOSEPH MARKLE and HENRY CLAY and Whig measures, as the only means of promoting the prosperity of the country and saving from ruin the Home Industry of our people.

The resolutions having been read and unanimously adopted, L. G. BRANDEBURY, Esq. of Carlisle, was called for addressed the meeting in an eloquent and able manner, on the various subjects involved in the coming contest, after which the meeting adjourned.

Meeting in Springfield.

☞ The Whigs held a large and enthusiastic meeting in Springfield on Saturday afternoon last, at which we are informed there were at least three hundred present. Gov. Ritner presided, and made an appropriate and effective address, touching the prominent topics of the day, upon taking the chair. He was followed by S. D. Adair, Esq. of this borough, who spoke at length and with unusual ability and force. James H. Devor, Esq., of this borough, concluded the speaking with a very pertinent address.

We learn also that a very numerous and spirited gathering took place on Friday at Roxbury, at which Gov. RITNER presided; the proceedings were of a character calculated to advance the success of the cause. Every where through the county our friends appear to be in the best spirits and elated with the prospects of success. Let us but be active and vigilant, and the day is ours!

☞ The Locofocos of New York have nominated Silas Wright (now United States Senator,) as their candidate for Governor. Mr. Wright is opposed to Annexation. The Whigs, it is thought, will nominate Millard Fillmore, of Western New York.

For the Herald & Expositor.

Mr. Editor:—A few days since a neighbor handed me the Carlisle "Volunteer," I believe of the 5th instant, and directed my attention to a communication signed M. J., which might be J. M. of the Post Office Department in N.——The ostensible object of the writer seems to have been to procure the appointment of a counting committee to serve at the (then) coming meeting of Locos at Carlisle. The necessity of this committee he urges, to arise from the fact that no confidence can now-a-days be had in newspaper statements. This grand charge is made not only in relation to their representation of the numbers in attendance at political meetings, but with one fell swoop covers the whole sphere of editorial labour. It does, however, appear to me that one who arrogates to himself the prerogation of a censor over the press and a principle of public morals, should at least see well to it, that he is entirely free from the contagion so deeply deplored by this sage reformer, in his first epistle to the "Whigs, Whigesses, and Whiglings," of old Mother Cumberland, for surprising as it may appear, the 'actual observation' of this self same renovator of the press and public manners, led him, in estimating the number of ladies in attendance at the Whig meeting at Newville, into as great a deviation from truth, as that charged upon you—his "actual observation" made the number just as far below the truth, as your reported statement made it above. Of this we are prepared to "produce proof positive," and were we disposed to fight your battles, we might here join issue with the grave reformer, and hurl back the charge of "want of candor and spirit of detraction." But we proceed to notice the second specimen of loco foco veracity contained in this luminous dissertation on morals. M. J. says that "many of that sex (females) here consider it rather of doubtful expediency for a modest female to be paraded into the heart of a mass meeting, to be jammed up, and compelled to look and listen to such gasconading abuse of character and common raillery which so much abounds at such places." Now, Mr. Editor, I cannot conceive of a more slanderous and grossly false representation of the proceedings at Whig Mass Meetings, and can only account for such a reckless disregard of truth on the supposition that the character of those meetings which the writer himself is in the habit of attending, is such as to correspond with his own description. Further, "I have reason to believe that it will be the last time for some of them to expose themselves to the rude criticism of such characters as frequent these meetings." As far as my own observation extends, the Whig meeting at Newville might be taken as a fair specimen of similar meetings throughout the country, and were I asked to describe that meeting, I would say, that it was an assembly of sober, staid, virtuous and intelligent citizens, who under the protection of their own Constitution, convened in a pleasant grove, in a peaceable and orderly manner, to discuss and consider the great and important measures of our Government and the qualifications of candidates for office, which (and I here defy contradiction) was done in a dignified, able and instructive manner, without one sentence of "gasconading abuse of common raillery"—in a word, sir, it was just such a place and such an occasion as the modest female might feel proud to grace with her presence. True, the ladies who attended that meeting had not the same opportunity of displaying a certain delicacy which was recently afforded to others in this place, who sought a place of "dignified retirement" whilst an itinerating Locofoco orator was harranguing the populace of the town at the corner of one of the streets, but it must be remembered that the former was in a grove where no gentleman's n—g—r was convenient, the latter in the centre of the town. But after all the "talk" of M. J. it requires no more than common discernment to penetrate the flimsy veil of pretended zeal for the truth and discover where the real sore lies, for the truth evidently is, that among the sharpest thorns in the side of Locofocoism, are, the sweet smiles of approbation, which from the ladies throughout the length and breadth of our beloved country every where greets the Whig cause—and I have no doubt the assembly of lovely girls, respectable and intelligent matrons, (who you know are every where a terror to evil doers,) which graced our mass meeting, was well calculated to call forth the gallant tirade of "gasconading abuse and common raillery" with which the communication of M. J. so much abounds.

Big Spring.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are one of the best of medicines for the cure of inflammatory rheumatism; because they not only cleanse the blood from those impurities which are the cause, but they impart an energy to the circulation which carries it with vigor to every part of the system, consequently the extremities being properly supplied with the vital fluid, receive their due proportion of animal heat; and coldness of the feet, headache, giddiness, palpitation of the heart, and every other symptom of a disordered circulation, will be driven from the body.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

THE Society will hold its first annual meeting on THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1844, at 10 o'clock, A. M. at the Court house in Carlisle. The County Hall will be prepared for the reception of all such articles of domestic manufacture as may be exhibited for premiums and which can be conveniently placed in a room. All others, such as horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, agricultural implements &c. will be exhibited at the farm of F. Watts, Esq. one mile west of Carlisle, where comfortable and safe provision will be made for them. The PLOUGHING MATCH will commence at 1 o'clock, P. M. where farmers are invited to produce their teams and ploughs to compete for excellence in ploughing. The field selected is a clover sod of limestone land free from stone and which has been mowed this season for hay and again for seed. This being the first public effort of the society to establish itself in the confidence of the farming interests we do not expect any large or varied exhibition of agricultural and horticultural productions or implements, but we cordially invite all who have any thing of the kind which deserves the approbation of the society or which tends to improvement, to exhibit it. We trust that our annual exhibition next year we may have all that severity of competition which time will enable us to prepare, and which will prove to be the life of the society and the success of the excellent design it has in view. By order of the Society.

F. WATTS, President.
