Philadelphia Market

FLOUR AND MEAL.—The week opened with a better demand for Flour, and on Saturday and Monday about 3500 bbls sold, mostly common brands, $4 75, including a selected brand at $4 81½, scraped $4 50, and 400 half bbls a good brand at $5 12½ the pair. Subsequently the market stiffened a little, but the demand having subsided, holders again come forward and additional sales to the extent of 3000 bbls were made for export at $4 75 at $4 87½, principally at the former rate—the latter price being for choice brands; the market closes firmly at our quotations; for city use sales have been made at 4 75 at 4 87½ for good. Corn meal in fair request with sales of 3000 bbls Penn'a at $3—Rye Flour—We notice sales in lots, in all about 1000 bbls, at $3 50, including a small lot at $3 56½.—Exports of the last two weeks 11,252 bbls Corn Meal, and 523 bbls Rye Flour.

GRAIN—There is little as yet arriving by water, and the asking price of wheat is mostly above the view of millers. We notice some small sales of good reds at 105 a 108c for starch making, and 4000 bus choice white to arrive, on terms not public. Rye is scarce; small sales of Southern at 73 a 75c, and Penn'a at 75 a 77c. Corn, scarce and in better demand. Sales of several lots good Southern yellow at 64 a 65c, and one at 66c; white 60 a 62c, and Penn'a at 63 a 65c.—Oats are generally held for better prices; we quote at 40 a 42c, but hear of no sales.—Exports 19,508 bus. wheat, and 19,56 bus. corn.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."—Psalms cxvi.—15.

DIED—On the 9th inst. in the full prospect of immortality and eternal bliss, Mr. DANIEL COFFMAN, of Silver Spring township, aged thirty-two years.

In but very few instances, if any, was the character of a Christian more fully developed and more clearly manifest, than in the subject of this brief notice. His life was truly a comment upon Christianity." While his remarkable patience and lamb-like submission to the will of God, during his illness (which continued two months,) together with his peaceful death, is a strong and clear exhibition of the mighty power and triumphs of Divine grace. Incorporated religion when about eighteen years of age, and immediately united himself with the Methodist Episcopal church, of which he continued a very acceptable and useful member until the day of his death. He served the church for several years as Class-leader and steward, greatly to the satisfaction of all concerned. It was his chief aim and object to do good in every possible way. If an object of pity or distress presented itself in the neighborhood, he was sure to direct his footsteps to the spot, ready to administer relief and comfort as far as he could. If he excelled in any one good more than in another, it was in the great zeal and deep interest he manifested in the happiness and welfare of the young. He was for 5 number of years Superintendent of a flourishing Sunday School at the Salem church, where he was not only found waiting on Sabbath mornings to teach and instruct those children present, but through the week he would go from house to house hunting up the poor children, and encouraging them to come to Sabbath School, and advising their parents to let them go! Long will he be remembered for his labor of love in this particular. His remains were conveyed to the Salem church yard, on the 12th inst. where an appropriate sermon was preached on the occasion, by the Rev. Mr. Castle, of Harrisburg, to a large assembly of weeping friends and sympathizing neighbors, from 1st Thes. iv.—14 "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

"When marble monuments shall all decay;
Rocks turn to dust, and mountains melt away,
The sainted forms shall o'er their ashes rise,
And meet their Saviour through the opening skies."
