VERY IMPORTANT NEWS

Another Large Supply of

New Goods!

CHARLES OGILBY

IS now receiving and opening the largest most splendid, and CHEAPEST STOCK OF GOODS that has been brought to Carlisle, for a number of years, comprising all kinds and qualities of

and would invite all those who wish to lay out their money to a good advantage to give him a call before purchasing. Owing to the great reduction of prices in many articles in his line of business, he feels confident that he can give BARGAINS not to be surpassed, if equalled in the country.

To give a list of names and kinds of goods would be too tedious, as it would fill columns of this paper, and then not the twentieth part enumerated. Give him a call, and look for yourselves. Remember, the "OLD STAND," four doors East of the Market House, and directly opposite Martin's Hotel.

Look out for the "BIG SIGN!!!"

CHARLES OGILBY.

Carlisle, October 7, 1846.

P. S.—Many articles can be sold less than manufacturers' prices, such as Cassimeres, Cassinetts, Kentucky Jeans, Linseys, Canton Flannels, Carpets, Umbrellas, Gum Shoes, &c. &c.

ALL persons indebted to me will please take notice that I have been waiting, and am still waiting, but do not know how much longer I shall wait, especially on those who have let their accounts run on too long. Such must not think hard of it if I determine to wait no longer, and they had therefore better save costs by calling soon. All who are indebted to me either by note or book account are requested to call and settle without delay.

EXECUTOR'S SALE

OF A VALUABLE FARM,

Near Winchester, Virginia

UNDER the authority of the Will of the late JAMES G. FICKLIN, deceased, the undersigned, his executor and executrix, will expose at public auction, to the highest bidder, before the front door of the Court House, in the town of Winchester, on FRIDAY the 13th day of November next, (being Court day) A TRACT OF LAND, containing about TWO HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-FIVE ACRES, more or less, and known as the "BELLEVILLE FARM." The location and general arrangement of this land will compare advantageously with that of any other in this section of country. It is within four miles of Winchester, where a ready market can be had for all its products. The land is also of the best LIMESTONE quality, and WELL WATERED. It has for several years past been in cultivation by a good farmer, and is in excellent order. The buildings, especially out houses, are new, or in good repair. There are several never-failing springs of excellent water in the farm yard, and within 20 yards of the dwelling house. The soil is finely adapted to the growth of both Wheat and Corn.

Persons desirous of purchasing both a rich and well timbered farm, and a healthy location, (it being within one and a half miles of Jordan's White Sulphur Springs,) are requested to call and examine it. Any further information can be obtained by addressing the subscriber, J. F. Ficklin, Fatmouth, Va.

The terms of sale will be—One-third cash; one-third in 12 months; and one-third in 24 months from the day of sale, without interest.—Bond and security will be required of the purchaser for the deferred payments, together with a deed of trust on the premises.

CATHARINE FICKLIN, Ex'x.
JOHN F. FICKLIN, Ex'r.

Winchester, October 28, 1846.—3t.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers at private sale his farm, situate two miles West of Carlisle, Cumberland county, on the turnpike leading from Carlisle to Chambersburg, adjoining lands of Noble's heirs and John Hemminger, containing ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-THREE ACRES and 82 Perches, of the first quality of Limestone Land, in a high state of cultivation. The building consist of a FRAME DWELLING HOUSE, and FRAME BARN.—There is a well of good water near the door. A vein of the best IRON ORE runs through the farm close by the Cumberland Valley Railroad.

Persons disposed to purchase can call on the subscriber living in Allen township, 3 miles from Harrisburg, or Mr. H. L. Burkholder, Innkeeper, Carlisle, or the tenant on the premises.

August 19, 1846.

P. S.—One of the houses will be rented cheap. Possession given immediately.

VALUABLE Town Property FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers at private sale his valuable property in this borough, consisting of a HOUSE, LOT AND TANYARD, situated on East street and extending back to the Letart Spring. The house is of stone, two stories high with a commodious two story BRICK BACK BUILDING, and a good Wash House, Smoke House and Cistern, all of which are in good repair. The lot contains a variety of the choicest FRUIT TREES all of which are in bearing condition. The property is well situated either for a private residence, as it is in good neighborhood, or for a large business in Tanning and Currying, as it has all the necessary buildings.

Also, a lot of ground, containing TWO ACRES, situated on the opposite side of the Spring, and fronting on Louther Street. The lot is in good order for planting purposes, and well calculated for a garden or meadow. There is erected on it a one and a half story FRAME HOUSE, newly built, together with a Barn and Stable. The two properties above will be sold separate or together as may best suit purchasers.

Also, Two Tracts of MOUNTAIN LAND, situate on the Sterret's Gap road, the first two miles above the Gap, containing 68 acres, and the other two miles below, containing 15 acres, known by JACOB SHROM.

Carlisle, September 9, 1846.
