TELEPHONE. - There is talk of a new telephone to be a branch of the Ridgway headquarters telephone office. It will go direct to Wilcox. The sound of course would be much weakened by going so long a distance, but it is proposed to attach Schultz's engine to it so that the news can be pumped right into the Justice of the Peace and Constable in eleven seconds from the Ridgway headquarters. *

Grand Wedding.

A NOTABLE EVENT AT WILCOX. On Wednesday, Aug. 27th, 1879, the house of J. L. Brown, Esq., was pened to invited guests to witness the marriage of Miss Lura M. Brown, eldest daughter of J. L. Brown, of Wilcox, to Mr. E. G. Latta, of Friendship, N. Y. The time appointed for the ceremony was 11 A. M. and long before the hour the guests had assembled to the number of sixty persons. About traif-past eleven the bridesmaid and groomsman, Miss Emma Brown, sister of the bride, and Mr. Ada Latta, brother of the groom, took their places in the parlor followed by the bride and groom who took position directly under a suspended horseshoe made of flowers. The Rev. Lampe, pastor of the Reformed Church, of Wilcox, proceed to unite the happy couple in the silken bands of wedlock. At the conclusion of the ceremony the newly married couple received the congratulations of their friends and company. After which they all sat down to a dinner gotten up by Mrs. Brown which is a sufficient guarantee that it could not have been better, at least that was the unanimous decision of the company. After dinner came the viewing of the presents of which there was a large and elegant variety, which we itemize for the benefit of those not present. 'As the time rolled around for the 3:08 train the company escorted Mr. and Mrs. Latta to the depot, after throwing the traditional slipper after them as they were leaving the house, and wishing them a long, happy, and prosperous journey through life.

They are taking an extended trip around to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, over through the Canadas, around by Syracuse, N. Y. and Friendship, N. Y., and will return to Wilcox in about four weeks. They will then take their final departure for their new home at Friendship, N. Y.

It is useless to attempt a description of the dress of the ladies present suffice it to say that the bride was beautifully and tastefully attired in white brocade silk and other material. better known to the ladies than any one else, with long bridal vell, white kids, &c. The bridesmaid was attired ladies started for school. Misses May in white and looked, as the girls say, "too sweet for anything" except a bride. The bridegroom was dressed Centre, N. ## The Unanimous Convention.

The Democracy of Elk met in solemn convention at Maginnis' hall on Tuesday last. A candidate for District Attorney and one for Jury Commissioner were to be selected from the horny handed sons of Little Elk. G. C. Brandon of the Gazette wa elected chairman. (Loud applause.) At eleven o'clock did the meetin

The first thing in order was for al hands to take a drink.

Then after wiping off their vests and pulling down their chins the delegates Cal McCaetey was going to be a can-didate for District Attorney but as au-other fellow had the longest pole and 13 out of 28 of the persimmons (delegates). Cal withdrew. Then more beer was inhaled, while the earth breathlessly waited for the next move.

Ten of the delegates wanted to adlourn for dinner, 13 refused. They did not adjourn. They all smiled when a recess was taken during which the delegates took in more "invigorator." After a few more "schooners" bis was announced by the chairman of the clean shave and boiled shirt (very large cheers during which more beer was strangled. Wartzell was unanimously nominated for District Attorney by 13 out of 28 votes (deafening and long continued applause.)

After which the little brown jug-Gene Miller was a delegate, He washed his hands" before the convention (hisses, groans, and cries of 'put him out!" "put him out!"

Every one was on the tip toe of excitement for it was expected that the editorial delegate would next wash his feet, (upturned noses.)

The convention nominated Joseph Emmet of Fox for Jury Commissioner. Ye Editor of the Gazette was made Chairman of the County Committee.

Then the convention adjourned sine die for beer and refreshments to McFarlin's leaving Maginnis out in the cold.

COMMENTS.

G. Washington Wurtzell is a base ballist, and is now also a candidate for District Attorney. He don't take THE ADVOCATE, consequently he is not He will not get us many votes as the other fellow, Packed conventions may do for some folks but the majority of the the Elk Wurtzell will get no Republican votes unless McVean, the Democratic-Republican Postmaster at St. Mary's votes for him. He don't take THE ADVOCATE and won't see this. Delegate Miller's action in the convention weans him from the eastern end Democracy, looses him subscribers for his paper, makes the Gazette the official organ and Brandon the big dog with the brane coller ... At last accounts Miller was mad. He has cause to be.

Let the pup suck. THE ADVOCATE will be red hot for that.

Great is the Elk Democracy when an efficient officer is slaughtered to knows.

SAD ACCIDENT. - Last Wednesday morning, as the morning train north on the D. A. V. &. P. Raitroad was rounding the curve just this side of Irvineton, it came upon a man walking on the track, and so close that the train could not be stopped. The engine struck him in the back and threw him with terrible force some distance. As soon as possible the train was stopped and the train men went to his assistance. He was picked up insensible and brought to this station, and carried to the Revere House. Drs. Stewart and Stranahan were called and examined him, finding that he had sustained severe injuries in the back, his right leg fractured near the hip, and his skull fractured over the right eye. His injuries were treated as best they could be, but it is not thought that he can recover. His name is John Zimmerly, aged 65 years, and deaf. He had been to Youngsville for a physician to see his wife, and was on his way home when struck by the engine. Being deaf he did n t hear the train, and of course had no notice of its coming until it struck him. 'He is at the Revere House now.

Shot In Revenge

[From the Lock Haven Daily Journal.] Matters have come to a terrible pass in the neighborhood of F. F. Mc-Closkey's place in Woodward township. Not long since our readers will remember that his house was robbed and a few nights afterward a second attempt was made, when Miss Louisa Gross shot the robber and inflicted a wound, as blood found on the grass next morning showed. No special effort having been made to catch the desperado, it seems that the wounded man had determined to have revenge

Mr. McCloskey is a huckster, and

last Saturday being market day, Miss Gross got up at about half-past two to get breakfast. Mr. McCloskey went to the barn in the meantime, fed his horse and returned to the house and ate breakfast. About four he loaded his wagon with Miss Gross' assistance. After finishing, she returned to enter the house, and while passing the kitchen window, from which shone a bright light, a pistol shot was heard, and Miss G. felt a strange sensation in the breast. After entering the house she made an examination, and discovered that the ball had struck a button of her dress, splitting it, and making quite an abrasion of the skin. She immediately notified Mr. McCloskey and two gentlemen who had been stopping there over night, and the party armed themselves and started in pursuit. A thorough search of the premises was made but nobody was found.

It is supposed that the would-be murderer hid himself behind the bake oven, and from there drew a deadly bead upon his intended victim, who was only saved by a button. It is high time that this matter was looked up. If robbers are permitted to plunder at will and then kill the parties whom they robbed because of making a justifiable defense extraordinary measures shout be taken.

Horrible Railroad Accident.

On Monday morning last about 9:45 o'clock as "pushing" engine No. 1030 was backing through town when approaching the St. Michael street crossing, struck Mrs. Margaret Hans, knocking her under the tender, and the engine passed over her, killing her instantly. Her head was crushed almost beyond recognition, and other parts of her body were terrible mangled. Mrs Hans was about 84 years old and was quite deaf. It was raining at the time, and it is supposed her umbrella, which was raised at the time, prevented her seeing the approaching engine. Neither the engineer or fireman saw her before or after she was struck, and passed on to Ridgway unconscious of the accident. An inquest was held upon the body by Esq. Burke, who acted as coroner, summoning the following gentlemen who were sworn as jurors : Geo. Weidenboerner, John Krug, Anthony Schauer, John Keller, Geo, Hathorn, and Jos. A. Hanhauser. The sitting of people. The evidence elicited After hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses, the jury retired for deliberation, and returned with the following verdict:

"That the said Mrs. M. Hans, while crossing the Phila, and Eric railroad track at the St. Michael street cross-ing in St. Mary's borough, on Mon-day August the 25th 1879, was struck the Pennsylvania railroad com pany's locomotive engine No. 1030 and thereby run over and instantly killed, and further that engineer Tim-othy Tierney, and fireman Jared M. exonerated from any and all blame in the matter, but we are of the opinion that the Penna. Railroad company should keep a watchman at all times at said railroad crossing.—St. Mary's Gazette.
