	$8,696 12
Balance in hands of Treasurer,	84 13
	$8,780 25

Balance in hands of A. A. Line, Esq., Borough Treasurer as above, $84 13

STATEMENT OF THE LIABILITIES AND RESOURCES OF THE BORO' OF CARLISLE ON THE 10TH DAY OF APRIL, 1847, TO WIT:

LIABILITIES.

Amount due to sundry persons on Bonds given by the Borough in redemption of the Notes issued by the town Council in 1842-43, and for a loan of $1,000, from the Carlisle Bank, including interest thereon till the 10th April, 1847,	$3,857 17
There is also a balance due by the Borough, on the unredeemed outstanding notes issued as above, which owing to the destruction of the Borough records by the fire of 1845, cannot be accurately ascertained. The amount of which now must be small, as all the notes the dates have been presented for payment during the last 6 months.

RESOURCES.

Amount due by sundry persons on Judgments taken for loans made by the Town Council in 1842-43, including interest thereon till the 10th of April, 1847, as above,	$1,469 00
Amount due on outstanding tax duplicate for the year 1846,	918 43
Amount due for Stall rent for Market House,	158 00
Showing an excess of Liabilities over Resources of	$1,311 74

Which it may be proper to remark has been occasioned mainly by the omission of Council to levy a tax for the year 1845, and by the appropriation of the monies received for notes issued and loans made during that year, to the payment of the current expenses of the Borough, and to the purchase of Fire Apparatus and the building of Engine Houses in the year following.

Which item would amount in the aggregate to a sum exceeding $5000, the amount some $1700 larger than the excess above stated—shewing a gain of that amount to have been derived by the Borough from the interest received, &c., over the interest and expenses paid on the notes issued in 1842 and '43. Which gain is liable however to be reduced by any further presentation of those notes for payment.

We, the Committee on Finances, having examined the above account, find it to be as correct as can be ascertained at the present time in consequence of the books being burnt in eighteen hundred and forty-five.

WM. SPOTTSWOOD,
W. H. TROUT,
Committee.
