THANKSGIVING-DAY.—Thursday last—the day set apart by Gov. Johnston as one of thanksgiving and praise to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, for the manifold blessings which we, as a people, have received at His hands—was observed in this borough with all the respect that is accorded to the Sabbath.—The places of business with one or two exceptions were closed, and every kind of secular employment suspended. A very few country people, who it may charitably be supposed do not "read the papers," brought wood and produce to town, but even they got through their transactions as quickly and quietly as possible. The various churches we learn were all well attended, and the sermons of their Pastors appropriate and eloquent. Throughout the day, and even ing, as far as our observation extended, there was nothing to disturb the good order which should prevail at such a season.

PROFESSOR WILLIAM H. ALLEN.—This gentleman, who has accepted the Presidency of Girard College, we are happy to state, will retain his official relation to Dickinson College, until Commencement. As however, he has leave of absence after the first of January, REV. CONWAY P. WING, has been employed in his place, an arrangement highly satisfactory to all the students and officers of the College. The friends of Dickinson College may rely upon the appointment of an able and experienced Professor, to the Department of Philosophy and English Literature, at the session of the Board in July next.

JUDICIAL EXCHANGE.—The second week of the November term of the Court of Common Pleas in this county was held by Judge PEARSON, of the Dauphin district—Judge WATTS, of this district, taking Judge Pearson's place in Harrisburg, during the same time.—Judge Pearson bears a high legal reputation, and his short season of intercourse with our Bar and community has left the most favorable impression of his character and abilities. The system of Judicial exchanges which is now going on, under a law of the last Legislature, appears to be regarded with satisfaction by the public. In this district it will save a large amount of money by doing away with the necessity of Special Courts.

DAGUERREOTYPES.—After an examination of the specimen Daguerreotypes for exhibition at the rooms of Mr. G. D. Chase (of the establishment of Van Loan & Chase, Washington D. C.,) we can in truth say that we have never seen finer Daguerreotypes, or better likenesses. Mr. Chase, besides being a master-hand in his art, has in his possession one of the finest instruments in the country. To those wishing exact likenesses of themselves, we would say, give him a call. Mr. C's. rooms are in, South Hanover street, in the house lately occupied by George Sanderson, Esq.

FATAL CASUALTY.—We learn that one of the Miners at Pine Grove Iron Works, in Dickinson township, was almost instantly killed, on Wednesday last. A portion of the ore from a point above, fell on him while he was engaged at work, and with such crushing force that he survived the accident but a few minutes. His name was John Duskey.

U. S. FLYING ARTILLERY.—The great service performed by this arm of the service during the Mexican war, has been widely recognised, and, as an instance of what it was capable of achieving, the N. Y. Courier and Enquirer mentions the following:

"The lamented Col. Duncan, of the U. S. A., had drilled his men to such perfection in artillery, and to such celerity of movement, that on one occasion, when his guns were under their sheds, the horses of the light battery in the stable, and the harness hanging up, he accomplished the feat of harnessing up, moving his guns two hundred yards, forming in battery, and firing a round, in the space of a minute and a half from the time the first command was given.

THE PHILADELPHIA MUSEUM.—The old and valuable collection of curiosities, paintings, &c., the largest in the country, was sold at Sheriff's sale on Monday morning, and purchased by Mr. P. T. Barnum, for the trifling sum of 3,500. The best portion of it will be added to Mr. Barnum's Museum. The original cost was more than $100,000.

GOLD DIGGERS.—The National Intelligencer learns that, in an official report to the War Department, on the civil affairs of California, Gen. Riley estimates the number of persons actually employed in digging for gold, at ten thousand, while the number of persons engaged in other employments at the Placers, greatly increase this amount.

RAILROADS AND CANALS.—We have now in the United States, about 8,500 miles of railway, completed at a cost of $220,000 and before the close of this year, at least 5,000 miles more will be in contemplation, and capital will be found rapidly centering towards them.

THE SUPPOSED SUICIDE ARRESTED.—We learn from the Rochester American of Saturday that Mrs. Miller, who took care to have herself reported as having jumped over Niagara Falls on Monday night last, has been arrested at Syracuse. She was running away with a young man named Blackman, and had contrived the suicide to cover her retreat.

Gov. Ramsey of Minesota, arrived in Harrisburg on Thursday morning last, and will visit Washington this week. He looks very well, it is said, and expresses himself highly pleased with his new residence.

DESIRABLE FARM.—The small farm in Monroe township advertised for sale in to-day's paper, offers a good opportunity to an industrious man with small capital.

The Secretary of the Treasury acknowledges the receipt on the 24th instant, of five dollars to correct "all old accounts" which has been paid into the treasury of the U. States.

Miss Fredericka Bremer left New York, on Monday last, for Boston, where she will remain for a short period.

Spurious Notes.—Sussex county Bank, Newton, N. J. 1, 2, 3, 5, and 10's spurious. Vignette, Sailing Vessels. Boston Bank Note Co. No. 9 State street, engravers.

Franklin Bank, French Creek, New York—5's, letter C. dated July 12, 15, 1847, (date engravers.)

Southwark Bank, Philadelphia, Pa. 5's and 10's spurious.

Bank of Charleston, Charleston, S. C. 10's spurious. May be detected by observing that on the right margin of the counterfeit is a head and the denomination—the genuine are different.

A new spurious bank note has made its appearance, in the shape of $3 bills, purporting to be of the Farmer's Bank, Columbia county, dated Hudson, Jan. 15, 1849—the date being engraved. The vignette represents three women, and there is a head of Washington on one end. The figure 3 is in six places and it bears the names of James Duff, jr, Register, and E. Gifford, President. There is no such bank.

Counterfeit notes of the denomination of five dollars, on the Franklin Bank of Baltimore, are in circulation. They are said to be well executed and calculated to deceive, but in what respect they differ from the genuine note we have not been informed.

Broken Bank Notes—The notes of the Susquehanna County Bank are quoted at N. York as worth 25 cents in the dollar, and the notes of the State Bank at Morris 12½ cents in the dollar.

The Notes of the Merchants' Bank of Canandaigua, New York, are in bad repute, in consequence of the serious charges against its proprietor, Samuel Drury, of Astoria, near New York, who has been arrested for various malpractices, and it is rumored that fraudulent notes have been issued of various denominations.
