Kossuth's Address to America.

The Washington Union of Saturday publishes Kossuth's Address to the people of the United States. It makes five columns in that paper. He tells us if the United States had been a neighboring nation at the time of the Hungarian revolution, all Europe would have been revolutionized. The following paragraph is extracted from the close of the addressed.

"Free citizens of America! You inspired my countrymen to noble deeds. Your improval imparted confidence. Your sympathy consoled us in adversity, lent a ray of hope to the future, and enabled us to bear manfully the weight of our heavy burdens.—Your generous fellow feelings will still sustain us, until we realize our hopes and faith that Hungary is not lost forever. Accept, in the name of my countrymen, the acknowledgements of our warmest gratitude, and our highest respect. I, who know Hungary so well firmly believe she is not lost; and the intelligent citizens of America have decided, not only with impulsive kindnesses, but with reason and policy, to favor the unfortunate, but not subjugated, Hungary. May your power be the terror of all tyrants, and the protector of the unfortunate, and your free country ever continue to be the asylum for the oppressed.

LETTERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The Government departments at Washington have received official information from San Francisco; that letters frequently reach there with the envelopes partly torn off, and the address mutilated, in consequence of the practice of using sealing-wax to secure the envelopes. In passing through the tropics the wax is invariably melted so as to destroy all semblance of a seal, and not unfrequently so as to adhere to the letter beneath it, and cause the injury or destruction of the address in separating the two. The Postmaster General therefore recommends to all persons having correspondence with California and other parts of the coast of the Pacific Ocean, to discountenance the use of wax in sealing their letters or other papers.

NEW PLAN OF SEARCH FOR SIR JOHN FRANKLIN.—A writer of the National Intelligence suggests that if another Artic search be undertaken for Sir John Franklin, that balloons be taken out, to be let up from the vessel by a cord, for the purpose of observation for long distances around. The fact that the American and English expedition lay within fifteen miles of each other during the whole winter, without either knowing it in the late search, demonstrates the necessity of this. They may have been equally as near to Sir John's party, and remained in entire ignorance of it.

☞ The Austrian Government has condemned thirty-six prominent Hungarian refugees to death—some of whom have been—in effigy—executed. These refugees, including Kossuth, are clear of Austrian clutches, so that their execution really—will be difficult. Two of them, Madraz and Baron Methelenyi, lately arrived at Philadelphia, from whence they proceeded to the Hungarian settlement in Iowa.

☞ 'You can't think,' says a lady writing to an editor, how much good the deaths and marriages do me. If you knew how I love deaths and marriages, you would have them in every paper. The elopements and murders are beautiful, but the common deaths and marrsages rre the most satisfactory. You crowd the married ones close together that it seems as if you consulted their happiness and wishes even your types.

☞ Judge Parsons in a case of prosecution of two female teachers in Philadelphia, for whipping a scholar, decided the teacher occupied the position of parent over the children in school, and had a right to chastise, unless it was clear the chastisement was inflicted with a malicious heart and evil intention.

THANKSGIVING.—The first thanksgiving gun has been fired by Governor Boutwell, of Massachusetts, who has appointed Thursday, the 27th of November, as a day for such public ceremonies. The Post learns that there is an understanding among all the Governors in the Union to appoint the above day for the observance of the annual holiday.

☞ Lately, in Michigan, two neighbors agreed to an exchange of their families—one giving his wife and two children for the other's wife.

☞ The Mammouth Cave in Kentucky, is now owned by the children of the late Gen. Jesup, and the children of the late Col. Corgan, who received it as a bequest from a wealthy relative.

DAGUERREOTYPES!

JACOB BATES respectfully announces to the citizens of Carlisle that he has taken rooms in the house of Mr. Gutshall, on South Hanover street, nearly opposite the public house of Mr. Scott, for the purpose of delineating the "human face divine" by means of the new and beautiful art of the Daguerreotype. Having a thorough scientific and practical knowledge of this truly wonderful discovery, he feels confident of producing a style of pictures superior to any ever before offered in this place. These truly beautiful mementoes of relatives and friends can now be obtained at an expense so trifling as to place them within the reach of all. He has just received from New York and Philadelphia a large stock of the very best Daguerreotype materials, purchased at reduced prices, and is therefore enabled to offer truthful, life like, expressive and lasting likenesses at exceedingly low prices.

☞ An opportunity is now offered, such as may never again occur in this place, of obtaining likenesses of parents, children, or other dear friends, executed by nature's own pencil, and at once elegant and exact.

Pictures also taken for rings, breast pins, medallions, &c., equally perfect as those of a larger size.

Instructions given in the art on moderate terms. All are invited to call, examine specimens, test our artistical skill, and see the Daguerreotye of Jenny Lind!

BIG SPRING ACADEMY.

NEWVILLE, CUMBERLAND COUNTY, PA.

W. R. LINN, Principal, and Professor of Metaphysics and Ancient Languages.
J. ALLEN BROWN, A. B., Professor of Natural Philosophy and Mathematics.

THE Winter Session of this Institution will commence on the first Monday in November, 1851, which, with the exception of two weeks' vacation at the time of the Christmas holydays, will continue until the last Thursday in June, 1852.—After that the sessions will commence regularly on the first Mondays of February and August, and close on the last Thursdays of June and December. Every effort on the part of the proprietors which would tend to make the Institution worthy of the confidence of the public, will cheerfully be made; and they would hope that by a discerning people the merits of their Academy will not be overlooked. Located as it is, in the centre of the beautiful and romantic Cumberland Valley, its situation is exceedingly pleasant and beautiful, while the village and surrounding country is noted for the morality and intelligence of its inhabitants.—Every possible inducement will be held out to students of the Academy to pursue the only path to genuine usefulness.

TERMS:

For the coming term, students in the English branches will be charged $2 00 per month. In the Latin and Greek languages $2 50 per month. Afterwards the terms will be regularly as follows:

Boarding and washing per session of five months,	$35 00
Tuition in English,	10 00
do. do. including Latin and Greek,	13 00
French and Drawing, each	5 00
Vocal and Instrumental Music, each	7 00

☞ Instructions in the Hebrew language will be given without any additional charge. No "idle scholars" will be received, and no student taken for less than half a term.

Classes in civil Engineering will have the advantages of field operation with the Compass and Chain, Level and Theodolite. For those intending to pursue a thorough Academic education, occupying four years, the course will be as follows:

FIRST YEAR.

Reading, Penmanship, Geography, History, English Grammar, Watts on the mind, Mensuration, and Algebra commenced.

SECOND YEAR.

Algebra completed, Geometry of Plains and Solids, Philosophy of Arithmetic, Geology, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Latin Grammar and Reader.

THIRD YEAR.

Analytical Geometry, Conic Sections, Differential and Integral Calculus, Trigonometry, Botany, Rhetoric, Moral Science, Cæsar, Virgil, Horace, (odes) Greek Grammar and Reader.

FOURTH YEAR.

Surveying, theoretical and practical, Navigation, Philosophy, (Olmsted's) Astronomy, Political Economy, Logic, Mental Philosophy, Evidences of Christianity, Natural Theology, Horace (Ars Poetices) Juvenal, Persius, Homer and Hesiod.

We would strongly recommend to those who do not contemplate a collegiate education for their sons or wards, a full Academic course, as in this advanced stage of intellectual improvement nothing short of this will satisfy an American people; and it is firmly believed that this Institution possesses the capabilities for imparting as sound and complete an education as any other in the country.
