SHIPPENSBURG ACADEMY.

J. H. STINSON, A. M., Professor of Languages, Natural Sciences and Mathematics.

J. OREN, A. M., Professor of the Normal Department.

D. A. L. LAVERTY, Assistant.

MESSRS. LAVERTY & KNISLEY would respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they intend to commence the 1st Session of their school, on the 1st Monday in October, next. They intend to spare no pains in furnishing everything necessary to render the accommodations for boarders ample and pleasant.

They have engaged for the Classics and higher English Branches, Mr J H STINSON, a graduate of Princeton College, who comes with the most unexceptionable recommendations and references, to character and qualifications.

Students will be prepared to enter any class in College, or for business. The discipline will be mild and persuasive, and it is hoped, parents sending their sons here, will not be disappointed in their moral and intellectual culture.

There will also be a Normal Department, in which young men, wishing to prepare themselves for Teaching, can do so, on the latest and most approved plan.

The place is noted for its healthfulness and the moral and religious character of the community. There will be two sessions a year of five months each. The Winter Session commencing on the 1st Monday in October, and the Summer Session, on the 2d Monday in April.

TERMS,

Boarding, Washing and Tuition in English branches, per session, (5 mo)	$50 00
Latin or Greek Languages	5 00
German or Music	5 00

For those living in town and the immediate vicinity, wishing to board themselves, the terms will be moderate.

For further particulars, address,

D. A. L. LAVERTY,
S. KNISLEY.

BIG SPRING ACADEMY.

NEWVILLE, CUMBERLAND COUNTY, PA.

W. R. LINN, Principal, and Professor of Metaphysics and Ancient Languages.

J. ALLEN BROWN, A. B., Professor of Natural Philosophy and Mathematics.

THE Winter Session of this Institution will commence on the first Monday in November, 1851, which, with the exception of two weeks' vacation at the time of the Christmas holydays, will continue until the last Thursday in June, 1852.—After that the sessions will commence regularly on the first Mondays of February and August, and close on the last Thursdays of June and December. Every effort on the part of the proprietors which would tend to make the Institution worthy of the confidence of the public, will cheerfully be made; and they would hope that by a discerning people the merits of their Academy will not be overlooked. Located as it is, in the centre of the beautiful and romantic Cumberland Valley, its situation is exceedingly pleasant and beautiful, while the village and surrounding country is noted for the morality and intelligence of its inhabitants.—Every possible inducement will be held out to students of the Academy to pursue the only path to genuine usefulness.

TERMS:

For the ensuing term, students in the English branches will be charged $2 00 per month. In the Latin and Greek languages $2 50 per month. Afterwards the terms will be regularly as follows:

Boarding and washing per session of five months,	$35 00
Tuition in English,	10 00
do. do. including Latin and Greek,	12 00
French and Drawing, each	5 00
Vocal and Instrumental Music, each	7 00

Instructions in the Hebrew language will be given without any additional charge. No "day scholars" will be received, and no student taken for less than half a term.

Classes in civil Engineering will have the advantages of field operation with the Compass and Chain, Level and Theodolite. For these intending to pursue a thorough Academic education, occupying four years, the course will be as follows:

FIRST YEAR.

Reading, Penmanship, Geography, History, English Grammar, Warts on the mind, Mensuration, and Algebra commenced.

SECOND YEAR.

Algebra completed, Geometry of Plains and Solids, Philosophy of Arithmetic, Geology, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Latin Grammar and Reader.

THIRD YEAR.

Analytical Geometry, Conic Sections, Differential and Integral Calculus, Trigonometry, Botany, Rhetoric, Moral Science, Caesar, Virgil, Horace, (des) Greek Grammar and Reader.

FOURTH YEAR.

Surveying, theoretical and practical, Navigation, Philosophy, (Olmsted's) Astronomy, Political Economy, Logic, Mental Philosophy; Evidences of Christianity, Natural Theology, Horace (Ars Poetica) Juvenal, Persius, Homer and Hesiod.

We would strongly recommend to those who do not contemplate a collegiate education for their sons or wards, a full Academic course, as in this advanced stage of intellectual improvement nothing short of this will satisfy an American people; and it is firmly believed that this Institution possesses the capabilities for imparting as sound and complete an education as any other in the country.
