C. E. R. DAVIS,
THE UNRIVALLED
DAGUERREOTYPIST!
OF CINCINNATI.

HAS the pleasure to inform the citizens of Carlisle and vicinity, that he has taken rooms over the store of BENTZ & BROTHERS, and is prepared to execute COLORED DAGUERREOTYPES by an ENTIRELY NEW PROCESS, known to none other, superior to any thing ever before exhibited in this country. By this process pictures possess a depth of tone not inferior to any in the world, and yet they possess all the BEAUTY OF LIGHT AND SHADE that can be found in the finest steel engravings.

Mr. Davis will remain in this place a few weeks, during which time all who wish a perfect likeness of themselves or family, will do well to improve the opportunity. The people of this vicinity are invited to come, one and all, and EXAMINE HIS SPECIMENS, AND JUDGE FOR THEMSELVES, and see if these things are so. This process is original with Mr. D., and has never before been offered in this place.

Pictures put up with preservers, and warranted never to fade. Miniatures set in lockets, breast-pins, finger-rings, &c. Operating hours, from 8 A. M., to 6 o'clock, P. M.

☞ Pictures taken in all kinds of weather. ☜

Dark dresses are most suitable for daguerreotypes. Children should be brought on a clear day, between the hours of 10 and 2 o'clock.

☞ Instructions given in the art. ☜
Carlisle, August 8, 1854.
C. E. R. DAVIS.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Davis' new and beautiful Daguerrean saloon, No. 14 Fifth street, over Leslie's store, was opened yesterday for the first time. Hundreds of ladies and gentlemen visited the saloon, and were delighted with the convenient arrangements throughout. The fact is, this establishment is the most convenient and finely furnished in the Union, while Mr. Davis' pictures are the admiration of the art. We advise our friends to call and examine the specimens at the gallery without delay.—Cin. Commercial.

DAGUERREAN ROOMS.—The art of transferring the features in the shortest possible space of time, through the medium of the daguerreotype, has been brought to great perfection at the present time, and we presume the art has reached to no higher degree of excellence than in our city. We were so impressed yesterday, upon visiting Davis' Daguerrean rooms, on the upper side of Fifth street, a few doors from Main street, which are fitted up in the most luxuriant style. There we saw quite a variety of the specimens of the art suspended against the walls, among which we recognized familiar faces, looking as natural and life-like almost as the originals. Now when duplicates of one's self are so easily supplied, it would seem to be a duty we owe our friends, should we leave them, to present them with our semblance, for then we should be sure to be remembered—it would be unpleasant to think we should be forgotten. We would, therefore, recommend those who contemplate absenting themselves to the kind services of Mr. Davis, of Fifth street.—Cin Enquirer.

We had the pleasure of inspecting one of the most beautiful family groups we have ever seen, at Davis' Daguerrean gallery, No. 14 Fifth street, yesterday. Mr. D. gives particular attention to the taking of groups and children, and in these, as in fact in all his pictures, is eminently successful. His time is wholly devoted to his beautiful art, and by close attention and study, he has been able to make many improvements. Give him a call.—Cin. Nonpareil.

"Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north winds breath,
And stars to set; but all—
Thou hast all seasons for thy own, O death!"

How soon some loved one may be snatched away you know not. Get a daguerreotype from that excellent artist, Davis, No. 14 Fifth street—it will be a life-like, almost a living memorial.—Cin. Sun.

There is much talk again about Hillotype and other projected improvements in Photography, but the simple fact is, that nothing has been brought to light as yet, which can compare with Mr. Davis' beautiful deguerreotypes, in clearness of outline, accuracy of expression, or delicacy of tone and color. Call at No. 14 Fifth street, and see his specimens and judge for yourselves.—Cin Times.

It is a well-known fact, that Mr. Davis' daguerreotypes are equal to any in the world, the beautiful specimens exhibited in his gallery are evidences of his skill in the art. We were present and witnessed the operation of taking the likeness of a child, performed by Mr. Davis, at his gallery, No. 14 Fifth street. Parents anxious to secure a good likeness of their children will find Mr. Davis an excellent hand to take them; he always succeeds admirably.—Cin. Citizen

All who visit Davis' splendid gallery, on Fifth street, No. 14, are inclined to repeat their visits. We do not wonder at this, Mr. Davis knows how to give a courteous reception to visitors, as well as to give them good pictures.—Cin. Gazette.
