CHARLES OGILBY.

Carlisle, Jan. 14 1857.

GREAT ATTRACTION!—A. G. EKEE would respectfully inform the citizens of Carlisle and the public generally that he has repurchased that well known DAGUERREAN GALLERY, in Marion Hall, formerly occupied by Geo. M. Rofler. The Gallery is now the second door to the third door. This will be a great inducement toderly people in particular, as it is easy of access. The rooms have been fitted up a superior style, and no pains will be spared to make it a FIRST CLASS GALLERY. The apparatus used is of the best quality. We receive our materials direct from the manufacturer in New York city, which enables us to be in receipt of all the latest styles of fancy and other cases, and we warrant them to be of a superior quality to any ever offered for sale in this vicinity.

I have placed in this Gallery an artist who has been in successful operation in the Gallery in Harrisburg for several years past, and will guarantee good pictures to all those who will favor us with a call. All pictures not perfectly satisfactory will be taken free of charge. Pictures inserted in Lockets, Breast Pins, Finger Rings, &c. Instructions given in the art on reasonable terms.

We invite all to call and examine specimens, whether they want pictures or not; then judge for themselves.

CUMB'D VALLEY INSTITUTE.

COMMON, NORMAL & CLASSICAL SCHOOL for Young Ladies and Gentlemen. Mechanicsburg, Cumberland County, Pa.

This well known Boarding School for young ladies and gentlemen, conducted for several years, by the Rev. J. S. Lewis, A. M., will be continued by the subscriber, who engaged the services as instructors of youth, subject to my whole direction, of experienced teachers. The next session will commence on the second Monday in January, and will be thoroughly organized and prepared to carry on the business with dispatch and accuracy. These studies which arise from the relations of reciprocity and social intercourse, such as Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography, History, Composition, Rhetoric, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Astronomy, Political Economy, Civil Engineering, Surveying, Mapping, Botany, Natural History, Chemistry, Moral Philosophy, Evidences of Christianity, Political Economy, Civil Engineering, Surveying, Mapping, Botany, Natural History, Chemistry, Astronomy
