A CALL FROM THE "Good Will."

THE Financial Committee of the "GOOD WILL HOSE COMPANY" finding themselves in need of funds for the liquidation of an outstanding debt, contracted in the purchase of new hose, and not wishing to appeal directly to the citizens through the ten common medium of the subscription list, have, after mature consideration, concluded to hold a GRAND FAIR in RHEUM'S HALL commencing on the 14th and closing on the 21st of December, where all the lovers of innocent pleasure are earnestly invited to call and spend a few hours, pleasantly to themselves, and profitably to us, by exchanging a few dimes for some of the many useful as well as fancy articles which will be there in abundance.

This FAIR will be conducted on a plan entirely different from any heretofore given in Carlisle, so that none, not even the most fastidious in morals need withhold their patronage; but, on the contrary, each and all may come assured of a warm and cordial welcome to what will partake more of the character of a chaste, social gathering of friends than that of a promiscuous fair.

It will, no doubt, be urged as an objection by some who read this notice, that the fairs of our different Fire companies are too frequent, and their demands for money too often made. To all such we would say, "Is not the laborer worthy of his hire?" To whom are you indebted for the safety of your property? if not to the disinterested firemen. Who are they that are expected to respond to every cry of assistance when the red flames are gathering about your dwelling? are they not the firemen of your town? Who is it that is always ready to leave his business in the day and his bed in the midnight cold, to stand in snow and sleet in order that either men's property may be saved from destruction? Is it not the RED SHIRTED firemen whose only interest in the matter is a worthy spirit of rivalry in the race to save the property of those who sometimes last in their denunciation of what they term "begging." But enough of this: we feel confident that there are enough true friends of the firemen in Carlisle to sustain us in this contemplated enterprise. We do not ask for you cash without giving you a sufficient return but on the other hand we are prepared to give a fair and just equivalent for every dollar that may be left with us.—This is the season too when all are, more or less, disposed to scatter a goodly portion of their surplus funds in the purchase of gifts for the "loved ones at home;" and it is to this class we would hold out peculiar inducements, feeling confident of being able to give them not only a just equivalent for their money, but also a fair return of pure and unalloyed pleasure.

In order to insure a larger attendance than usual, the Committee have concluded to offer the following inducement—viz: Every person purchasing a ticket of admission, at the low price of ten cents, will be entitled to a chance in a gift of the value of $25,00, to be drawn on the last night of the Fair. If the fortunate possessor of the prize should be a gentleman, he will be entitled to a suit of clothes of his own selection at the above value. If, on the other hand, the drawn number is secured by a lady, she will be entitled to a Silk Dress or new bonnet of her own selection, of like value. Every ticket purchased is entitled to one chance.

It has been a common practice, heretofore, to issue cards of invitation to the ladies of our town to contribute articles for the Fair, but, in as much as it has been found impossible to pursue this course with out laborriously passing by some one, thereby giving offence where it was not intended, the Committee have, therefore, concluded not to issue separate invitations, but to extend the very kind invitation to all our female friends to contribute such articles as they may think best suited for the Fair of the school Will Hose Company. All articles intended for a contribution may be deposited at the Store of Mr. Ogilby or any of the Committee, on or before the day preceding the opening of the Fair.

And now in conclusion permit us to say,

To the young and the old, the grave and the gay;
Remember the "Bodies," remember their Fair,
And the many warm hearts that will welcome you there

By order of the Committee.

D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON

An aperient and Stomach preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Blemishes in Complexion, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaint, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittant Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have been almost forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for persons familiar with medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for unlike the old oxides it is absolutely inert, without being exciting and overbearing in its mild and gentle, regulatory operation, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a cathartic, purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property among others, which makes it so valuable as a mild and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also supports a distinct and specific action, by disguising the local tendency which them. Sore throat, Cough, Cold, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Croup, Rheumatism, Pain in the Side, Back, Loins, or Limbs.

A—For Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Old Mountain Ague.

B—For Piles, Blind or Bleeding, Internal or External.

C—For Sore, Weak, or Inflamed Eyes and Eyelids; Failing, Weak, or Blood Shot Eyes.

D—For Catarrh, or long standing or recent, either with obstruction or profuse discharge.

W. C.—For Whooping Cough, including its violence and shortening its course.

Hand accompanying each box of Pills, containing ample directions, for using in Fevers, Inflammations, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Croup, Rheumatism, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Hives; the active value of using the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the dose—five to six Pills, for either disease—is then administered at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and prolonged less than usual.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, bronchitis, and consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Ague Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Debility, and Irregularities, Nervous Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old enemies, these Pills will be found a most valuable adjunct, and will not fail to cure almost every instance. Once for one of a single chronic ailment, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, the more valuable part of the cure has been over.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Rudolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPS. Mr. Wolf in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, for all the purity and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax and a fac-simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. Read the following from the New York Courier:

Enormous business for one New York Merchant.—We are happy to inform our fellow citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can send and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Rudolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Mulberry street. His stock of Schnapps on hand early for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy some ten thousand gallons; the Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. Head to his three large cellars filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dollars, and he says he feels confident his sales may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medicinal use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until by application to druggists they put up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the age mentioned of small decisters for the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a gift, and such a merchant should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but bad drinks, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

For sale by C. Imhoff Carlisle.

Sept. 14, '60.—6m.

Female Complaints and all Diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

We refer to the case of David McCleary, of Napier township Bedford Co., Pa., who on the 21st day of August, 1858, was so far gone with Cancer in the stomach that he was to be tapped in the course of a few days, and was given up by the attending physicians of Bedford Co., and by Dr. Newton at the Eclectic Office in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, during which time his life, nose, and palate were all eaten away by the cancerous disease. He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Lindsey Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him and although solidly dedicated, there is no question but that this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case will be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Bleakney, of Elderton, Armstrong county, Pa., cured of scrofula after being given up by the doctors for three years.

For the cure of this, only to Ann Saville, Clearfield county who was afflicted with scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Meisel, residing in Carrolltown, Cambria county, Pa., who was badly afflicted with Cancer that eat his entire nose off, and his case was worse if possible than Nancy's.

The particulars of these cases, every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher, can be seen in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure when followed. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who has used it. On the contrary all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its mild effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "that we do know," after ten years experience and prefer our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes, after the syrup is administered.
