The Carlisle Herald.

CARLISLE, JANUARY, 19, 1870.

The pupils of Pleasant Hall school, in South Middleton Township, presented their teacher, Miss Lide C. Fleming with an elegantly bound copy of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary as a Christmas present. We are always glad to record a thing of this kind, showing, as it does, that the efforts of a good teacher are appreciated, and believing that it stimulates both pupils and teacher to renewed efforts in their several spheres.

One nuisance there is in town that should be stopped. Boys are continually skating on our pavements to the annoyance, and often danger, of pedestrians. Only the other day we heard of one lady that was twice thrown, by boys skating against her on our streets. Can not this be done away with.

Scarlet fever still continues to rage in our town. The cases are assuming a frequency and malignity that is becoming alarming. We do not know the number of deaths the past week, but for a town of our size they are a great number. A good spell of real old fashioned cold weather would speedily abate the disease, but the changeable weather we are now having is very bad.

The alarm of fire raised on last Saturday morning was caused by a bed, in Laley's row, in the alley between North and Louther streets, taking fire. The bed, together with some of the furniture of the room, was consumed, and had the fire not been speedily checked the consequences might have been very serious, the buildings adjacent being entirely of frame.

Quite a number of strangers are seen upon our streets this week attending the court of quarter sessions now being held. The trial list is rather small, and it is possible that court may adjourn before the week is ended.

Subjects for local matter are not very numerous, and our friends throughout the county forget to send us notice of events transpiring in their neighborhood. To all who are willing to keep us posted in local matters we would make this offer: We will furnish you with paper and stamped envelopes to send your communications with, and will give you a copy of the Herald free of charge. Those who will accept this offer will please write and inform us, when the paper and envelopes will be sent to their address.

On Tuesday night a party of burglars forced open the front doors of the grocery store of Cover & Beshore, entered, and robbed the drawer of $5.00, besides helping themselves to tobacco and other articles.

John M. Zeigler, representing himself to be from Newville, Cumberland county, was arrested last evening on a charge of attempting to pass counterfeit money on Joseph Strouse, of this city. He offered a twenty dollar note on the National Bank of Commerce, New York. The note is similar to those passed on a number of our business men by the Allens, who are now serving a term in the penitentiary. The defendant was committed to prison until this morning when, upon a further hearing, he was recommitted for trial at the next term of court.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

The special services, in the interests of the Reformed Sabbath School and congregation, designed for the Christmas season, but deferred because of the Pastor's illness, will take place on next Sabbath evening, at the usual hour for worship. Rev. Thos. G. Apple, D.D., of Mercersburg, and Rev. Aaron Linebaugh, A.M., of Reading, Pa., will be present, and deliver addresses on the occasion. The friends of the Church are cordially invited to be present. A collection, in behalf of the Orphans' Home at Womelsdorf, will be taken, and a liberal response is desired.

The Velocipede school is again in full blast. Young gentlemen are trying to become familiar with the art of preserving a balance on two wheels, and are succeeding admirably. Hope some of them—say about three-fourths—will get skinned shins—so that this nuisance may be stopped.

For sometime past, several young girls have been in the habit of interfering with the door bells and knockers of the houses along the streets in which they almost nightly pass. These parties are well known to a number of the citizens of the town, and the sooner they cease their mischievous practices the better, because they are liable to a prosecution for every offence, and might find themselves lodged in the large hotel with sand stone front, kept by Sheriff Thomson. A.

The Star of the Valley comes to us in a new dress, looking very much improved. Mr. Linn, who has for a long time filled the editorial chair, retires, and Mr. Morrow, the publisher, undertakes the double duty of editing and publishing. We regret Mr. Linn's leaving the editorial fraternity, but as he states that he is allured from it by more renumerative pursuits, we congratulate him on his good fortune, and after good bye to him, cordially welcome his successor. May prosperity attend both in their new positions.

Our friends throughout the county have been favoring the Herald establishment with an unusually large job-bing patronage. We have largely increased our facilities for executing job and book printing, and have within the last six weeks doubled our force of printers, in numbers, and made almost double time besides. Our establishment is now much the largest of any in the county, and we are making arrangements still further to increase our capacity to do work. We hope still to increase the very large patronage with which we have recently been favored.

Arrangements are rapidly being effected to make the Good Will Fair, which commences the latter part of the present month, a success. The voluntary contributions have been both numerous and liberal, and conclusively prove that our citizens are willing to assist our fire-men. All contributions are very thankfully received and gratefully acknowledged, and may be left at Gilby's store or at the Good Will Hall.

We are glad to be able to say that since our connection with this paper our circulation has been steadily increasing. To our many kind friends that have aided us in this matter we return thanks, and hope that their efforts in our behalf will not cease so long as there is a family in their neighborhood that is without a paper.

RELIC OF THE PAST.

To the Editors of the Herald:

The following letter was written at a time when an army was being raised and organized in view of a war with France, during the administration of the elder Adams. Colonel Thomas L. Moore, (the grandfather of the late Thomas M. Willing, of Philadelphia,) had command of the Tenth Regiment; and the Majors were William Henderson and George Stevenson, all of whom had served in the Revolutionary War. Major Stevenson had command of all the recruiting service in the State, west of the Alleghenies. Major General Alexander McDowalls was first commissioned in the army as an Ensign, in this regiment, at this time; and General Hugh Brady as a Lieutenant, at the same time, in the same regiment.

Carlisle Barracks, 14th April, 1800.

SIR:—I enclose you an extract from the general orders of March the 11th, on the receipt of which I expect you will march with all the detachments, or recruiting parties under your command, to this place, together with all the public stores which may be in their possession. I have ordered in all the recruiting parties on this side of the mountains, some of which will arrive this day. I expect by Col. Moore's orders, Capt. Gibbs is on his march from Philadelphia. I have directed Lt. Swearingen to come on with the recruits from Bedford; this should have been through you; but my wish, which I am sure you will approve of, is to have as many of the regiments together as possible before we march, and it is probable those on the west side of the mountains will not arrive here in time; as Gen. Pinckney has written that he wishes us to be at Harper's Ferry by the first of May, if the weather should be fine; if not, as soon after as would be consistent with the health of the troops. Should we march from here before you arrive, you will be informed of it in due time. I have detached Lt. Lee with thirty men, to Harper's Ferry, to make gardens for us; and he is furnished with all the garden seeds we could procure. All this I am doing without the advice of Col. Moore; as I have not seen him since the beginning of January; I expect, however, to see him shortly, and that he has while in Philadelphia exerted himself to procure such things as may be necessary for the comfort and convenience of the reg't. You cannot conceive how happy I would be to see you. I have had difficulties enough to encounter this winter, but I hope soon to have good assistance.

I am sir with great respect,

Your obedient humble servant,

WM. HENDERSON,

Major Commanding 10th U. S. Reg't.

GEORGE STEVENSON, Major 10th Reg't, U. S. A., Pittsburgh.

Court met on Monday—Judges Graham, Stuart and Blair, being present. Although the slim attendance of spectators was noticeable, it was a remarkable circumstance, that the entire Grand Jury should be present at roll call, and that but two of the Traverse Jury should fail to put in an appearance. There are no cases of special interest before the Court. In the Quarter Sessions, there will be but few trials, and those only the lighter class of misdemeanors. During the trial of the civil cases, the Grand Jury were in session, and up to the present time have returned the following bills to the Court:

Commonwealth vs. David Fortenbaugh—Fornication and bastardy—True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Charles Williams and Zachary Taylor—Larceny—True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Augustus Richey—Assault and battery—True bill.

Commonwealth vs. William Koons—Larceny—True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Rachael Johnson—Larceny Receiving stolen goods—True bill.

Commonwealth vs. James Warden—Obtaining money under false pretences—True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Benjamin Garner—Burglary—Entering shop to commit a felony—True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Richard Noble and John Wilson—Robbery and larceny—Not a true bill.

Commonwealth vs. John Spahr—Assault and battery—Not a true bill—Augustus Richey, the prosecutor, to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. James Warden—Obtaining money under false pretences—True bill.

Commonwealth vs. John Stoner—Assault and battery—Not a true bill, and Margaret Stoner, prosecutrix, to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Samuel Bowermaster, William Bowermaster and Hiram Bowermaster—Assault and battery, with intent to kill—True bill.

The following disposition of the cases for trial on civil list, for first week, was made:

Stewart vs. J. S. Sterrett—No. 10, April term, 1862—Debt—Settled—Henderson & Hays for plaintiff—Weakley & Sadler for defendant.

Same vs. Woods—No. 11, April term, 1862—Debt—Settled—Henderson & Hays for plaintiff—Penrose and Todd for defendant.

Same vs. D. Sterrett—No. 27, April term, 1862—Debt—Settled—Henderson & Hays for plaintiff—Todd for defendant.

Klink vs. Patton et al—No. 13, November term, 1865—Trespass vi et armis—In this case defendant sold property claimed by plaintiff, in hands of plaintiff's agent, for the agent's debt; and the question as to whether the goods were those of plaintiff, or of his agent, is the one to be determined by the jury—Jury out—Penrose and Maglaughlin for plaintiff—Sadler and Hepburn, jr., for defendant.

Leeds vs. Western Union Telegraph Company—No. 22, January term, 1867—Debt—Continued—Penrose, Henderson & Hays for plaintiff—Sharp for defendant.

Zimmerman & Lescure vs. Beetem & Bros.—No. 129, August term, 1867—Debt—Continued—Lee, Weakley, Sadler and Smith for plaintiffs—Penrose for defendants.

Bower vs. Klinefelter and Rheem—No. 226, August term, 1867—Appeal by defendant Rheem—Judgment confessed by defendant Rheem to plaintiff for amount of debt and costs—Miller for Plaintiff—Smith for defendant.

Bowers et al vs. Williams et al—No. 53, November term, 1867—Ejectment—Continued—Miller for plaintiff—Penrose and Herman for defendants.

Bontner vs. Young—No. 66, January term, 1868—Replevin—Settled—Hunrich for plaintiff—Penrose for defendant.

Stuart's Executor for use vs. Woods—No. 145, January term, 1868—Debt—Settled—Hepburn for plaintiff—Penrose and Todd for defendant.

The criminal list was then taken up. We will give full report next week.

Licenses were granted to all the applicants, as hotel and restaurant keepers.

We beg indulgence for the numerous errors which appeared in our last issue, and also for the lack of the usual amount of editorial and local matter. Our duties are somewhat multifarious, and they occasionally conflict. Last week was one of those occasions, and the consequence was there was neglect enough to our editorial duties to mortify us considerably. We have however got our hand in again, and we will endeavor to keep things in proper shape hereafter. We notice all our cotemporaries are boasting how much they intend accomplishing in this present year of grace—how much they intend improving their journals, and what tremendous efforts they intend putting forth to give their readers about a hundred fold return for their subscriptions—and we give them much credit for their good intentions and endeavors. We will duly promise to do the very best of our somewhat limited ability, but we make the promise in good faith, and propose to keep it.

Hon. John Scott, United States Senator, this State, has our thanks for public documents.

Again we would call the attention of our readers to the announcement of the first lecture of the course on to-morrow Friday, evening. Du Chaillu, the African explorer, will then speak, as we before have mentioned. We feel confident that no one who has ever heard of him, through his works, or by reputation, will neglect this opportunity of seeing him face to face, and hear him give the experience of those years of travel, explorations, and danger, spent in opening up a country so long unknown, but now through his and other's exertions, being gradually brought out of the darkness that has shrouded it, and awakens more and more of the public attention, as it becomes better known and more clearly defined. Let every one who can attend, be present, for it is a chance seldom offered us, and will cause us many a regret if we pass it by. We are happy to announce in this connection, that a new and very pleasing feature will be introduced, and added to the evening's programme. Almost every one attending lectures and public assemblies of a like kind, are frequently at a loss to know how to pass the time that elapses from taking their seats until the lecturer makes his appearance. To obviate this, and fill this interval pleasantly, the services of the grand orchestra of Carlisle Barracks, under the leadership of Prof. Held, have been secured, and for half an hour previous to the lecture, will give some choice selections from the compositions of celebrated composers. This will increase still more the attractions of the evening, and certainly add much to its enjoyment. The committee will undoubtedly have the thanks of the public, for their untiring efforts in their behalf, and their wishes to instruct and please. Lecture to commence at eight o'clock.

(Announcements.)

The past session in the Hollidaysburg Seminary has been the most successful of any since the institution began. Success, in hard times, is not a bad test.

GREAT AUCTION SALE.

We would ask every person to attend this sale and get your dry goods at their own prices. Now is the time to save money. See advertisement of W. C. Sawyer & Co. Commencing January, 12, 1870.

THE PRICE OF COAL AND HOW TO ECONOMIZE.

The committee appointed by the American Institute to examine into the merits of the various coal burning stoves, have reported that, after making a thorough examination of the various stoves, and testing them thoroughly, both in reference to economy and heating power, they have found the 'American Base Burner' (manufactured in this city), to be the most economical, and the most powerful heater—some of the tests showing that this stove consumed full one-half less fuel than the others, and in every case gave much more heat." Is it not better to get the above named stove and avoid the great waste of coal?—Albany Knickerbocker.

GOLD DOWN! DOWN! DOWN!

TREMENDOUS DECLINE IN THE price of all kinds of Dry Goods. Panic in Boston, New York, and Philadelphia among the importers. Immense lots of new and desirable goods forced into the auction room and sold at sacrifice, all of which accounts for the prices I am enabled to offer new desirable goods to buyers. Goods received every day at prices that will astonish all

Paisley Shawls, Bengal Stripe Shawls,

Fancy Wool Long and Square Shawls,

Satin Black de, Cashmere Scarfs, Silk Ties, new style, and many other fancy goods at prices that defy competition, as I have received them on 15 days sale, all should not be returned, an advantage no other house in the county possesses.

Black, Blue, Green, Purple, Lead, Wine and Brown Wool Repps, best quality, at a great reduction. Black Alpacas, of best make in stock, at prices lower than previous to the war, which shows the effect of a panic. Men's and Boys' Wear: Heavy Beaver Cloth, Plain Black and Fancy Cloths and Cassimeres, Satinets, Jeans, and all the various goods suitable for the season, at greatly reduced rates

Water Proofs, Wool Water Proof The sale of Water Proof Cloth having increased so much this season for ladies' Suits and Circulars, some manufacturers have seen proper to advance the price; but we shall continue to sell at the lowest prices that they have ever been sold at. All qualities of Black and Gold Mix Waterproof.

Ladies' Merino Vests and Drawers,

Gents. Shirts and Drawers, Ladies' white and colored Merino and all wool Hose of every quality, Children's white and fancy wool Hose, every size, wool Flannels Canton Flannel, Ticks, Muslins, Ginghams, at prices, lower than they have been sold for nine years.
