MARRIED.

WETZEL—BENTLEY.—On the sixth instant, at the residence of the bride's father, in this place, by the Rev. Dr. J. Swartz, Mr. Andrew J. Wetzel and Miss Jennie Bentley.

For the bountiful supply of cake accompanying the above notice, the young couple have our hearty thanks. May their married life be to them a continual honey-moon.

DIED.

MYERS.—On the seventeenth of October last, at Boise city, Idaho Territory, Mr. George W. Myers, eldest son of Mr. Henry Myers, of this place, in the forty-fifth year of his age.

FLEMING.—In South Middleton township, on Saturday morning, December 10, of consumption, Wilson Fleming, esq., in the sixty-second year of his age.

The deceased was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church from his youth; he lived a life of the strictest integrity, and died trusting in God with a triumphant faith. His example will be held up for imitation, while the influence of his life will dwell as the gentle breeze, and bring forth fruit in the more earnest devotion and renewed consecration of those who have known his life, its tranquil close, and the perfect assurance which he had of the joys which awaited him beyond the river of death. Those who enjoyed the privilege of his friendship will always remember his smile of welcome, his cordial greeting, and frank and earnest manner, which told how truly he enjoyed the society of his friends, and made their intercourse with him agreeable

"LIBRARY OF POETRY AND SONG."

Being choice selections from the best Poets.

English, Scotch, Irish, and American.

With an Introduction by

WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.

"The entire work, page by page, has passed under the educated criticism and scholarly eye of this great poet.

The handsomest and cheapest book extant, containing more to give it enduring fame and make it universally popular than any book ever published. It has something in it of the best for every one—for the old, the middle-aged, and the young. Excepting the Bible, this will be the book most loved and the most frequently referred to in the family.

This is a Library in one book, whose contents will never grow old or stale. It will be read and re-read with the greatest pleasure. Over 800 pages, beautifully printed, choicely illustrated, handsomely bound. Sold only by subscription. Teachers, Clergymen, active Men and Women, can all secure good pay with light work by taking an agency for this book. Terms very liberal. Send for Circular, &c., to GEO. MACLEAN,
