THE subscription price of THE HERALD is $2.00 per year, in advance.

DURING the past week, a platform has been placed by the side of the C. V. R. R. track, opposite Kramer's building, on which to throw the mail bags. A very good idea.

TIME REDUCED.—The employees of the Carlisle Shoe Factory are now working on "three-quarter time." Commencing work at 8 a. m., and stopping at 4.30 p. m. This reduction of time went into effect on Monday last.

CIDER.—Jack Sites, on West Pomfret street, has nice, sweet cider for sale at all times. Persons desiring the article for mince pies or drinking purposes, would do well to give him a call. Oysters, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes and apples constantly on hand.

WILLIAM ELMER has given Kramer's new building on the corner of West Main street and Court House avenue, another coat of paint. Also painted the figure of a clock, and sign on the side of the building. The house presents a fine appearance, and is a credit to our borough.

CAPTAIN S. J. SHOOP offers that valuable property opposite the C. V. R. R., depot, at public sale, on Saturday next. This is a very desirable residence and worthy the attention of purchasers.

DON'T forget that the Cumberland Fire Company will hold a grand holiday fair in Rheem's hall, commencing Saturday, December 23. All are cordially invited to assist in this enterprise.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Mr. Adam Coover, of Penn township, sold his farm one mile south of Centreville, on Saturday, the eleventh instant, to Mr. Henry Shenk, for $6,000. This property contained 20 acres, with good improvements.

CHEAP JOHN told us that last week a country man, whose name we are not permitted to mention, picked up a shoeless boy on the street and bought him a new pair. At the same time he bought a pair of boots for a poor man. Honor to whom honor is due, etc.

CHEAP JOHN has left for the eastern cities to lay in another supply of goods, consisting of clothing, boots, shoes, underclothing, notions, hats, etc.

His business is increasing, owing to his low prices and fair dealing. Poor, dear, honest Cheap John has certainly established a business in Carlisle unprecedented. Give him a call, you will find the best assortment in town.

D. A. SAWYER makes another grand announcement. This popular dry goods house grows more in favor every day. We have noticed ever since the Fall trade has opened that this store has been crowded with eager seekers after something to wear. Don't buy until you have examined his elegant stock of dress goods, shawls, cloakings, furs, cassimeres, &c., as you can save both time and money.

THANKSGIVING.—To-day (Thursday,) one week is the day set apart by the President of the Nation and the Governor of this Commonwealth, as the day of thanksgiving and prayer. The different Banking houses and all places of business will be closed. We have not learned whether there will be religious exercises in any of the churches, if there should be, notice of the same will be made in these columns next week.

ACCIDENT.—On Friday afternoon last, as Mr. Henry Brightbill, of this borough, was attempting to fasten his horse to the stall in the stable, the animal suddenly shied, and almost severed the little finger of the left hand, at the first joint. Dr. W. D. Hall was called in, when the injured member was dressed, and although very painful, it is improving slowly.

THE new band, whose organization we alluded to several weeks since, we are glad to announce is making progress. They have ordered a set of silver instruments, which they expect to receive in about two weeks. They are still in want of considerable money, to meet the payment of the bill for said instruments, and we would again call on all lovers of music to contribute something towards defraying their expenses. A. L. Sponsler is the Treasurer, and will cheerfully recieve any amount tendered. Small amounts thankfully received, large ones in proportion. We understand our talented musical friend, Prof. Wm. H. Widner, is to take charge of the organization as leader. Success to them.

A MEETING of the officers of the 158th Regiment, Pa., D. M., was held at the Montgomery hotel, in Chambersburg, on the nineteenth ultimo, for the purpose of effecting an organization, and taking measures for a general re-union of the officers and men of the regiment, some time during the year 1872. In order more fully to carry out the object of the meeting, an association was formed, with Col. D. B. McKibbin as President; Maj. M. G. Hale, Vice President; Capt. H. A. Longsdorf, Secretary; Sergeant May, Adam Orris, Assistant Secretary; and Capt. Wm. E. McDowell, Treasurer. Chambersburg was named as the place of meeting, which was arranged to be held during the week of the Franklin County Agricultural Fair. Due notice of the exact time of meeting will be given.

H. A. LONGSDORF,
Secretary.

THE LECTURE COURSE.—The lecture season will open in Rheem's Hall, tomorrow, (Friday) evening, by Mr. D. R. Locke, better known as Petroleum V. Nasby, The Postmaster of the Confederate Cross Roads has sent the following sketch of his lecture for this occasion: "THE MISSION OF SKINENOYH."

I.—A short account of the Indian mode of life, by one best fitted to give it, as he knows nothing about it.

II.—Skinenoyh, a noble red man, desirous to see for himself the superiority of the white men, determines to go among them.

III.—The way the Comanches raised funds to send him, viz: Fairs, Tableaux, Entertainments, &c.

IV.—He strikes civilization at Kansas, and gets some ideas from land agents.

V.—He investigates grain gambling at Chicago.

VI.—Business in New York.

VII.—Politics in the rural districts.

VIII.—Society in general.

IX.—A comparison of the Comanche girl and the pale-face girl.

X.—A general comparison of the merits of the two peoples.

He balances accounts, and decides instead of endeavoring to make the like the white man, it to make the white man the like, and goes home a Indian.

A FINE BOOK.—We announce with pleasure that the greatest work of the present day, by a great man, viz: "The Life of Jesus Christ," by Henry Ward Beecher, is about being introduced into our Valley. It would be idle for us to attempt to give the public any information about the importance and intense interest of the topic treated in this book. To aid in dispelling the clouds of doubt which have so remarkably characterized these later days, has been the main effort and purpose of Mr. Beecher, by bringing the light of a strong common sense, and the warmth of a great living heart to bear upon the interpretation of God's word and the teaching of the Gospel.

Mr. William M. Chenoweth, of this borough, has received the agency of the Cumberland Valley, and is at present convassing our borough for subscribers to this work. He has been very successful thus far, having received the names of many of our prominent citizens. He has, also testimonials from the different clergymen of our town, speaking in very strong terms of praise in favor of the work.

PERSONAL.—Colonel R. H. Thomas, of the Valley Independent, paid us a visit a few days since.

Our citizens should not forget that the Union Fire Company will open a fair in Rheem's Hall, commencing Saturday, December 2. The hearty co-operation of our citizens is earnestly solicited.

FIGHT.—A disgraceful fight took place in the vicinity of Rheem's Hall, on Thursday night last. We did not learn the particulars, excepting that a half a dozen of men made an attack on a single individual, cutting him very severely. No arrests.

[ANNOUNCEMENTS.]

A CORDIAL INVITATION

BE GUIDED BY WHAT YOU KNOW

There is an old proverb which says, Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and suffering universally resort, casting all our for the means of relief. They enquire what is medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies now in present given in use, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of this ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides, in order to find that this great invigorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds an hour to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts, not as serious, continually grows and spreads. Unfortunately, many imposed upon by mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat higher place, attempted to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids their haphazard concections, as substitutes for the one which for so many years has been a medicinal staple throughout the United States Spanish America Canada, and the West Indies but only succeeded to a very limited extent. The public, however, are now fully awake to the imposition, having learned by observing of their sufferers, decidedly cunning other strange goods. 1je71 no71
