SPECIAL NOTICES.

WHAT SPRING BRINGS WITH IT:

Regarded from a medical standpoint, Spring is not the delightful season described by vernal poets. On the contrary, its yield of intermittent fevers, bilious attacks, rheumatic pains, disorders of the stomach, nervous complaints, and pulmonary affections, is alike as large as the crop of violets, snowdrops and cherry blossoms. The fruitful seeds of innumerable maladies rise with the morning mists, and are scattered broadcast by the vapors of night. Who can resist the pestilential influence? Certainly not the weak by nature, or those whose persons or circumstances have been overtaxed by mental or physical labor. Invalids, aged persons and individuals of sedentary habits are those who are most subject to be the victims of these pestilential influences, which they are unprepared to withstand. The only mechanical agent by which the object can be rapidly and effectually accomplished is the great vegetable tonic and anti-dyspeptic, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The operation of this celebrated specific is far bold. It strengthens the digestive organs, regulates the secretions, improves the condition of the blood, supplies the vital fluid with the elements of health, and invigorates every function of the body, so that the system may be in a condition to withstand the influence of those malignant influences by which they are surrounded.

BE WISE.

What wisdom will benefit you. Do not remain on trifles by your incredulity. Hundreds have sought relief from the horrors of Dyspepsia through the medium of DEMUTH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC STOMACH BITTERS and found it. Why should you suffer when this admirable stomachic has cured many similar cases? Do not doubt well be other believe and are cured? Delay in this matter is both dangerous and impolitic. Your health, happiness and business differs, while constant neglect is frequently followed by sudden and uncontrollable results. DEMUTH'S BITTERS are equally useful in the numerous difficulties attending Indigestion; as Biliousness, Constipation, &c., while as Fever and Ague and other disorders preceding into MIA-MATA, it is the only reliable preventive and remedy known. 21se69

BALTIMORE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Wednesday, Mo., April 3, 1872.

Within the Drove Yards.

CATTLE.—The receipts for the week amounted to about 7,[illegible] head. Wednesday's market opened slow at about 7½c advance on last week's prices, owing to the very light run, but the market was very easy and slow, buyers not willing to accede to the advance and dealers holding for an advance, closing the day without change. Extreme range of prices were from 1 to 7¾, a few very extra 7¾, but most sales were from 6¾ to 7½.

HOGS.—The supply continues to be greater than the demand, and has caused a further decline in prices of 25@50c per 100 lbs. Since our last report The provision market continues very dull with prices low and unsteady, in consequence of which our butchers are in but only excited for market use. We quote Corn fed Hogs from 6 to 6¾ net, $6.50@7.50 gross, for fair to prime Western and Pennsylvania, and the range of prices for Eastern shore prices range lr to 5½ to 5¾ nett, $4.50 to 5.20 gross, the latter price being the outside figure for extra stillers. Market closes dull and weak.

SHEEP.—Continue scarce and in demand. We quote good sheep from 5½ to 5¾, extra fine bringing 5¾, shorn sheep range from 4½ to 5½, as to quality.

FROM the city of Pittsburgh, of the sixth instant we take the following relative to business: Hogs quoted at 5@5¾. Market dull, and prices are more or less nominal.

MARRIED.

COLLIVAN—ETTER.—On the fourth instant by the Rev. J. A. Hedlund, Wm. F. Collivan, of Philadelphia, formerly of Carlisle, to Miss Mary E. Ecker, daughter of George Ecker, Esq., of Allegheny City.

BEADY—HAY.—On the twenty-seventh ultimo, at the residence of the bride's sister by the Rev. B. Washburn, Rector of Trinity church, Ashland, Mr. J. F. Beady, of Philadelphia, to Miss Nellie P. Hay, of Ashland.

DIED.

FALLER.—On the sixth instant in Bridgeport, Sarah M. Kaufman, aged 12 years 6 months and 26 days.

On the seventh instant her remains, followed by a large concourse of relatives, friends and neighbors, was conveyed to Camp Hill Cemetery for interment, and the occasion improved by Rev. S. P. Sterling.

Certificate of Distinguished Gentlemen Relative to Mount Florence:

We are familiar with Mount Florence on the Hudson, and take pleasure in saying that it is a large and beautiful property, conveniently located on the railroad and the City of New York, highly and substantially improved, and embellished to a degree very unusual in this country.

Mount Florence was purchased by Mr R H. Craig, in twen 1858 and 1861, and with ten years of natural growth, added to the immense sums expended in improvement, its present value can hardly be conceived. The situation is extremely favorable to health and enjoyment, and the views of mountain, river, and rural scenery, from different parts of the grounds are varied and beautiful at all seasons.
