COUDERSPORT, MAY 17, 1860.

The people of Oswayo Village will hold a Market-Fair in that place on the 26th inst.

The weather is now beautiful, after a week of showery rains from the south. Fruit trees are in blossom almost before they are leaved out, and grass and grain are coming forward with unprecedented growth. Everything looks favorable for bounteous crops, so far as our observation and inquiry extend.

We find the following handsome, (and we think deserved), compliment to one of our newly established mechanics, in the Madison (N. Y.) Advertiser:

"We understand that Mr. C. H Warriner, who formerly worked in this place, has started a Jeweller's store in Coudersport, Pennsylvania, where he intends permanently locating. We take pleasure in commending Mr. Warriner to the Citizens of Coudersport and vicinity, as industrious and honest, and above all a competent workman, in every branch of his profession. All watches &c., intrusted to his skill will be handled satisfactorily to the owner. He gave the best of satisfaction in this place, and for these reasons we recommend him."

IMPORTANT TO DRUGGISTS.—The following section of the new Penal Code, passed by the Legislature last winter, is of great importance to those who deal in drugs of any kind which are used as poisons:—"No apothecary, druggist or other person shall sell or dispose of by retail any arsenic, cyanide of potassium, strychnia, or other vegetable or mineral poison, or corrosive sublimate, except upon the prescription of a physician, or the personal application of some respectable inhabitant, of full age, of the town or place in which such sale shall be made. In all cases of such sale, the word "poison" shall be carefully and legibly marked or printed upon the label, package, bottle or other vessel or thing in which such poison is contained; and when sold or disposed of otherwise than under the prescription of a physician, the apothecary, druggist or other person selling or disposing of the same, shall make in a register kept for that purpose, the name and residence of the person to whom such poison was made, the quantity sold and the date of such sale. Any person offending herein shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars."

Flood in the Susquehanna—The Williamsport Boom Broke!

We find the following in the Williamsport Press of the 12th inst. A dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer, says the loss will reach half a million dollars, and that there will be a rise of 15 to 20 per cent. in the price of lumber. This is the largest loss of lumber at one time ever occurring in the United States:

"On Thursday evening about dusk the river was 5 feet high above low water mark, and through the night on till Friday morning about 11 o'clock, the water rose 12½ feet more, making the height of the river at this writing about 17½ feet above low water mark.

"About 2 o'clock Friday morning, the greater portion of the Susquehanna Boom, located about 4 miles above Williamsport, gave way. At the writing of this it is impossible to ascertain whether any part of the main boom stands or not. Several hundred thousand logs, capable of manufacturing about 60 millions of feet of lumber, were lodged in this boom. Immediately upon the boom giving way the logs began to escape from their lodgment, and up to Friday noon it is calculated that two-thirds of the logs in this boom have gone adrift. The river at this point has been filled with logs passing by. A portion of these, however, have been secured in the Loyalsock boom at Williamsport. This boom has also partly given way, rendering less secure the logs that have been secured therein, though it is supposed the greater part of the logs lodged here will not again escape.

"At the present time, no one can tell what the loss sustained will amount to among the lumber operators in Williamsport and vicinity, but is supposed to be very heavy.

"That portion of our town situated between Mill street and the river is mostly under water. Boats are in great demand among the residents whose houses are surrounded with water from two to four feet deep."

Special Notices.

THE PECULIARITIES of the female constitution, and the various trials to which the sex is subjected, demand an occasional recourse to stimulants It is important, however, that these shall be of a harmless nature, and at the same time accomplish the desired end. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters is the very article. Its effect in all cases of debility are almost magical. It restores the tone of the digestive organs, infuses fresh vitality into the whole system, and gives that cheerfulness to the temperament, which is the most valuable of feminine attractions. The proprietors feel flattered from the fact that many of the most prominent medical gentlemen in the Union have bestowed encomiums upon the Bitters, the virtues of which they have frequently tested and acknowledged. There are numerous counterfeits offered for sale, all of which are destitute of merit, and positively injurious to the system.
