Republican National Ticket for 1880 FOR PRESIDENT,

GEN. ULYSSES S. GRANT. (Subject to decision of Republican National Convention.)

Tuesday's Elections.

[From Philadelphia Weekly Press.] There can be no doubt of the meaning of the result of the elections of Tuesday. The lesson of California, Colorado, Maine and Ohio Is reinforced by the verdict of Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. He who runs may read it, and a fool can understand it. The "solid South," tampering with popular rights, threatening disturbance to business interests, toying recklessly with issues involving the posperity of all classes, refusing honestly to accept the issues settled by the Rebellion and disdaining acquiescence in the written law, affirming the new rightf which have grown ont of the struggle of arms, has araryed in steadfast phalanx the mighty States which give, and ought to give, the law to the Nation.

It is not necessary now to discuss It is not necessary now to discuss the causes which have produced this great revolution of sentiment. They are deep seated and they express the resolute purpose of the people. They do not intend to unlearn what the war has taught them. They do not intend to surrender what they won through arms. They do not intend to accept the dictation of men whom they distrust, distrust because their acts and tinuance of devine favor. trust, distrust because their acts and declarations prove them unfit to gov-ern the country. They do intend to maintain the ground which they have won. They do intend that the law of America shall be equality of privilof America shall be equality of privilege and security of rights. They scorn the bad faith which has destroyed both in the Southern country, and which has reproduced in shocking forms and with aggravations some of the worst evils of the former system of slavery.

The vote in Pennsylvania is overwhelming; that in New York, which as we write is close as to the minor officers on the State ticket, so slightly mars the general results as not to disturb the lesson which the election teaches. In Massachusetts General But-Iar is again defeated for Governor un-Horton. - Jackson Short, Wm. ler is again defeated for Governor under circumstances which make the result deeply gratifing. In Connecticut and New Jersey the Republicans have made gains in the senate of each which increase the probability of next year superseding two Democrat. United States Senators with two Reputy. can. These gains, added to that altain to be made next year in New York and Pennsylvania, will reduce the Democratic majority in the Uniled States Senate to the narrow margin of Frey, Peter Wilhelm. two votes. These are great results. and as such worthily call for rejoicing. But they are chiefly valuable as forecusting the result of next year's election, when the people will be able to elect. in harmony with a Republican President, a Congress which will bow to the popular will. Then the country will have taken the final step. which will bring "peace" to the distracted section and abounding prosperity to all.

Thanksgiving Proclamation. Thefollowing is the President's Thanksgiving proclamation. At no recurrence of the season which the devout habit of religious people has made an occasion for giving thanks to Almighty God and humble invok-ing his continued tavor, has the ma-terial prosperity enjoyed by our whole country, been more conspicious, more manifold, or more universal.
