THE POTTER COUNTY JOURNAL

Coudersport, Wednesday Evening Oct. 26, 1864.

Local and General.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ CASH paid for Wood at this office.

☞ Mrs. Nelson, Colesburg, offers for sale a span of working horses and fixtures.

☞ Scofield, Union, in the 19th district, has 1,302 majority for Congress.

☞ See the change of time on the Philad. and Erie Railroad. Trains run through to Erie.

☞ Hon. A. G. Olmsted received 21 votes more than any other man on the Union ticket in Tioga. That we call complimentary!

☞ We publish on our first page a speech of Alex. H. Stephens, vice-president of the rebel government. Read it carefully.

☞ Don't forget the Mass Meeting at Coudersport, on the first Thursday in November. Some of the ablest speakers of Pennsylvania will be present.

☞ The Union majority, on joint ballot, in the Pennsylvania Legislature next winter will be 33! Large enough for all practical purposes!

☞ An order from the War Department extends all furloughs of sick and wounded soldiers, who are now at home until the 12th of November. Let persons seeing this inform the soldiers in their midst.

☞ A fine new stock of Fall and Winter Goods at Olmsted's. Ed. has just returned from a visit to New York and has brought with him a thousand-and-one things with which to delight the eyes of the ladies.

☞ Do not be frightened by the stories that if Lincoln is elected there will be war in the North! The party who threatens this have tried one rebellion and it is so nearly played out and its friends have fared so well that it is not likely they will attempt another.

☞ There will be a Grand Union Meeting in Wellsville on Friday of this week. Col'l Jaques, [the man who lately had an interview with Jeff. Davis], and Gov. Noble of Wisconsin, will speak. Let every man in Potter who can make it convenient, be present, and hear these able champions of Freedom.

☞ Don't fail to be present at the Mass Meeting at Coudersport. Clinton Lloyd, Esq., of Washington, an old-line Democrat will be present and tell the people what he thinks of the course a certain wing of his old party have chosen to pursue. He is an eloquent and able orator and will interest all. Come out and hear him.

☞ Give one more day to your country! It is expected that the last Grand Mass Meeting of the Loyal Citizens of Potter, will be an overwhelming demonstration. Preparations are being made for such an occasion as noble Little Potter has not seen in many a day. A splendid Torch-Light Procession will take place in the evening. Come prepared to stay for the Evening Meeting.

☞ Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong, one of the most gifted of the Keystone orators will speak to the people on Thursday, November 3d. Do not fail to hear him. Ex-Senator Landon was compelled to disappoint his friends in this county at the October gathering owing to some home difficulties, but they having been successfully settled we can confidently promise a speech from this War-horse of true Democracy.

☞ Be careful how you vote?

Alex. H. Stephens says the Chicago Platform is a "Holy Light" to the Rebellion.

Remember that the Rebel soldiers cheered when they heard that Beetle McClellan was nominated.

Do not, for your country's sake, vote so that the rebels in arms can cheer over it.

☞ If you read the Copperhead papers you find there is no rejoicing in them over the victory of Sheridan. Why is this? Who can tell?

Success to the rebels in arms is success to Pendleton's Party! and defeat to the rebels in arms is defeat to Pendleton's Party! That's the answer—and every thinking man knows it is so.

☞ We hear by way of Germania that President Lincoln has called for half a million more men to be drafted immediately. How ridiculous such lying is. Men should be hissed out of a township that will thus attempt to work upon the fears of ignorant people. These stories are only told to those these unprincipled men think do not read sufficient to know that they are lies. No call for more men has been made or is likely to be made. Read the account of Phil. Sheridan's victory and think if it is necessary.

☞ We warn our people against believing any of the lies and "last cards" that will be circulated from now till election. Remember that those lies do not change the Chicago Platform, do not change that platform's sympathy for treason into love for the Union, do not change Pendleton from the man who would never "vote for a cent of money" with which to crush out treason into a loyal man, and do not change the General who retreated to a gunboat during a battle into the General who goes into the field and "takes the matter in hand" and wins glorious victory. These lies do not and can not change the real issue before the people, of "Country or no Country."

☞ We heard last week, by way of Sweden township, that the Copperheads had carried this State by fifteen thousand, and had gained thirty thousand in Indiana. It is strange, if that is the case, that they lost five Congressmen here, and Governor and other State officers in Indiana. Men are hard pushed for something with which to prop up their fast falling party, when they resort to such magnificent falsehoods to stiffen the backbones of the ignorant of that party.

How the Soldiers Feel.

So far as heard from the Soldiers from this county have voted as follows:

For the Union,	106
For the Copperheads,	1
Majority for the Union	105

If the people who wear men's clothes, and go about the streets whining over the hardships of war, had any sense of manhood in them they would cease this white feather talk in the face of men who bear the brunt of all the hardships and dangers of the war.

In addition to their voting against any compromise with traitors, the hero boys at the front who have found all the dangers that war brings, are constantly writing home most stirring appeals to their friends to crush the Copperhead ticket.

Here is a letter from one of these heroes who fought through the battle of Antietam, also that of Fredericksburg; and again faced the cannon's mouth under Hooker at Chancellorsville. Hear him, all ye advocates of a "cessation of hostilities," and ye grumblers at the high prices of matches and spool cotton, and all others who talk now, as did the selfish Butcher, in the days of the Revolution, who went about crying, "Beef, Beef," when all loyal people were doing their utmost to secure Independence and Freedom.

But read the letter. J.S.M.

City Point, Va., Oct. 15, 1864.

* * * * "There is nothing of importance to relate here aside from what you already know, [that is in regard to war news] but as to political news, I am happy to inform you that there is a decided change for the better. The blind are regaining their sight, and the supporters of that rotten foundation, the Chicago platform, are all fleeing therefrom and taking their stand upon a firmer foundation, by the side of good Old Abraham, the man who will not sacrifice his own and his country's honor for the sake of establishing peace with black-hearted traitors.

Is there a just God in Heaven, and will He send the curses of hell upon us by subjecting our glorious Country to the keeping and rule of a President elected upon such a vile thing as the Chicago platform, gotten up by the very instigators of this rebellion, supported by the bosom friends of our worst and most traitorous foe? No! no! God be merciful and preserve us from such a fate!

I believe that there is a just God, and that He is on our side, for there are hundreds that were formerly McClellan men that have discovered the right track and are now staunch supporters of the old "Rail-splitter," and that too without any electioneering except from their own consciences. M. W. Bennie.

ALL HAIL, MARYLAND!

The Maryland soldiers have achieved one of the gradest victories of the war.—They have lifted "the despot's heel" from the shore of their Maryland. Their vote has redeemed their State from the curse of Slavery, and anchored it fast and forever to the Union, whose cause, as the old Continental Congress declared, "is the cause of human nature." Their victory shows that they, too, understand the meaning of this war. They perceive that it is the armed insurrection of the privileged few against the laboring many.—They know the great slaveholder is the direct rival of the free laborer who lives by his daily wages. They know that while the system lasts permanent peace is impossible, and having learned in the battle field and the Southern prison that the tender mercies of slavery are cruel, they they have, with one master blow, demolished the root of the war in the soil of Maryland. It is indeed "a glorious victory." God bless the Maryland citizens at the front and the Maryland citizens at home?

☞ While Abraham Lincoln has at all times, and under all circumstances, exerted his influence to procure for the soldiers in the field the right to vote, George B McClellan declared in favor of Judge Woodward, (Copperhead,) of Pennsylvania, who decided against the right of the soldiers to vote!

Soldiers please make a note of it.
