A NOBLE COW.—Mr. Cyrus Catlin, of Catlin Hollow, has a cow which gave twelve hundred and thirty pounds of milk in the month of July. We doubt if anybody can beat that.

MR. L. Harrison is now receiving subscriptions to the American Agriculturalist at the Post Office. Club price $1. Those subscribing now for '68, will get the balance of this year gratis.

REV. J. F. CALKINS preached his 24th annual sermon at the Presbyterian Church in this village, last Sunday. There are few more earnest workers than Mr. Calkins, and we hope he may remain to preach his 48th annual sermon.

The County Superintendent requests us to say that the Teachers' Institute will hold its next Session at Tioga, commencing Monday, 23d inst., at 2 o'clock, afternoon. State Superintendent Wickersham, and other experienced Educators, will be present. Full details next week.

TIOGA COUNTY BANK.—Mr. D. L. Aiken President, and Mr. A. S. Turner, Cashier, having resigned their positions, the Directors of this Bank met on the 20th ult., and unanimously elected Mr. B. C. Wickham President, and Mr. Aiken Cashier. They have given the required bonds and entered upon their duties. Mr. W. O. Farr, is Teller.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Know Ye, That the F. K. of the S. L. of T. C., or G. K. A. A. G., has, through the press of his important and responsible duties entirely forgot to liquidate a few small bills before leaving Wellsboro. Immediate payment will save the exposition of the F. K. of the S. L. of T. C., and also the G. K. A. A. G., and the F. W.

Mr. William Bache and family returned to their home in this village from a visit to the Paris Exposition, last Thursday, in excellent health and spirits. They visited the chief cities in France and Switzerland, Genoa and Turin, and returning to Great Britain, spent some weeks with their relatives in Bristol, and thence made a rapid tour of Scotland and Ireland.—They left home on the first of April, being absent from home five months.

PERSONAL.—Rev. H. B. ENSWORTH, and family of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with his relatives in this village. He has occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church last Sabbaths.

Rev. Mr. BRECK, for many years rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in this village, now of Wilmington, Delaware, is on a visit to his old parishioners. He has occupied the desk of St. Paul's last sabbath.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.—The 25th annual meeting of the Tioga Baptist Association was held at Cherry Flats on the 28th and 29th days of August. The attendance was very large and the interest great. The opening sermon by D. R. McDermond was very able. The association put itself upon the record by adopting the following resolution:

Resolved, That we regard the use and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage one of the greatest evils of the age, which ought to be everywhere suppressed as a nuisance; and that it is the duty of every christian to oppose the use and sale thereof by all lawful and proper means.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The Hon. JOHN S. MANN, of Coudersport, addressed a large audience in the Court House, Tuesday evening of last week, on the subject of Temperance. The lecture was earnest and able, constituting one of the most effective arguments in favor of total abstinence that we ever listened to. It administered a rebuke to that class which makes so great an outcry against taxation, yet advocates the largest license of the sale of whiskey, that ought not to be forgotten. The lecturer did not state it too strongly when he said, that the money wasted, and the expenses incurred, by the sale and use of liquors, would pay every dollar of the national debt in a single year.

A. S. Brewster, Esq., presided with dignity and efficiency, and the Wellsboro Band entertained the audience with several spirited pieces.

BASE BALL.—ÆTNA VS. MONITOR.—The second game between these Clubs was played Monday 19th inst., on the Monitor grounds, resulting as follows:

INNINGS.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Ætna	3	0	7	4	0	2	7	0	4	—27
Monitor	8	6	0	1	1	0	6	11	3	—36

Umpire—H. E. Geer.
Scorers—Messrs. Horton & Tuttle.
Fly Catches—Ætna—4. Monitor—3
Out on Fouls—Ætna—14. Monitor—12.
Out on bases—Ætna—10. Monitor 11.
Home Runs—Ætna—Mather 1. Monitor—Van Osten 2, Mitchell 1.

The "Keystone" and "Covington" Clubs played a match game at Covington Friday forenoon 30th ult. The score stood—Keystone 49, Covington 18. Our boys report that they were treated with great courtesy, and they came home by daylight in good order. That was commendable. We have not been able to see the score book.

The "Osceola" Club will play a Match game with the "Keystone," on the ground of the latter, in this village, Saturday, 7th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M. We rather look for an interesting time.

The "Covington" and "Lincoln Union," of Knoxville will also play a Match Game in Wellsboro, same day, at 3 P. M.

We were in error last week in stating that the Match game between the Keystone and Osceola, at Osceola, was for a purse. It was for the Championship.

EXCITEMENT IN BROOKFIELD.—Two weeks ago we noted the burning of a barn with its contents, owned by Capt. H. B. Seeley, of Brookfield, in this county. The developments of the past ten days show that this act was the work of a gang of incendiaries who had planned other burnings and robberies in the same locality. The facts as they reach us, are these.

About two weeks ago, Capt. Seeley found cause to suspect a young man named Fisk, in his employ, of the burning of his barn. Acting upon this suspicion he set the young man gathering up nails, etc., left on the ground after the fire, and while thus engaged, boldly accused him of setting the fire. To make the charge impressive, he stated certain actions of Fisk on the night of the fire, and it seems that the Captain succeeded in making out a good case. Fisk admitted that he did fire the barn, and volunteered the following startling facts:

He said that in concert with two young men of that township, named Ives and Kilburn, respectively, he had been concerned in a plot to burn the barn destroyed, with five others in the township, and a store and shoe shop. That the object was to burn buildings which were insured, and then to rob the owners of the insurance money when paid over by the Companies. Upon this, Capt. Seeley told Fisk that he must carry out so much of the plan as related to robbing his house, or he would at once put him in the way of punishment. Fisk agreed to do this; and was in daily communication with Ives and Kilburn for several days. The Captain reported "money in the treasury" Monday, 26th ult., and the robbery was fixed for that night. Ives and Kilburn were to appear outside and whistle, and Fisk was to reply from the inside and hand the tin box of money out of the window to them. The plan worked well. The confederates made the signal which was answered by Fisk who with the Captain, was in waiting with the box. Fisk opened the window, and asked who was there? "Ives, and Kilburn," was the reply. Fisk handed out the box, and as Kilburn took it the Captain fired his revolver at the thief; but before the insiders could get out of the house, the outsiders had escaped.

At daylight the entire neighborhood was abroad in pursuit. Ives was found and gave himself up. Kilburn, who was wounded, ran off, and going down to Osceola took up Holden Brook into the edge of New York. Here he sent for Dr. Humphrey of Osceola to dress his wound, and thus the fellow was caught. The bullet entered under his nose and passed downward into the throat, inflicting a painful, but not serious injury. Fisk, Ives, and Kilburn were brought to this village last Thursday night and lodged in jail.

But the final wave of excitement broke over our Brookfield fellow-citizens last Thursday night. At about nine o'clock a barn owned by a Mr. Hoffman, in the northern part of the township was discovered to be on fire. The neighbors gathered to put out the flames, but their efforts were of no avail. As they were standing around the burning building, another barn belonging to Mr. Hoffman, situated half a mile distant, was seen to be in flames. Both barns, filled with hay and grain, were totally consumed. Mr. Hoffman had but a trifling insurance on his barns.

These are alarming facts. If investigation does not develop a large gang of incendiaries, of which the young men arrested are but stool-pigeons; and if it does not turn out that some itinerant insurance agents are at the bottom of the whole matter, we shall be very greatly mistaken.

GOSSIP.—The Circus came, and the circus exhibited to the universal delight and satisfaction; and it departed in the night season, quietly and with a full purse. The universal testimony is that it was the best show ever seen in Wellsboro. Its conductors behaved in a gentlemanly manner, and the best of order prevailed throughout the day and evening. The employees of the circus were sober and orderly men during their stay, and if there must be circuses may they all be like that of Thayer & Noyes.

But circuses have their camp-followers, like armies, for which circuses are no more responsible than armies are held to be. We saw but one of these gall-baits, and our interview with him was very amusing. Sitting in our office room, and busily engaged in preparing "copy," we became sensible of an antagonistic influence, and were aroused by a shuffling step. Our visitor opened with

"Is this Cobb's office?"

"It is."

"Are you the Burgess?"

"Unfortunately, yes."

"Well, I've got a show here that I want to get licensed. I'm a disabled soldier and can't do nothing but show. Never was refused—some charges something, and most don't. Its a harmless show."

Here the shywman, a hang-dog looking chap of fifty, fumbled in a side pocket of his greasy coat. First came out a piece of plate-board, folded, which he unfolded and spread out on the table. It was conspicuously headed "The Lucky Man's Friend," and was divided off into squares of an inch, in each of which there were figures in black, or figures in red ink. He then pulled out a bunch of cards numbered from 1 upward. We watched the operation a moment and said:

"Well, that looks like something we have seen before. A nice thing to catch boys with."

"Nobody ever objects to my show, sir! You see a feller just chooses his number, and I lets him draw off ten of these 'ere cards; then of the numbers on the cards add up to make the number on this 'ere card-board, the feller makes a quarter. You see that a feller always gets his money back, and a little more."

"Then how do you make your money, my friend?"

"Oh, if a chap gets a wrong number he loses his quarter."

"Just so. We see it. Cannot permit you to 'show' this nice little game. If one wanted to demoralize the young men of Wellsboro he could employ you to great advantage. If you exhibit that paste-board you must take the risk of arrest."

"You don't understand it, sir. Why, you see that your boys will some time go where such a show is, and they won't know anything about it, and they will be skinned alive. Then, they'll have more money than they have now, and it'll be a greater damage to 'em. This will sort o' learn 'em to look out."

"That's a sound argument, I presume; but you cannot be permitted to open the eyes of the boys in this village at a quarter rate. That is all, sir."

"I know," said our philanthropic visitor, "how it is, exactly." There's a few fellers in the world who want to rule it for suit themselves. I don't mean you, though. But I've allmus found these fellers either abolishnists or Republicans. Now a dimmycrat is different; they allmus is willin to let a feller get a honest living. I was in the war and got disabled, and I can't do nothin' but show. But you won't let a feller git a living any way."

And he departed in great wrath, cursing "Abolishnists" and Republicans.

—From the "Growler" who dwelleth in Crookedville, we have received the following good humored growl:

DEAR CUB:—I am naturally of a fault-finding disposition, and so I cannot help growling. I do not know whether you will let me growl in the Agitator or not, particularly as I want to growl at you this time. You have for many months been giving us in your local columns short sermons, apothegms, and other rhetorical titbits about summer showers, hot weather, reaping machines, watering troughs, shade trees, side walks, cemeteries, and so forth, which you call Gossip! I always read it first and like it, but I am always somewhat disappointed, because it is not gossip. So are my wife, and sisters, and daughters disappointed. I want to hear all about the crimes and misdemeanors of my neighbors; whether Bill Jenks and Jim Smith are going to be indicted next Court; whether the prisoners now in jail awaiting their trial are guilty or not, in your opinion, spiced with any little anecdotes about the assaults, arsons, burglaries, and other crimes with which they may be chrged. And my folks would like you to state whether Miss Polly Hopkins's new silk waist is new, or the old one turned and dyed; whether Phillip Sandgrass treats his wife badly as folks say, and items of the kind.—Now that is what I call gossip, and though it may demoralize the people, it will make the Agitator very interesting. But then I do not expect you will agree with me in this matter; however it will make no difference with THE GROWLER.

We should like to accommodate our friend, "The Growler," and at the same time carry a streak of sunshine into the heart of the Growler Family. But positively we can't go that sort of gossip, either in the Agitator or out of it. All we claim for our weekly gossip is, that it may be taken with tea or without tea, and the taker never be the worse, if not bettered by it. We hold, and guess "Growler" does, too, that gossip of the other sort is a sort of diluted damnation, never to be admitted by those who wish well to the community. Come again.

BURN.—Dr. E. Smith, of Mansfield, last Wednesday straightened a crosseye for a daughter of Mr. D. W. Doud of Sullivan. The operation was perfectly successful. The Doctor also removed a number of tumors during the week.

AT THE BAZAAR!—Notwithstanding the "fuss" between "Andy" and Grant, the removal of "Gallant Phil" and "One Legged Dan" and the rise in gold consequent thereupon in Wall Street, WALL PAPER has declined in price and YOUNG has filled up with a splendid Fall Stock, ranging in prices from ten cents to ten shillings a roll.—Also Borders in great variety, Tassels, Cords, Picture Frames and Nails, and every thing in this line of Trade at YOUNG'S VARIETY STORE.

RESORTING TO TRICKS!—You will see men hand an advertisement with "A Man found Dead," or "A War with Mexico" for the purpose of attracting attention! but the true way to advertise is to be plain, as follows:

Sept. 4, 1867-1t.

A Southern paper says "some People object to cyclones notice, and we have heard them go so far as to threaten to stop their papers in consequence of them." But we can't help it; we are paid for announcing that W. R. Smith's Sons of Addison, N. Y., continue to furnish the citizens of Steuben and adjoining counties with every description of Dry Goods, Clothing, Carpets, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, Groceries, &c., at prices that never fail to please. 28aug2w

Various opinions are afloat as to whether Grant's acceptance of the office vacated by Stanton will endanger his nomination for the office of President; some ploughs Radicals swear they won't vote for him now anyway. But no such swearing is heard in relation to the Mammoth and popular Store of W. R. Smith's Sons, Addison, N. Y., for as fast as the shelves are vacated they are refilled with Goods and sold at low pressure prices. New Goods for fall now arriving.

FANNING MILL.—The J. H. Mather Fanning Mill, which took the premium at the County Fair last Fall, is without doubt the best in use. Its separator, which will separate wheat from anything and everything with which it may be mixed, is its distinguishing feature. Mr. Mather is manufacturing this Mill at Lawrenceville, Tioga Co., and we learn, has to work sharp to fill orders. Farmers should procure one of these mills without delay. 14aug6w.

The subscribers will send samples of goods when applied for by letter, and will forward packages free of charge when the order exceeds $10 in amount, to all customers in Tioga county who can be reached by express.

"BEE-HIVE" EXCHANGE!

The harvest has come, the promise fulfilled,
To the man whose broad acres were properly tilled;
Wheat is good, corn bunkum, oats may be a short crop,
But the average of all must be marked as tip-top.

I MAKE no pretensions to prophetic fire, but in reiteration of Bible promises to the industrious worker was in good time. I am therefore emboldened to prophesy that nobody will

STARVE TO DEATH

this fall and winter who has raised enough of grain and root crops to keep him and his family until those who have anything to the way of live substantials will escape starvation by applying to me at the

"BEE-HIVE EXCHANGE,"

where they will find my

PORK,

solid, and sweet, and cheap, my

FLOUR—X—XX—XXX

according to the marks upon the barrels; my

MACKEREL & WHITEFISH

"The latest catch"
And the greatest catch,

west of the

"Silent, sobbing, roaring, and placid Sea."

I furthermore prophesy that every man and woman, without distinction of color, race, or sex, will be

Cheered, but not inebriated,

by using the splendid

T—E—A—S

which I sell cheaper than the

GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY,

(or any other man. Sarkasm,) and no express charges, except the express charge of so much a pound, which you always pay when you trade with me.

I have had, and expect to continue to have a great "spell" of

"Kaughphy"

MOCHA (from Mecca) JAVA, BRAZIL, AND LAGUIRA.

(The latter of which rhymes with, but was not ground at "Elmira.")

I am further able to say that people will eat much or little, in proportion to their appetite, and will pay for much or little, according to their money. I sell Tea by the quarter pound, of course, but prefer to wholesale it in packages of not less than and, by persuasion, can be induced to sell a chest of a dozen pounds to one customer.

before buying elsewhere. We take pleasure in showing Goods, and still more in giving our prices. For, with the fine Stock we are enabled to show, and prices so we feel sure of success.
