NOTICE.—We are requested by the ladies of the St. Paul's Church Sewing Society, to announce that the Society is now ready to fill orders for plain and fancy sewing, and knitting, at the usual prices, and promptly.

BAPTISM.—The rite of baptism was administered to eight persons, at St. Paul's Church, by the Rector, Sunday morning, 3d inst.

YOUNG has a fine stock of Wall Paper, books, pictures, Musical instruments, and fancy articles, just received from the city. Go and see them.

FOLEY has just got in the finest lot of Watches, Jewelry, Silver and Plated ware, ever desplayed in this village. You can depend upon Foley's goods being as he represents them.

BEAT IT.—Mr. L. H. Shumway, of Charleston has left at this office a Rhode Island Greening measuring 12 inches in circumference. It is one of a bushel and a half from the same graft.

A GOOD THING.—Messrs. Webb & Hastings are agents for the sale of a new Kerosene Burner which only needs to be tried to be universally used. If there is any humbug about it we cannot see it. We have invested in them and don't want to sell out.

SOME PUMPKINS—yes, and a good big some—were left at this office last Saturday by Mr. L. H. Shumway. They are the biggest we have seen this year, though some person unknown to us, some weeks ago, left some big ones at the door. Much obliged.

THE ACADEMY.—This institution opened on Monday with a fair attemdance. Mr. Hodgson comes to us well commended, and we doubt not that he is an earnest and successful educator. The Academy ought to be liberally patronized as a home institution. If patrons do not require too much of one man the School can succeed. Let us all rally to its support and thus give the Principal that generous encouragement which is vital to his success.

POTATOES.—The Agitator desires to return thanks for a bushel and a half of fine potatoes from S. P. M., of Charleston. He says that the "devil" was too much for him last year, and hopes that he may succeed in putting in this donation unobserved. You can't do it, friend. We recognize the potatoes.

Mr. T. D. Marsh, of Marshfield, has our thanks for a peck of russet-pink-eyes, for seed.

ADDITIONAL BOUNTY.—At the suggestion of a friend, we make an abstract of a portion of a Washington dispatch to the Tribune, relating to additional bounties. The Second Auditor has received 294.838 inquiries touching claims for additional bounty. These inquiries are being answered at the rate of from 400 to 500 per day, employing 43 clerks in that department alone. The Second Auditor states that but 45 clerks can be employed without getting in each other's way. Of course, then, unless Congress grants some measure of relief, it will require two years to settle and pay off the applications on file at present. When is is known that these claims are accumulating day by day, claimants will understand that they must wait until their letters are reached in the regular course of business. None can be preferred before any other.

QUACKS.—A friend, himself a physician, writes to enclose an article on "Charlatanism," with a request to publish. We will give it a place at an early day. It is true, as our friend alleges, that the country is overrun with quacks who advertise to cure every ill to which flesh is heir. But it makes little difference with the victims whether warned or not. Mankind has a weakness for humbug, and the more daring the humbug the more certain it is to pay. However, the "latest arrival" of which he speaks, with the galvanic battery, does not trouble us much. If all the quacks would content themselves with dealing out galvanism at so much a shock, it would be an improvement. Unfortunately the worst ones cram their patients with decoctions, pills, powders, and other stuff, of the nature and properties of which they know nothing. It is always better to employ a regular physician with whom one is acquainted, who has a reputation to sustain.

WARD ITEMS.—A VALUABLE MINE. We are obliged to Lieut. Hollis, of Ward, for several items of interest, among which are the following:

"A fine mine of Manganese has been found in this township on the farm of Mr. B. Gustin, near the Segar School House, on the Canton road.—The ore crops out on the hill-side for some 25 rods, and is of very great value. Mr. Gustin has leased his farm to a company which is preparing to open and operate the mine."

Our correspondent further says, that Capt. S. Newman, of Canton, feeling indisposed a few days ago, went into Colwell & Whitcomb's store to get some wine, helping himself to the same.—By mistake he swallowed laudanum. Medical aid was called in, and after much exertion his life was saved.

Several new dwellings have been erected in Canton since last spring, and several are yet in an unfinished state. The Methodist Church is nearly completed, and is an ornament to the place.

Colwell's Block is finished and occupied, one part as a Dry Goods Store, and the other as a Drug Store.

If all our friends were as thoughtful as Lieut. Hollis in sending us items of news, we could make the paper very attractive.

GOSSIP.—How much money think you, most economical reader, is spent foolishly by otherwise sensible and circumspect people? Probably you, like the rest of mankind, have not thought much about it, and we are not prepared to answer. The thought takes on a "vast stupendousness" as we revolve it slowly in mind. Possibly not one in a hundred is aware that such as have generous incomes, as a rule, expend five times as much for purely selfish purposes, as they do for the necessary and comfortable. Not that we intend to declare war against too ample skirts, laces, feathers, surplus shawls and jewels, all of which the ladies delight in, or against extra broadcloth and beaver, canes, rings, chains, cigars, oyster suppers, and the hundred and one other matters which delight the sterner sex. There would be no discharge in that sort of war! Nor would such a war eventuate in permanent peace, on the basis of retrenchment. We know, too, that every man who has the means claims the right to expend so much as pleases him for his own gratification; and he says, pluckily, that it's nobody's business. We know, as well, that every woman will have what she deems proper, provided she can find the means to get it; and she, too, will say that it's none of our business. Well, it isn't, and it is, our business. It is not business to single out any man, or woman, who appears to be doing the extravagant, and [illegible] him, or her, a lecture. It is our business to [illegible] the error and folly in the mass, even if we incur the displeasure of forty thousand. If the women of Tioga county will save the money which they every year expend to satisfy pride and vanity, and hand it to us, we will see to it that there shall be no illfed and ill clothed children in Tioga county for that year; that every poor woman shall have a sewing machine; and that every child now unable to go to school, shall be sent to school until they all have a fair common school education. And if the men will save the money they expend for cigars, oyster-suppers, liquors, extra clothes, and other pleasures of sense, in any one year, we will undertake to build a neat brick church in every village and pay the ministers $1000 each per annum; to discharge one-half of the balance of the war debt of the county and present them each with a four-bladed knife. Not that we expect to handle so much money so obtained; for we all, men and women, appropriate only the surplus, after satisfying our needs, pride and vanity, to charitable uses. We are commanded to give of our "abundance;" whereas, most, if not all, bestow our abundance upon ourselves, and drop the balance, if any there be, into the contribution box. If all gave of their abundance what a world this would be! No more starving or freezing during the cold winter; no more children growing up without an education; no more seedy clergymen or threadbare teachers; no more, or many less, women going to the very bad. And so on, and so forth. So that if, by any chance, an angel should stray from the supernal clime into this, the estray would be puzzled to know where heaven left off and earth began. Is it not delightful to think of such an unearthly state of affairs? What matters it if it be fanatical, ideal, humbug, or what not; is a man ever to be tied up to the dull business of matter of fact? We cut the string and declare our independence. We set out, several years ago, to find the millennial day. We were not much surprised to find plenty of company. And now, although we don't expect to find it in this present world, we shall make just as many pictures of it to hang up in our picture gallery as we can. That day will dawn exactly two thousand millions of years after the hand which writes shall be impalpable dust. And we shall be there to see. That is some comfort though a long way off; not quite equal to the odor of beef-steak to a starving man, but pretty good notwithstanding. Therefore, let us all work to bring about the millennium, and thus earn a millennium for our individual selves. It is only to "be just and fear not," do right, and take the consequences. So ends our gossip for the week.

ORPHAN SCHOOLS.—Without intending to disparage Mansfield, the energy of whom citizens is proverbial, we sometimes wish that the school for Soldier's Orphans had been located at Wellsboro. Our Academy would suit the business admirably. However, since the location is made we do not purpose to grumble about it. The mystery to us is, what some of the good people of Mansfield are thinking about when they regard the school as detrimental to the interests of their town. It is a mystery which calls for explanation. We are told that some who ought to be best pleased with the location of the School do not regard it favorably. How, and why is it?

RESULT OF FRIGHT.—A lady writing us from Brookfield, in this county, relates the following singular circumstance:

"On the third of July last, Martha P——, a bright, active child of ten years, was playing at school, with her mates, and was about to go over a fence, when she suddenly discovered a snake, which was in the act of swallowing a toad. She screamed, and sprang on the fence, where she remained, rigid and paralyzed, with fear. She was removed to the nearest house, and partially restored; but it was soon found that she had lost her speech, which however she regained in a few weeks, but, alas! became unable to walk. When I last saw her, her right limb was badly drawn up. Have since heard, that her eyes and arms are becoming affected, and it is feared that her whole nervous system will, eventually, become disorganized. She had previously enjoyed good health.

"I once heard of a young woman, who became hopelessly insane, in consequense of a doctor sending her to make a bed, where he had concealed a skeleton. Such things ought to prove a caution to those who delight in devising means to frighten others. It can scarcely be doubted, that it exerts a baneful influence, though the effects are not always so apparent."

We assure our correspondent that her contributions are very welcome at all times.

DR. BROWN of Ithaca N. Y. will give a course of public lectures on the Science of Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene in the Methodist Episcopal Church Mansfield commencing on Monday Evening November. 11. The first lecture free to everybody. Beautiful anatomical apparatus will be displayed also pleasing and instructive chemical experiments performed and exhibited. Do not fail to hear the introductory of the course, which will cost you nothing.

Harper's Magazine for November is quite interesting. Another instalment of Porte Crayon's Recollections of the war, finely illustrated, lends greater interest to the number from the fact that the entire history of the second Bull Run fight is given by a disinterested eyewitness. The shorter stories are unusually good. To be had at Young's Book store, or of Mrs. Etz, at Tioga. Price by mail $4 per year. Harper Brothers, New York.

GET THE BEST.—In purchasing a Cooking Stove, it will be found economy to buy the best in the market. A few dollars saved in the purchase of an inferior stove will soon be expended in the additional consumption of fuel, saying nothing about the repairs and the inconveniences of using a stove that does not operate perfectly. The American Hot Air Stove, manufactured by Shear, Packard & Co. has been extensively used and thoroughly tested throughout all the Northern States for the last six years, both for coal and wood; and the universal expression of the people has been in its favor, as an economical, durable and perfect operating stove in all respects; and those in pursuit of a first-class Cooking Stove, will consult their own interests and convenience, and be sure of getting value for their money by purchasing the American.—Albany Evening Journal.

Coal for Sale.

COARSE BITUMINOUS COAL for Sale Cheap, by Sept. 28, 1867. D. P. ROBERTS.

"BEE-HIVE EXCHANGE!"

The harvest has come, the promise fulfilled,
To the man whose broad acres were properly tilled;
Wheat is good, corn bunkum, oats may be a short crop,
But the average of all must be marked as tip-top.

I MAKE no pretensions to prophetic fire, but my reiteration of Bible promises to the industrious worker was in good time. I am therefore emboldened to prophesy that nobody will

STARVE TO DEATH

this fall and winter who has raised enough of grain and root crops to keep him and his family; and those who lack anything in the way of life's substantials will escape starvation by applying to me at the

"BEE-HIVE EXCHANGE,"

where they will find my

PORK,

solid, and sweet, and cheap, my

FLOUR—X—XX—XXX

according to the marks upon the barrels; my

MACKEREL & WHITEFISH

The latest catch
And the greatest catch,

west of the

"Silent, sobbing, roaring, and placid Sea."

I furthermore prophesy that every man and woman, without distinction of color, race, or sex, will be

Cheered, but not inebriated,

by using the splendid

T—E—A—S

which I sell cheaper than the

GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY,

(or any other man. Sarkasm,) and no express charges, except the express charge of so much a pound, which you always pay when you trade with me.

I have had, and expect to continue to have a great "spell" of

"Kaughphy"

MOCHA (from Mecca) JAVA, BRAZIL, AND LAGUIRA.

(The latter of which rhymes with, but was not ground at "Elmira.")

I am further able to say that people will eat much or little, in proportion to their appetite, and will pay for much or little, according to their money. I sell Tea by the quarter pound, of course, but prefer to wholesale it in packages of not less than

and, by persuasion, can be induced to sell a chest of a dozen pounds to one customer.

The American Cooking Stove.

AFTER twenty years experience in the manufacture of stoves, we became convinced, some six years since, that a vast amount of money was being expended by the people of this country, in buying cheap and worthless stoves, a large portion of which was wasted; and that true economy consisted in buying the best stoves that could be made, notwithstanding the price was higher. With this view we proceeded to construct the American Cooking Stove, and spared no pains or expense to make it the best and most perfect stove that could be made. And we have experimented with it, and carefully watched its operation for the last six years, and when an improvement suggested itself, we have at once adopted it, and we have several of these improvements secured by letters patent. In this manner we do not hesitate to say, we have brought it to a higher state of perfection than has heretofore been attained in cooking stoves. The recent improvements in this stove has added largely to its convenience and effectiveness. In all the varieties of stoves we manufacture, we study usefulness, durability, convenience and economy in operation, rather than cheapness in price, and in so doing we are satisfied we study the interest of those purchasing our stoves. Proofs of the Superior Quality

AMERIC'N WATCH

MADE AT

WALTHAM, MASS.

The American Watch Company, of Waltham, Mass., respectfully submit that their Watches are cheaper, more accurate, less complex, more durable, better adapted for general use, and more easily kept in order and repaired than any other watches in the market. They are simpler in structure, and therefore stronger, and less likely to be injured than the majority of foreign watches, which are composed of from 125 to 300 pieces, while in an old English watch there are more than 700 parts. How they run under the hardest trial watches can have, is shown by the following letter:

PENN. RAILROAD COMPANY.
OFFICE OF THE GEN'L SPERINTENDENT,
ALTOONA, PA., 15 Dec., 1866.

GENTLEMEN:—The watches manufactured by you have been in use on this railroad for several years by our enginemen, to whom we furnish watches as part of our equipment. There are now some three hundred of them carried on our line, and we consider them good and reliable time-keepers. Indeed, I have great satisfaction in saying your watches give us less trouble, and have worn, and do wear much longer without repairs than any watches we have ever had in use on this road. As you are aware, we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation; but as a class they never keep time as correctly, nor have they done as good service, as yours.

In these statements I am sustained by my predecessor, Mr. Lewis, whose experience extended over a series of years. Respectfully,

EDWARD H. WILLIAMS,
General Superintendent.

American Watch Co., Waltham.

We make now five different grades of watches, named respectively as follows:

Appleton, Tracy & Co.,	Waltham, Mass.
Waltham Watch Company,	Waltham, Mass.
P. S. Bartlett,	Waltham, Mass.
Wm. Ellery,	Boston, Mass.
Home Watch Company,	Boston, Mass.

All of these, with the exception of the Home Watch Company, are warranted by the American Watch Company to be of the best material, on the most approved principle, and to possess every requisite for a reliable timekeeper. Every dealer selling these Watches is provided with the Company's printed card of guarantee, which should accompany each Watch sold, so that buyers may feel sure they are purchasing the genuine article. There are numerous counterfeits and imitations of our Watches sold throughout the country, and we would caution purchasers to be on their guard against imposition.

Any grades of Waltham Watches may be purchased of Watch Dealers throughout the country.
