W. M. CHENEY, - - - Editor.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1895.

The election on Tuesday next promises to be warm in Davidson township, centering on the office of constable. They are runnig three candidates, one on the Republican ticket—James Sones, and Geo. Rea on the Democratic ticket, and P. B. Hopper has entered the race on nomination papers. It will be, so they say, a warm fight to a finish. A glance over the battle field from this distance would indicate that Sones has the inside track from the fact that both Rea and Hopper are Democrats and will divide their strength Jim is a fine young man and if elected will attend to the duties of his office in a business like manner.
